THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1918

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. B. N. H. Dibbles.
The death occurred yesterday of Violet E. Dibbles, wife of B. N. H. Dibbles, at her home, 205 Paradise Row. Death came as a great surprise to her many friends. Mrs. Dibbles had been in poor health for the past two years. She leaves a daughter, Hazel, and a sister, Mrs. Lewis Smythe, of Montreal.

Louis Goldfeather.
Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Louis Goldfeather, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Goldfeather, 188 Prince William street, which occurred on Tuesday night at the General Public Hospital after a short illness following an operation. Besides his parents, one brother and three sisters survive.

Lance-Corporal Medley B. Weldon.
The news of the death of Lance-Corporal Medley Bertram Weldon, Canadian Engineers, St. John's (Que.), was received yesterday by his sister, Mrs. Clayton Collette, 117 Elliott Row, in a telegram from the Royal Victoria Hospital, stating that he died there yesterday morning. A few days ago Mrs. Collette had word from her brother stating that he had a heavy cold and it is thought here that death was due to Spanish influenza.

He was twenty-six years of age.
youngest son of the late Thomas Cole Weldon and Kate Price Weldon, of Boundary Creek, Westmorland county. He enlisted in June, 1917, with the Canadian engineers stationed at St. John's. He was a motorist with the N. B. Power Co.

He is survived by three brothers—Charles C. of the C. P. R., Robert B. C. of Montreal and John P. of Boston, and two sisters, Mrs. W. G. Nesland, of Winnipeg and Mrs. Collette of this city.
The bereaved ones are deserving of particular sympathy because of the fact that less than two months ago another brother, George Dale Weldon, was killed at the front.

Arrangements are being made to have the body brought for interment at Boundary Creek.

Mrs. G. Fred. Bond.
A telegram received here today by John H. Bond, 74 Waterloo street, conveyed the sad news of the death of the wife of his brother, G. Fred. Bond, in Malabar (Mass.), after a short illness. Mrs. Bond was a woman of kindly disposition and leaves, besides her husband, one daughter, Miss Beattie, at home. Mr. Bond was a resident of St. John before going to Malabar, where he has become one of the foremost business men, and much sympathy will be expressed by his friends here and elsewhere in his sad loss.

Mrs. Daniel Duffy.
Chapman, Oct. 2.—The death of Mrs. Daniel Duffy occurred at her home here on Thursday. Mrs. Duffy had been ill for a year, and her death was not unexpected.

expected. Besides her husband, she leaves four sons, Frank, in Idaho; Ernest, in Trenton (Ont.), and James and Carl, of Chipman, and two daughters, Mrs. Edward Houghton, of Boston, and Miss Tessie, at home. Rev. E. J. Conway conducted the funeral service. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery at Red Bank.

Miss Janet Fowler.
Chipman, Oct. 2.—Friends here heard with regret of the death on Saturday of Janet Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Fowler, who had lived here practically all her life and had many friends, all of whom were much shocked when the message came announcing her death. The body was brought here on Monday and laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery at Red Bank. Rev. E. E. Mowatt conducted the service.

Mrs. Coley A. Craig.
Hartland, Oct. 2.—The death occurred on September 29, 1918, of Mrs. Coley A. Craig after a lingering illness. Besides her husband, she leaves four children, Mrs. Oran Horey, little Miss Sybil, John and Winifred. The funeral was held on Saturday, and the service was conducted by Rev. E. A. Trives. Floral tributes were received from the W. M. A. S. and Star Bible Class of the Baptist church, of which Mrs. Craig was a valued member.

E. R. Rogers.
Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 3.—Elegg Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rogers, of Northampton, passed away at his home, Monday morning, September 29, 1918. He was eighteen years of age, and is survived by his parents, three sisters, Mrs. Clifford Kidney, of Northampton; Daisy and Mary, and one brother, William, all at home. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Mr. Howard, of Woodstock. Interment was made in Green Bank cemetery.

James Woodbury.
St. George, Oct. 2.—The funeral of James Woodbury, an aged and respected citizen, was held here yesterday with services in St. Mark's church. Rev. I. W. Somers officiated.

Mr. Woodbury died on Monday after a short illness, his end hastened by the news of his son, Fred's death at the front a few weeks ago. His wife, one daughter, and two sons survive. Mrs. Ernest Fisher survives.

Andrew Philip, Sr.
Upper Kintore, N. B., Oct. 3.—There passed to his rest recently, after a short illness, one of Upper Kintore's oldest and most highly respected residents, namely, Andrew Philip, at the age of eighty-three years. He was born at Quatnam, of Drum, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and came to this country in the year 1874. Some years ago, while working in a sawmill, he was unfortunate enough to lose his left arm, but in spite of this he kept a small wood-working shop, where he worked until within a few weeks of his death. Mr. Philip was a staunch member of the Presbyterian church and was found to be found in his accustomed seat in the "kirk" where he will be greatly missed by all. He lived at David H. Vail died recently in Roxbury, Mass. His funeral took place at Belleisle Creek on Friday. Besides his wife and two children, he leaves four sisters. Mrs. Mierstead of St. John is one.

Prof. William Leslie Hooper, for thirty-five years a member of the Tufts College faculty, and acting president of the institution in 1912 and 1913, died at his home in Medford, Mass., yesterday. He was head of the electrical engineering department of the college.

NOW A MAJOR.
Friends of Captain G. K. Turner, formerly principal of the Fairville school, of Douglas avenue, and later of the Valley Road engineering staff, will be pleased to learn that he has been promoted to the rank of major. Major Turner went overseas as a private in 1914. He has won the D. C. M. and the Military Cross.

Our Overcoat Prices Got Got Them All Guessing

AND THE REASON WHY:
First—Because we bought the cloth at an exceptional low figure.
Second—Because we believe it is unfair for any merchant in war times to sell goods at a large profit.
Third—Because we believe in quick sales, show no favors and one price to all.

HERE YOU ARE:
Our Special $12.00 Black Coat, without a doubt, the biggest bargain in the city.
Our $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00 Black, Greys and Mixed Colors are equal to any $25.00 coat sold elsewhere.
Our $25.00 Special Tailor-made Grey and Black Melton and English Beaver means a saving to you at least of a five dollar bill.

To prove our statement and to be fair to yourself, we invite you to come and compare our prices and quality.

Our Sale of Hoosier Cabinets Ends Tomorrow Night

Come to our Store at once and Investigate this Master Labor-saver for Women

You owe it to yourself to learn more about labor-saving devices for the kitchen, for you are a member of Canada and United States' biggest industry—her 20,000,000 kitchens with 24,000,000 women working in them. You are one of the women who have extra duties to perform now.

THE WORK WOMEN ARE doing in this war is important. They are canning and preserving fruits and vegetables. More have been canned than ever before. They are helping to save the nation's food supply. They will be soon helping to sell Victory Bonds, and they are knitting thousands of Sweaters and other things for our soldiers.

THE CLUB PLAN IS:
1.—$1.00 puts any Hoosier in your home.
2.—The low cash price fixed by the factory prevails strictly.
3.—No interest or extra fees.
4.—No collectors going to your door.

Saturday is the Last Day

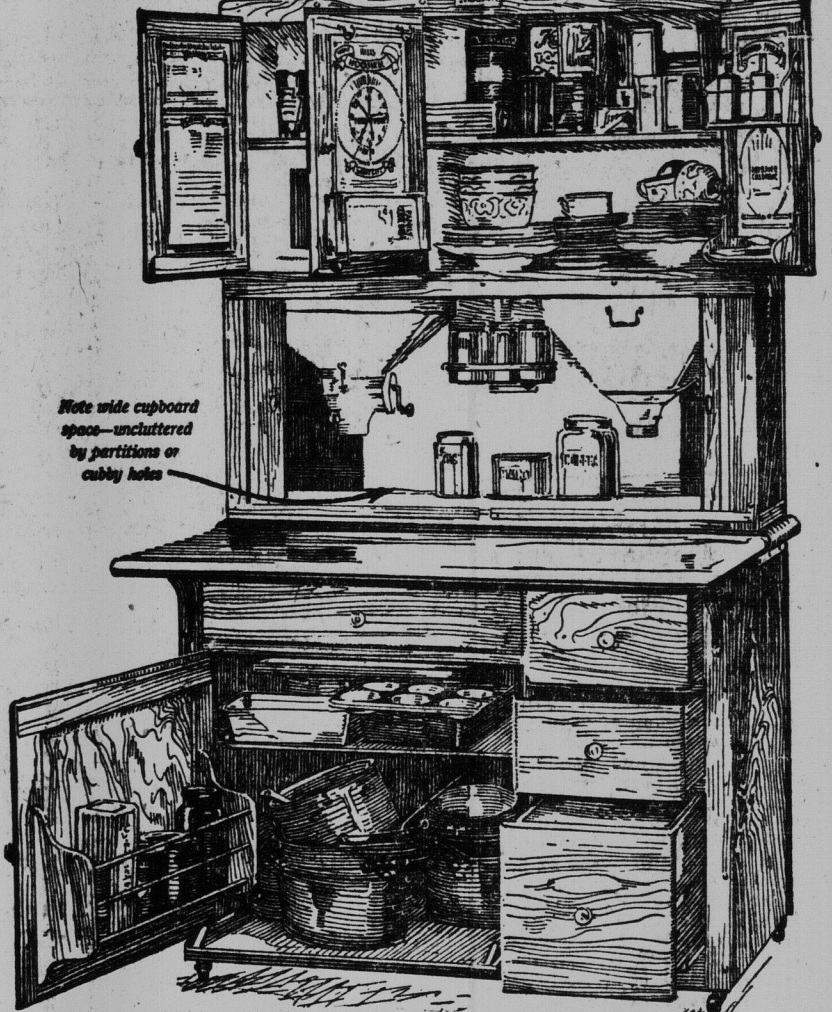

WHEN THIS LOT OF CABINETS IS GONE

No more at this price. The Hoosier Company has sent us word that this sale must close Saturday Night.

All you Ladies who don't have a Kitchen Cabinet will freely admit that you'd like to have a Hoosier. Isn't that so? And isn't it true that you'd like to get it before the prices go up? The raise takes effect the instant the few remaining Hoosiers are sold.

Isn't it a fact that you can easily manage a few dollars a month—only five cents a meal? Then what can possibly prevent you from seizing this golden opportunity?

RESOLVE RIGHT NOW, as you read this warning, to get one of these last Hoosiers while you can. All your days you will be glad you had courage to act.
