

SAYS WIFE IS POKER PLAYER

Husband's Excuse For Leaving Her — She Testifies That She Never Lost

Boston, March 12.—Louis D. Martell of West Boston, testified in the District Court, where he was a defendant, charged with not supporting his wife, Mrs. Annie Martell, of 40 Bennett street, East Boston, that the reason he had failed to provide for Mrs. Martell's support was that she was a confirmed poker player; that she remained out until all hours of the night sitting at the card table in the homes of friends, and that she had on several occasions lost large sums of money at poker.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poisoning. Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!
