A NEW BATHING SUIT.

To make this suit requires:
 7 yards 36-inch material at 20c. yard. $1.40
 1 yard lining 36 inches wide. .... 25c

The pieces of the pattern are laid on the open material right side up, with the exception of the skirt, back, collar and shield. These, with the belt also, are laid on a fold of the goods. The bloomers are attached to an underbody of heavy muslin, and this is easily made by taking up the dart in front, as indicated; then closing the under-arm and shoulder seams. Finish edges with narrow hems.

Now, after taking up the darts in the bloomers, turn under extension at right front edge on slit perforations. Close leg and center seams, the latter from upper edge in back to extension in front. Bring the "T" perforation at upper edge to center-back seam and tack. Hem the lower edge of the bloomers and insert elastic, after which the bloomers are ready to sew to the underbody.

Begin the blouse by sewing the sleeve to front and back as notched. Close the under-arm seams, hem the right side of the front, creating on fold; then lap right front on left, centers even. Remember that the large "O" perforations indicate center-front. The lower edges are now attached to the collar, after which the cowboy collar is added to the neck, after corresponding small "o" perforations in collar and back of the waist have been brought together to see that the collar is properly adjusted. Close the cuff seam and add to the sleeve, as indicated. The seam in the back of the skirt is now closed, the hem is turned under at the bottom, the pleats pressed into place and the skirt sewed to the waist. With the adjustment of the belt, the suit is finished, except for the addition of the buttons.

Very stylish model for a bathing suit showing the Russian blouse waist with one-piece raglan sleeves and the new cowboy collar.

Bathing suits for the coming summer are among the most attractive of the new styles. A handsome design is shown here, exploiting the Russian blouse effect, modernized by one-piece raglan sleeves and the new cowboy collar.

AMERICAN WOMAN RENTS GREAT GHOST OF ENGLAND

Mrs. Henry W. Marsh Takes Warwick Castle Where Earl of Warwick Clanks Through Halls in Armor

Mrs. Henry W. Marsh

(Times Special Correspondence.)
 (By Nicola Greeley-Smith.)

New York, May 27—Rented—one ghost, a real, genuine, historic ghost—one of the most exclusive ghosts in all tradition—none other than the ghost of Warwick castle, which, with all other appearances of that famous mansion, has just become the property for a term of years of Mrs. Henry W. Marsh of New York and Chicago.

According to tradition the great Earl of Warwick, who was known as the "king-maker," is still uneasy in his mind because of the part he took in the dethronement of his former friend, Edward IV., whom he had made king. So at night, when all the castle is asleep, the ghost of Richard Neville stalks through one great armory, takes down its buckler and its sword and, with martial tread and clanging armor, walks up and down till dawn!

In addition to this distinguished ghost and the castle where it makes its home, the Marshes have leased the 3,500 acre estate which includes three miles of Shakespeare's river, Avon. "I haven't seen the Warwick ghost yet," Mrs. Marsh said the other day, "but I am looking forward to my first meeting with him. In Knebworth House, Hertfordshire, the last castle we occupied before leasing Warwick, there was a haunted room. The ghost was a woman.

"But I never expect any of my friends to sleep in the haunted rooms. They are not so ghost-broken as I am."

The Saving of Money by the use of Royal Baking Powder is considerable

Royal is economical, because it possesses more leavening power and goes further. Royal saves also, because it always makes fine, light, sweet food, all digestible; never wastes good flour, butter and eggs.

More important still is the saving in health. Royal Baking Powder adds anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food.

There is no baking powder so economical in practical use, no matter how little others may cost, as the Royal

When you've ordered Silk do you accept Sateen?

Almost a foolish question, but—not quite!

There are still some people who order Kellogg's Corn Flakes and are given a substitute "just as good"—and accept the imitation.

The difference between and the "just as good" kind is even greater than the difference between silk and sateen.

The great difference is in the flavor and the nutriment.

Be sure that you ask for and get Kellogg's. It is the original.
