MARRIED IN CHATHAM

Wedding There Today of Miss Alice Mary Burchill and J. A. Haviland.

Chatham, Aug. 26--One of the prettiest weddings in Chatham for years took place at St. Paul's parish church at twelve o'clock today, when Miss Alice Mary, eldest daughter of Hon. J. P. and Mrs. Burchill, was married to John Archibald Haviland, barrister, of Vancouver.

The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with golden glow and ferns, and was packed to the doors. The venerable Archdeacon Forsythe officiated, assisted by the bride's uncle, the Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, of Springfield.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of white muslin trimmed with rose point lace, and embroidered in seed pearls. She wore a veil and orange blossoms and carried a white prayer book and ferns, and was packed to the doors.

The groom wore a dark suit and a black velvet hat with black plumes. He carried a bouquet of yellow marguerites.

The ceremony was attended by W. A. Wilbur and the ushers were Harry Logie and J. P. Burchill.

Mrs. Burchill, mother of the bride, was gowned in a handsome dress of wistaria mesaline and wore a black jet hat trimmed with black plumes.

Mrs. Sargent, aunt of the bride, wore a beautiful French embroidered gray serge de chene gown and a black velvet hat with black plumes.

Miss Stirling, of New York, cousin of the bride, wore a dress of laque mesaline with a black hat and beautiful parade plume.

Mrs. Logie, sister of the groom, was gowned in purple silk, and wore a black hat and white feathers.

Mrs. Benson of Ottawa, sister of the groom, wore mauve marquisette and a purple hat.

After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Haviland left for their special train leaving Union depot at 1:30 p. m., this will be in addition to the regular train leaving at 8:45. City Cornet Band will furnish music.
