DIKEMAN'S
Ladies' Coats

A fortunate forecast placed us in an enviable position among handlers of Ladies' Jackets this year. Two years ago we did not carry over a single coat. One year ago when we considered the season closed we had one coat and the head of the department was instructed to get rid of this even if she had to give it away, so that we would be left to start this season with no left overs. In view of the success of former years we believed that we could sell more coats if we made a bold move, consequently our orders were doubled for this season. This has been a phenomenal coat season and we have had the stock to meet the demand while many other stores have had to rush round from factory to factory to take whatever was left to replenish their stocks with.

This accounts for the excellent style of Coats you will still find on sale at our store and the marvellous low prices that prevail considering the immense demand for coats.

LOCAL NEWS

VISITING DOCTOR.
Dr. George S. Tiffany of Montreal who, with Dr. H. S. Mackidd of Calgary, president of the Canadian Medical Association, was here last year in the interests of the organization is making another visit to the city and will remain here several days. He is at the Royal Hotel.

BOTH ACCUSED.
A case came up for hearing in the police court this morning in which Roy Ross was charged with using abusive language to W. E. Levron. He pleaded not guilty but accused the complainant of using abusive language to him. The case was set down for hearing tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

LITTLE CHAPS, LOOK OUT!
There are dishonest newspaper sellers trading on the ignorance of some of the little lads who sell the papers in the streets. These older ones have pieces of copper shaped like cents but whitened and they have been passing them off on some of the smaller boys in exchange for papers. One little lad had four passed on him yesterday. It means a small sum in money, but the trick is a good deal smaller.

THE E. MERRIAM.
A. W. Adams of this city is the St. John agent of the schooner E. Merriam which was wrecked about thirty miles from Rockland, Me., this week. The schooner was loaded with lumber and was bound from this port to New York. Captain Ward and the members of the crew were all saved. The schooner was not insured, but it is understood that the cargo was fully insured.

KNIGHTS HOME.
Members of the St. John Council, Knights of Columbus, 897, who went to Moncton to attend the exemplification of degrees, and who stayed over for the assembly there last evening, returned to their homes today. The dinner and reception held last night was a distinctly successful and most enjoyable event. A few ladies from St. John were also amongst the guests.

AT BLUE ROCK.
The Courtenay Construction Company has completed the contract for leveling Blue Rock and partially filling in the space behind the sea wall with the material. There is still a large amount of filling to be done, but this cannot be commenced until the foundations of the elevator have been completed. When it is undertaken it will probably be done by the C. P. R., as they are in a good position to haul the material required for the fill.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Woods, of 397 Princess street, were greatly surprised last evening when about forty young people surprised them on the thirty-eighth anniversary of their wedding and presented to them a nice diamond rooker. Reginald Donnell gave an address when presiding at the dinner. Mr. Woods made a fitting response. Dancing, music and games were engaged in and the party broke up soon after midnight, after thoroughly enjoying the evening.

DEATH IN CARLETON.
The death of Mrs. Frederic Radcliffe occurred at her residence, 90 Protection street, St. John, yesterday. She was thirty-two years of age and is survived by her husband and four small children, her mother, two brothers and two sisters. The sisters are Mrs. J. Caplani of St. John and Mrs. E. Richards of Boston, and the brothers are James Richards and William Richards of this city. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence.

HE LOST TEN.
An elderly man who arrived in the city today on the Boston train and who said his name was Perkins, mournfully told to some persons in the depot that someone had helped himself to $10 of his money on the train coming down. He said he was going back to Halifax, or did not know and the theft had left him short in his cash account. He had not been home for years, but he expected to stay there long enough to die. Evidently he had been celebrating his home-coming on the train, for he showed the effects of having indulged, and it was difficult to say whether some person had stolen the bill or he had lost it through carelessness.

BURIED TODAY.
The funeral of Mrs. Estella Radcliffe took place this afternoon from her late home in Protection street, West End. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. E. Thomas and interment was in the Methodist cemetery, with many friends attending.

The funeral of William Heans took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late home in Parson's row. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gordon Dickie and interment was in Fernhill. There were many friends in the funeral procession.

The funeral of Hugh McCaveer took place this afternoon from his late home in Lorneville. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. Malcolm and interment was in the Lorneville cemetery. Many attended.

THE LATE MRS. ROSANNA BROWN.
The late Mrs. Rosanna Brown, widow of James Brown, who died yesterday morning, was the eldest daughter of the late John Cassidy, who left Ireland eighty years ago and settled in St. John. Mrs. Brown was born in Bandon on Dec. 24, 1824, and came here with her parents when eight years of age, and had resided in this city ever since, living for more than fifty years at 182 Sheffield street, soon after she married James Brown. He died eighteen years ago. Mrs. Brown was the mother of five daughters and four sons, of whom three daughters and two sons survive. These are Mrs. Elizabeth Haggarty, of Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. Jennie B. Barnes of this city; Mrs. Sarah Driscoll, of Maynard, Mass.; James A. and Thomas C. of this city. There are also fifteen grandchildren and several great-grandchildren. Mrs. Brown's death was somewhat sudden, she having attended divine service just a week before she died, and at that time appearing in her usual health. She was a member of Carmarthen street Methodist church.

FORM COMPANY AND WILL HANDLE WHARF PROPERTIES.
George McA. Blizard and H. N. Stetson, the owners of the Kerr Wharf and the two adjoining wharves on Charlotte street extension, have formed a company to handle the properties and are applying for incorporation as the St. John Dock and Warehouse Co., Ltd. They are planning to rebuild part of the wharves and put them in first class shape and will erect warehouses on the wharves. There will be 22,000 feet of warehouse room, which will be divided into a large number of fair sized warehouses for various purposes to meet the demand for such accommodation.

EVIDENCE GIVEN IN THE PHILLIPS CASE

Matter of Money Order — How the Identification Came About

The preliminary hearing in the case of Herman G. Phillips, a young man who was arrested in Marlboro, Mass., on the charge of stealing a money order for $34.00 from the office of R. A. Lister & Co., in Water street, and also with forgery, was begun in the police court this morning. G. Earle Logan, appeared on behalf of the department of justice, and L. A. Conlon for the prisoner. Two witnesses were examined and the case was further adjourned.

Alan Linsley, an employee of the post office, who was the department for several months, was called to the stand by Phillips' attorney and testified that Phillips went to the post office on July 4 and presented a money order for $34.00 to the postmaster, R. A. Lister & Co., in Water street, and also with forgery, was begun in the police court this morning. G. Earle Logan, appeared on behalf of the department of justice, and L. A. Conlon for the prisoner. Two witnesses were examined and the case was further adjourned.

William H. Winchester, who identified the prisoner as Applegate at the post office the time the order was cashed, was called. He said he was employed as clerk with T. Mackenzie & Son in their Water street store. The prisoner had gone into the store on or about July 4, and said he would like to have some one accompany him to the post office to identify him. The witness remembered the prisoner having worked in the machine shop for about a week. He started to look up the names of the employees, but the chief clerk, C. H. Duffin, told him that it was all right and to go along. He therefore went to the post office and identified the prisoner as Applegate. The witness said that he saw the prisoner sign the order.

On cross-examination the witness admitted that he did not personally know the prisoner or whether his name was Applegate or not. He had taken the prisoner's word at the time that his name was Applegate.

M. Logan asked for an adjournment to secure more witnesses, and it was granted. His Honor said that the evidence would be heard in the court next in order that the prisoner could be sent up for trial. The two witnesses entered into their own recognizances to appear at the sitting of the court on Tuesday next.

Perfection in Overcoats

means not only what is plain to the eye, but the overcoat in its entirety, make, finish, fit, appearance, and most important of all, the tailoring of it. A "page" on overcoats wouldn't begin to do ours full justice. The variety of styles which we show at each price, the excellence and style that mark each grade as that of the best, at the price, makes our store the clothing store of men in every walk of life.

OVERCOATS

For men who know the difference between economy and cheapness. Overcoat weather is again with us. It may go away for a day or so, but only to come back in the wings of an icy breeze. This store cannot afford to show a smaller variety of overcoats than one that will satisfy the taste of every man who insists upon a garment that has quality in it, seen and unseen.

Always, we suppose, there will be men who will be foolish enough to buy coats, and clothes solely from the cheap look of the price tag, forgetting that the cheapest thing about many suits and coats is the quality of them. Men of that kind always need a clothing stock in which they cannot go wrong. We have got it.

Men who know will recognize it. Assortments of overcoats are at their fullest and finest at every point, and in every grade from $10 to $40

There are light, medium and heavy weight garments, some with velvet collars, some self-collared, some full lined and some half-lined, some skelton; there are coats that button through and coats with fly fronts, coats with patch pockets, coats with belted backs, coats with cuff on sleeves and coats without; there are fabrics for every taste, age and prejudice, some rough finish, others smooth—all well and reliably made into garments that are fairly priced and fully guaranteed.
