NOT A WINTER DOG. A little boy was entertaining the minister the other day until his mother could complete her toilet. The minister, to make congenial conversation, inquired: "Have you a dog?" "Yes, sir; a dachshund," responded the lad. "Where is he?" questioned the dominie, knowing the way to a boy's heart. "Father sends him away for the winter. He says it takes him so long to go in and out the door he cools the whole house off."—Success Magazine.

THINK THIS OVER

This Offer Should Gain the Confidence of the Most Skeptical. I pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if my remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. I take all the risk. You are not obligated to me in any way whatever. If you accept my offer, I mean every word of what I have said, and mean more than you could imagine.

LETTER 72 YEARS TO REACH DESTINATION

(Yonkers Dispatch N. Y. Herald). If it takes a letter 72 years to travel 233 miles, and both the writer and the addressee are dead when Uncle Sam at last gets around to delivery, how long will it take a post card to make the journey? This is puzzling and not only Nathan Warren, the postmaster here, but Mrs. Walter Padlock, of No. 120 Locust Hill avenue, who today received a letter mailed from Geneva, N. Y., in 1838, directed to the great uncle of her husband, Dr. O. Padlock, who has been dead for forty years.
