MARY MILES MINTER in "A CUMBERLAND ROMANCE"
You never saw this charming star in such a role before. That's why you must not miss this production at our theatre.
MARY MILES MINTER makes a classic of the part of "Easter Hicks," the mountain moonshine daughter. It's the greatest portrayal in the whole career of this brilliant young star. A "Furriner," a city dweller invades the sacred precincts of the mountain moonshine district and falls in love with this New Mary Miles Minter. We prophesy right here that you will fall in love with her, too.
COMEDY EXTRA

THE SUPER-MELODRAMA OF THE YEAR "THE HOPE"
As a wild thing, wounded to the death, by instinct slips away to hide in the midst of gorgeous gentry of the Durbar in India. Where did she go? What fate overtook her? And what effect did her disappearance have upon the destinies of those who loved her?
Such absorbing incidents and questions as these earned great success for Cecil Raleigh and Henry Hamilton's Super-Melodrama when it scored a tremendous success on the stage.
KING OF THE CIRCUS
Ladies' Doubles.
Miss G. Price and Miss Mary Robertson (R.) defeated Miss J. Knight and Miss H. Dishart (D. C.), 6-4, 6-2.
Mixed Doubles.
Miss G. Price and J. McInerney vs. Miss J. Knight and J. Harold Drumme (R.), 2-6, 6-3.
Miss M. Robertson and A. G. Burnham (R.) defeated Miss H. Dishart and A. C. Clark (D. C.), 5-7, 6-4, 6-1.
Men's Doubles.
B. Ryan and J. H. Drumme (D. C.) defeated J. McInerney and C. Clark (R.), 2-6, 6-3.
G. Dishart and W. G. Clark (D. C.) defeated W. R. Stewart and H. W. Wilson (R.), 9-7, 6-0.
F. H. Sandall and Lorne Scott (D. C.) defeated H. Morton and A. G. Burnham (R.), 6-4, 6-2, 7-5.
S. Parkhill and H. W. Wilson (R.) defeated T. Simpson and R. McInerney (D. C.), 7-5, 6-1.
W. Thomas and R. Simpson (D. C.) defeated M. Lamb and H. Gregory (R.), 4-6, 6-2, 6-1.
S. Clark and D. Fowler (R.) defeated A. L. Harding and J. McLaughlin (D. C.), 6-2, 6-3.
A. C. Clark and R. Evans (D. C.) defeated W. Cooper and W. Clarke (R.), 6-2, 6-1.
The totals of the three tournaments show that Renforth has won fourteen events for 210 points and Drury Cove defeated the home club. After the last set would have been at the least a score 9-1 one.
The most closely contested event in the men's doubles was the one between M. Lamb and H. Gregory, Renforth, and W. Thomas and R. Simpson, Drury Cove. The game of the last set did not give credit to it as each point was fought for.
Supper was served on the grounds by the ladies of the home club. After the last set would have been at the least a score 9-1 one.

"Cut'er Out, Jerry!"
together the Arm, St. Mary's (the maritime champions) and the Hopgood crew. The Arm and St. Mary's went to the turning mark together, but St. Mary's got straightened away for home first. The Arm crew roared them down in the last half mile, and won in the fast time of 9 minutes, 11 and 2-5 seconds, over a mile and a half. It was the first defeat of St. Mary's in four years.
George Power, Northwest Arm (maritime champion) took second place in the "junior singles." F. R. Hart's only opponent in the senior singles was Geo. Power, who went over the course to make a contest.
Dinghy Championship.
The maritime dinghy championships will be sailed at Halifax on September 9, 10 and 12. The Royal Kennebec Yacht Club will have two entries: Shelburne will enter a boat, and Dartmouth will also send a boat.
TENNIS.
Regain Championship.
Boston, Mass., Aug. 29—William T. Tilden, 2nd and Vincent Richards yesterday regained the national doubles lawn tennis championship. In a match marked by super tennis, especially on the part of the youthful Richards, they defeated the eastern doubles champions L. Norris Williams 2nd, and W. M. Washburn, in straight sets, long extended. The scores were 13-11, 12-10, 6-1.
ATHLETIC.
Field Day Called Off.
The West End Intermediate League field day, which was scheduled for Saturday afternoon, was called off owing to some players being dissatisfied about the meet.
GOLF.
Chicago, Aug. 29—Mrs. Melvin Jones of Chicago, won the women's western golf association championship on Saturday, six up and four to play, by defeating Mrs. J. W. Douglas, also of Chicago.
DRURY COVE WINS TENNIS MATCH
A third tennis tournament between Renforth Tennis Club and the Drury Cove Athletic Association was played on Saturday, and was exceptionally well contested on account of it being the decisive match. The first was played at Renforth and won by Drury Cove, the second was won by Drury Cove Club, giving the Drury Cove Club the lead of two matches to Renforth's one.
The mixed doubles were very hard fought events, one having to be called off on account of darkness. This one, Miss G. Price and J. McInerney, Renforth, vs. Miss J. Knight and J. H. Drumme, Drury Cove, was so evenly contested that the last set would have been at the least a score 9-1 one.

Are You—Or Have You—An Unwilling Husband?
STAR THEATRE
Monday and Tuesday
It's A Wise Husband That Knows His Own Wife
Particularly if she be beautiful; if he never saw her before, and if she insists that he is her "hubby."
A chance visit placed this bachelor in a strange house, with a strange girl and a strange man.
During the day he pretended he was her husband. She was so loving and "wifey."
But at night—what embarrassment!
Imagine yourself in his place, trying to find your room.
"Her Unwilling Husband" is semi-naughty and slightly risque.
