LANSDOWNE'S REPLY TO BRITISH SHIP OWNERS

The Chartering of Steamers as Colliers to the Russians is Not Permissable.

London, Nov. 4.-Foreign Secretary Lansdowne, in a letter dated November 2rd, has informed a British ship-owning firm that "it is not permissible for British owners to charter their vessels for the purpose of following the Russian fleet with coal."

The letter was in reply to a direct query from the firm which drew the attention of the foreign office to the British ollier Roddam, which was then lying Vigo waiting the arrival of the Rus owners were entitled to charter their vessels for this purpose.

Could They Read Signals?

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4 .- 1 p.m .- The possibility that there may have been some misunderstanding of signals during the trawler incident in the North Sea is suggested by a fact made public in an order of the day issued by Vice-Admiral Chouknin, commander of the Black Sea fleet, which records the fact that offi the latter fleet are so unfamilian with the new code system adopted by the admiralty that during the recent man-oeuvers not a single ship understood or haved the admiral's signals.
