MRS. CHADWICK ARRESTED.

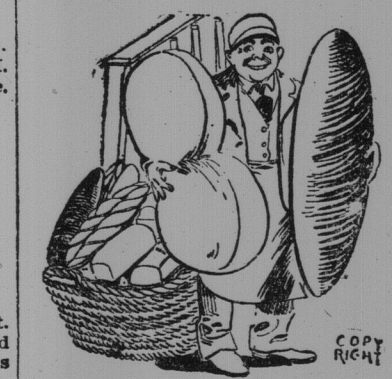

The Woman Who Fooled Astute Bankers
to the Tune of Millions,
Is in Custody.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The climax in the affairs of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick came tonight when she was placed under arrest in her apartments at the Hotel Breslin, charged with aiding and abetting a bank officer in embezzling $12,000. The arrest was made after a lengthy conference between U. S. Commissioner Shields, Assistant U. S. District Attorney W. E. Baldwin, Secret Service Agent William J. Flynn and U. S. Marshal Henkel. Commissioner Shields issued the warrant which charges a violation of section 5,229 of the U. S. federal laws relating to conspiracy.

There was a scene in the woman's apartments when the officials announced to Mrs. Chadwick that she was under arrest. A maid opened the door, and Agent Flynn stood for Mrs. Chadwick. Her son stood by and witnessed with a blank face the scene which followed. He stepped to his mother's side as she burst into tears, but said nothing.

Marshal Henkel, who with his deputies and United States Secret Agent William J. Flynn grouped in the door of Mrs. Chadwick's apartments, had entered without knocking, found her in bed, she said:
"I have an unpleasant duty to perform. I am obliged to serve a warrant for your arrest, issued by U. S. Commissioner Shields at the instance of the federal authorities of Ohio."
"I am very nervous and ill," replied Mrs. Chadwick. "What shall I do, I am certainly unable to get up."
"In that case," said the marshal, "I shall be obliged to remain here and keep you under surveillance. You will realize how unpleasant this is for both of you. You are a prisoner and I have no right to leave you here alone. I will do everything I can to relieve you of annoyance, however."
When the conference was in progress a man, believed to be Mr. Powers, one of Mrs. Chadwick's counsel, entered the room and began to advise her. He advised her to stay in bed and under no circumstances to leave the room. Marshal Henkel took exception to the advice, and said:
"If Mrs. Chadwick needs any advice as a prisoner I'll give it to her. No attempt will be made to move her from here tonight, but she must go before Commissioner Shields in the morning."

A GREAT LOT OF BREAD

leaves our place every day. It goes to the homes of people who appreciate high quality.
The high grade flour used; the skill of the bakers and the modern ovens are all factors in producing results that are entirely satisfactory.
Our bread is uniformly well baked. Every loaf is like every other loaf, light, crisp, palatable and wholesome. Have you tried the Union Bread? There's health and strength in it. Tastes good, too.
