H. RUSSELL STURDEE,

AN INTERESTING LECTURER. Sergt. Major Schoof, who lectured yesterday in the Congregational church, has led an interesting life. He came to America from Germany twenty-three years ago. He was tall, strong and full of that enthusiasm and hopefulness which are the foundation of success. For many years he herded cattle on the plains of Dakota and Wyoming, saving his money and gaining experience. After six years he returned to Germany and narrowly escaped being pressed into service there, but escaped in a British ship to Hull La-ter he went to Africa, joined the British army and went through the Matabele war. He was present at the annexation of Rhodesia. Speaking of Cecil Rhodes, Sergt.-Major Schoof said
