INCREASING

$8.000.000—Heartrendin Dead. 3.000 Homeless a ned, Mr. Werneth and Williams he family in a small boat and boat filled with water and The elder Miss Werneth, who accomplished swimmer and Williams reached a tree, which abed. The other persons in the re drowned before their eyes. Verneth made a desperate ato reach the tree in which her and young Williams had refuge and was within a few en a huge wave engulfed her. rneth, bearing his younger in his arms, reached the d was about to climb it when slipped from his grasp. She Werneth attempted to and a wave overwhelmed in which Wililams and his had taken refuge. The young nd endeavored to leap from the Williams.

remained in the tree until the building at Fort Morgan exhospital is wrecked, and this rtially unroofed. The water t the fort were destroyed, and water, but this has been re Private Murphy of the 9th batast artillery, is believed to have only one drowned at the fort. ascertained today that four Dauphin Island. The names own. Nothing has been heard Vinona, the government revenue which left Scranton Wednesday

IBLE LOSS AT PENSACOLA

ACOLA, Fla., Sept. 29.—The life and the damage resulting hurricane which struck this irsday morning is terrible. The ead has grown to 26, and it is that many more have been lost ers injured, while 3,000 are s. For two days rescuing parbeen working to bring condiome degree of order, but their have not been successful to any tent, and many bodies are still ath wreckage. miles east and west streets ewn with the wrecks of homes sels of all kinds. Commencing McRae, on a point overlooking if and continuing to Escamba there is nothing but devasta-McRae five lives were lost ess was hurt, and they, with ured travellers of the Long train, quickly set to work and re alive, though many were unourse of an hour the dead and injured had been removed and nearby places. fe were started. Only five njured were brought to this inder were cared for at Bristhree dead passengers Bristol.

VERSEAS MAIL ON TIME

VIPEG, Man., Sept. 30.—The 'over seas mail' passed Winnipeg this morning sharp and a despatch from Elkhor wo hundred miles west of here ernoon says the running sche-still being maintained.

ST. JOHN SEMI-WEEKLY SUN

MR. FOSTER AGAIN UNDER NINETEEN DEAD THE GOVERNMENT WILL SHEPLEY'S INQUISITION MANY ENTOMBED

were cut out of the original selection because from reports received they were not good enough to be selected ny, still retaining 6,878 acres.

transaction with Pope and Fowler?"

"We were looking after the interests of the company," was the reply.

selected by Pope and Fowler.

We have just received a large stock of

Allan, Whyte & Co's

Black and Galvanized.

This Rope works where other makes fail.

Write or ask us for quotations

W. H. THORNE & CO., Limited,

Market Square, St. John, N. B.

More Peculiar Details of the Western Lands Transaction Revealed.

8.640 Acres of Worthless Lands Sold to Trust Company at Same Price as Best Land — Foster Sees No Conflict Between His Position as Director and investor.

Wilson.

(Special to the Sun.)

TORONTO, Oct. 4.—At the insurance investigation toda; the examination of Hon, Geo. E. Foster was continued. He Great West Land Company of 8,640 acres, in addition to the 200,000 acres which had already been purchased. The land company had field notes of on which to value the land. The offer by Pope and Fowler to us," said Foster, and if the intermediate transactions had been fully carried out, the transfers would have gone through Wilson, McGillivary and himself. The addition was taken over by the Great West Land Company at $5 per | Foster admitted that information acre. Pope and Fowler got an option for the lands from the C. P. R. The original option defined a large area out of which the land might selected, but closed by entries in the stock book of when the actual transfer to the Great West Land Company was made, the land actually taken was specifically described. Foster did not know that The purchase price of 8,640 acres was described. Foster did not know that the 8,640 acres were comprised within a tract originally travelled over in the work of selection. Although the witness was managing director of the purchasing company, he took no steps to find out whether the lands had been whether of the first series will be selection.

rejected at the first examination. In the purchase of these lands, he said, Foster, Wilson and McGillivary were acting exactly as they were acting in the previous transactions. They director?" he asked.

"In this respect I think the Great West Land Company had exactly the same position as they would have had if they would leave $4,640 to be divided in cash." Foster said his syndicate got

"Did you think it was necessary or desirable that report which recom-mended the purchase of these 8.640 acres of land should have stated that you were the intermediate purchaser, having personal interest in property?" asked

"Does not that view appeal to you?"
"I think it would probably have been better to have mentioned it. I have also the impression that it was thoroughly understood by the members of

Foster admitted that Wilson, McGillivary and himself were the executive ard having control of the administration of the lands. 'Did you observe the emphatic nature of the dual position, that the very gentlemen you were endowed with executive power in respect to the affairs of the Great West Land Co. were the very gentlemen who were interested in the transaction?"

A .- "Yes, that was true; the dual position is plain and unmistakable." "Do you say that Sir John Boyd

"Do you say that Schofield knew A.—"I do not know that I told him, but I think he knew.I can't swear posi-

In reply to further questions Foster had outside the original option.

would be made in cash payments. It was only a few weeks ago that maps was only a few weeks ago that maps of the last townships showing lands selected upon which the acreage was calculated had been received. Adjustments had been made from time to time as quantities in each township had been determined and if there had been any over-payment made, it would be adjusted when the final balance was struck. ing director of the Union Trust Com-pany he had been authorized to accept the offer, which, as vice-president of the Eastern and Western Land Company, he had made to sell lands in the West at an advance of 50 cents per and that they were part of the land returned to the C. P. R.. In the let-ter Pope said that Fowler had taken acre on the price paid for them. Fos-ter could not see that there was any conflict between the interests of ven-dor and purchaser, both of whom he this block from Pope, Fowler and others. Foster asserted that he had no interest of Fowler, McGillvary and represented.

After luncheon Shepley continued the

xamination of Foster in reference to "Would you have bought that land if you had known it had previously been discarded?" asked shepley.

A.—"Certainly not. If anyone told me they were discarded lands it the reassignment of the bonus stock held by Oronhyatekha for the benefit of the I. O. F. and Union Trust Com pany. Speaking of his evidence of the previous day regarding his conception of the condition under which Oronhyatehka was given the stock originally, Foster said he desired to modify it. He believed the stock was to be it. He believed the stock was to be used in some way to promote the in-terests of the Great West Land Company, or if it were not so used to go the Great West Land Company to the back to the original owners, from whom it went to Oronhyatekha withwas done to assist the company by means of the stock it would go back.

Examination of the stock book showed that the whole 337 1-2 shares of stock surrendered by the Union Trust and Oronhyatekha were transferred to the stock or at the entrance and elsewhere await. Matthew Wilson, K. C., in trust for the syndicate composed of Foster, Wilson and MsGillvary. Transfers were signed by McGillvary and Foster for the Union Trust Company and by

B. B. Cook, one of the victims, whose able in price, value and quality.
"You will not say that you do not recognize any conflict between your in-terests as syndicator and your duty as

West Land Company.

Foster read the notice, which he said on the same lines as before.

Shepley read from the minutes of the Great West Land Co. of July 9, 1903, to show that when the purchase of 8,640 acres was recommended no mention was made of the fact that the syndicate of Wilson, McGillivary and Foster were interested in the transactions personally.

Foster replied that the report represented the transaction as it was, in so far as it concerned the Great West if they would leave $4,640 to be divided in cash." Foster said his syndicate got none of the cash and took their share of the profits in stock.

After repeated efforts Foster admitted specifically that he liad supposed the Great West Land Company were interested in the transactions personally.

Foster replied that the report represented the transaction as it was, in so far as it concerned the Great West

"And you are surprised now to hear"

was prepared by the solicitor of the Union Trust Company, calling a meeting at which the motion to surrender the stock was confirmed. There was neither in the notice calling the meeting or in the agreements themselves, any indication to the shareholders who approved transaction that the officers of the company were getting the bonus stock. Neither was there anything that showed the shareholders they did not turn over all the lands.

"And you are surprised now to hear" was prepared by the solicitor of the

"And you are surprised now to hear What is your attitude as a membe A.—"Well, I did not know it before. I think that is all I can say in regard of the syndicate towards a request being put forward by the Union Trust Co or a return of the bonus stock?
A.—"I believe it is a matter betwee Shepley produced the evidence of Lefurgey in the suit against Pope and the parties concerned."

"Are you willing to give it up?"

"A."I do not think so." Fowler, from which it appeared that they had bought 200,810 acres of land from the C. P. R. and had transferred 193,374 acres to the Great West Land Foster also related how he became possessed of interest in Fowler's share in the Kamloops Lumber Co. The subject was frequently talked over between them, and ultimately when he had a prospect of turning some investments into cash, Fowler on June 23, 1905, gave "What are you doing to protect the interests of your shareholders in this him a written option. The document which Foster projuced

"That is a thing you could have asset forth that Fowler hell 300 out of certained easily if you had made in the Kamloops Lumber Co., which stood in his name in trust for A.—"I made no inquiry, no direct in—

The document, which Foster produces the forth that Fowler hell 300 out of 650 shares in the Kamloops Lumber Co., which stood in his name in trust for Hon. Ceo. E. Foster. The shares were quiry, in that direction at all," replied $100 each par value.

"But you were receiving financial "If it had been suggested that they pesists ce from Fowler in 1904?" sugwere going to keep some of the lands gested Shepley. "Yes," was the reply they had selected?" suggested Shep-Shepley also pointed out that Foster, according to the document, was the "It would have been quite different. real owner of $30,000 of stock and en-We would have seen that it did not oc- titled to dividends which were to be cur," replied Foster, who became vis-ibly annoyed when Mr. Shepley asked: Shepley suggested that he would have "You are quite sure you have no inter- a copy of the agreement made and est in the land they are retaining?" He filed in order that he might let Foster stated, with emphasis, that he had not have the original at any time any interest in the lands "It is of no value now. I will make you a present of it," said Foster. In reply to questions, Foster said that he had not heard of Pope and Fowler sents," retorted Shepley, in reply to said that he did not know that this he had not heard of Pope and Fowler sents," retorted Shepley, in reply to block of 8,640 acres was part of the making any other payments to the C. whose questions Foster said the docu-17,000 acres which Pope and Fowler P. R. than the first payment which the ment was of no value now because he Great West Land Company had repaid had transferred his stock to Mr. Stethem. The company had also assumed venson for the Union Trust Company Shepley to show that the 17,000 acres Hability, and had made payments to and that Fowler had also transferr his stock to Stevenson for the benefit of the Union Trust Company. Foster said he had not disclosed the fact that he held interest in the stock standing Wire Rope Fowler's name until he informed venson of the fact since the investi-

HOPEWELL HILL.

HOPEWELL HILL, Oct., 3.-J. Alton Tingley of Hopewell Cape shot a moose this week near Point Wolfe, and returned last night with his prize.

party of young men from this village left for the same locality today in search of big game.

Geo. W. Newcombe, merchant, visited St. John on a business trip this week.

Miss Ethel R. Peck is visiting friends

Celebrated Wire Rope

last year.

The sills for the new public hall on The sills for the new public hall are on the ground, and it is understood the building will be put in frame at once.

G. H. Adair and F. R. Branscombe and Misses Martha E. Bray, Julia Brewster, Maud Ayer and Mary Archital of today to attend the Albert bald left today to attend the Alber County Teachers' Institute in Elgin. Geo. E. Dawes of St. John, who has been ill at the hotel Shepody. Riverside, is recovering very satisfactorily and hopes to return to the city next

Carload of Coffins and Burial Supplies Sent to Scene of Tragedy—Work of Rescue Necessarily Slow

POCAHONTAS, Va., Oct. 4.-Nineteer dead and from 30 to 40 more men en tombed and doubtless all dead, is the situation up to a late hour tonight at the West Fork mines of the Pocahonoccurred late vesterday afternoon The recovery of the bodies brought from the mines was the result of the heroic work of a band of 35 men, constituting a rescue party that worked incessant

ly. It was not until 7.30 o'clock this evening that the rescuers reached a point near St. Paul entry, where the explosion occurred. The work of rescue was very slow, as the conditions confronting the party were difficult to The authorities anticipated the fear ful extent of the casualties today by supplies, which are now on the way termination of the exact number tombed by the fact that when Unless something the explosion occurred

Wilson and Foster for the Great body was found within 300 feet of the outside of the mine, was the or vivor of the big explosion in 1894. Yesterday's explosion piled up tim-bers and dirt to the height of six feet.

MORALATION and face cut.

Massachusetts Democrats Endorse Leadership and Democracy of Both Bryan and Hearst

BOSTON, October 4. — A new era for the Massachusetts de-mocracy was inaugurated today in the after a turbulent and curious struggle an and William B. Hearst. John B Moran, district attorney for Suffolk county, who was already the nominee of the Prohibition party and the Independence League, was nominated for governor by acclamation. Save in one possible particular Moran dominated the convention absolutely and complete ly, and the so-called Radical wing of the party, of which he is the sponsor and the active leader, was strikingly and indisputably in control. The posance was in the endorsement of Bryan for Democratic nomination for presi-dent in 1908, for though George Fred. staff proposed his endorsement at the last moment another of Moran's lieu-tenants denounced the move as treachwishes were known, they would be in favor not of Bryan, but of Hearst. The and Hearst, though the approval of learst was not carried without a wild and tumultuous protest.

The ticket nominated follows:

Governor .- John B. Moran, of Bos Lieutenant Governor. - E. Gerry Brown, of Brockton. Secretary of State-Charles C. Paine, of Hyannis. Attorney General. - John W. Cumnings, of Fall River. Aditor.—Thomas L. Hisgen, of West Springfield.

Treasurer and Receiver General. leorge M. Harringan, of Lowell. Two of the above, besides Mr. Moren are already endorsed by the Independence League, Brown for Lieut enant Governor, and Hisgen for Audit

The Hopewell Agricultural Society Will hold their fair at this place on Tuesday, Oct. 16th. No fair was held Bryan and Hearst.

CONSERVATIVE WINS

IN EAST ELGI

TORONTO, Oct. 4.-In East Elgin to day, after a well contested fight, the Conservative candidate, David Marelected over Granville Haight, the government candidate, by a majority of 77. Tonight great crowds of people paraded Aylmer streets cheering, blowing horne and in many Advertising, even moderately well cheering, blowing horne and in many other ways celebrating the victory. The Liberal candidate's defeat was to success.—Artemus Ward, "Sapolio."

I.

ASSIST IN THE DREDGING which Pope and Fowler transferred to them, which was upon the basis of 200,000 acres of land. Stock in the Great West Land Company had also been issued on a basis of the 200,000 acres having been purchased. Any adjustment with respect to a greater or less amount of land than 200,000 acres would be made in cash navments. It BOSTON AND MAINE RAILWAY

More Than a Score of People Injured—Special Military Train Ran Shaughnessy Says C. P. R. Into Regular Express Near Troy, N. Y.—Scene of Wreck Was Terrible Engineers of Special Placed Under Arrest------Will Hold Investigation.

score were more or less seriously injured in a rear end collision between a regular passenger train and a military special on the Boston and Maine railroad, three miles north of Troy, shortly before five o'clock today. The dead are: F. L. Block, Peoria, Ills.; Mrs. Wallace E. Shaw, Bath, Me.; Mrs. Stevens, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. J. W. Dacey, Arlington, Mass.; one unidentified woman, believed to be from Bos-

at the local hospitals follows:

cut and both legs fractured.

Geo. D. Stevens, Winchester, Mass. compound fracture of ankle and arm smashed.

Miss Manson, Bath, Me., back badly Miss Virginia Manson, a sister, three

E. T. Laroux, private, Fort Ethan Allen, arm crushed. Louis Balch and wife, Newburyport, Mass.; Mr. Balch cut about head: Mrs.

cut about head and face and suffering Mrs. F. L. Block, Peoria, Ills, fractured spine.

Miss Mason, Bath, Me., lega crushed.

Miss Randali, Bath, Me., head gash-Mrs. Bennett, Albany, severe shock. F. A. Mitchell, Falmouth, Me., head grade is one of the steepest on the line of the road, which winds its way through the mountainous country to Boston. The elevation is about 20 feet with a steep embankment where the collision took place. The passenger train was one of the best equipped, as well as one of the fastest on the road. It is a regular train, known as No. 5, and leaves Boston daily at 9.30 a. m. for Albany. It generally consists, as it did today, of five cars, a baggage

As near as can be ascertained the chance to get into the Troy depot. Some of the railroad men say that as soon as the train stopped a flaging along with 13 cars on the steep len Manson are sisters. senger train, smashing the last two

LANSINGBURG, N. Y., Oct. 4.-Five | Both these cars were swept from the passengers were killed outright and a track and rolled down the embankment into the back vards of tenemen The engine of the special kept right on for a dozen yards and then turned turtle. The tender was thrown into the car behind and telescoped it. There was a sudden hush and then through the gathering dusk rose the cries of the injured and dying. The place where the wreck occurred is difficult of approach and it was some time before Lansingburgers realized the tragedy that had been enacted in their midst.

The special was drawing four troops of the 14th U. S. Cavalry from Fort Ethan Allen to Newport News, where they are to embark for Cuba. The soldiers quickly got to work to rescue the injured, whose cries for help could be heard above the din.

Many of the passengers on the ill-fated train had left the train when it came to a temporary standstill and were pacing up and down the track when the crash came. To this some of them probably owe their lives. One man's grief was pitiable. His name In a few minutes, when her lifeless form was identified by him, he col-was locked up and would make no ers which propose to m wreck occurred directly in front statement. His fireman, whose name their terminus during the of the Lansingburg station, three miles from Troy, and at a point where the grade is one of the steepest on the for Albany. It generally consists, as two horses which were injured in the the did today, of five cars, a baggage telescoped car directly back of the engine, were shot.

A private despatch received late to-night from Alfred L. Tarbox announced not disclose the details of these offers. train was about one hour late today that he and his wife and their daugh and did not feel that he and Mr. Schowhen it pulled up in front of the ter Louise, who were on the wrecked field had authority to decide between Lansingburg station to wait for a train, were not injured. The despatch them. He intends to return to St. John was sent from Albany.

All the Bath people who were on the train are members of prominent families here. Mrs. Charles Mason is the proaching trains. Nothing definite can be learned on this point. There is a sharp curve a short distance above the scene of the collision. The noise Steamship Co., and Mrs. Blair's husof a locomotive just around the curve band is captain of the str. Ransom B. was the first intimation of the approaching special which came thunder-C. Miss Virginia Manson and Miss El-had crushed into the rear of the pas- known to her humband. Alderman cars, which were Pullmans, like egg- the effect of the sad tidings upon his health, which is not very good.

MAUGERVILLE.

MAUGERVILLE. Oct. 1.-Mr. and convention had previously lauded in its Mrs. Harvey Perley have returned platform the democracy of both Bryan from Kingsclear, where they have been attending the marriage of Mrs. Perley's sister, Miss Helen B. Strange, to Percy Wheeler, formerly of Prince William, but now of Millnokett, Maine. Miss Ella MacLellan, St. John, is the guest of Miss Mary B. Dykeman

Mrs. Newman, Boston, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Shields. The sewing circle met at Mrs. W. R. Camp's on Wednesday. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Thomas E. Bridges on Wednesday, Oct. 10th. Jacob Hazelton has sold his valuable Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Perley and fam-friends in Lakeville, Car. Co. Mrs. Joseph Holyoke, Kingsclear, are visiting relatives here. Sunbury Division elected the follow-

Sundary Division elected the following officers for the ensuing quarter:
Free Banks, W. P.; Miss Carry Turney,
W. A.; Miss Joste Brown, treas.; Cecil
Ladds, F. S.; Miss Mabel Brown, chap.; Miss Mary Harding, R. S.; Ernie Camp, A. R. S.: Frank Brown, con.; Miss Ina Crawford, A. con.; Reuben

Mr. and Mrs. McRobbie, St. John, are the guests of Mrs. C. T. Clowes. Miss Turney spent Sunday with her parents at Swan Creek.

W. Snider of Mt. Forest, Ont., will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Church on Sunday morning, and will Ellis Goodwin of Boston is visiting speak in the interest of the Dominion his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Lord's Day Alilance Goodwin, Bale Verte.

The at home at the ladies' college yesterday was a very pleasant func-tion. The guests were received by crful.—Chas. Barlow, London-

Principal and Mrs. Borden and Dr. Baker, assisted by the associate instructors. In the tea room Sprague presided at the table. McCully and Miss Govenlock assisted in serving the refreshments. Mrs. Geo. D. Chisholm of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oulton, Bale Verte.

A successful supper under the auspices of the ladies of Baie Verte Methodist Church was held at Baie Verte Tuesday evening. The sum of sixty dollars was realized for church pur-day to her home, St. John, after an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Black, Baie Verte.

Point de Bute Division, Sons of Temperance, elected the following officers at their last meeting: Leonard Goodwin, W. P.; Myrtle Fullerton, W.A.; Clarence Hicks, R.S.; Ardell Trenholm, A.R.S.; Annie Gray, F.S.; Albert Colpitts, Treas.; Grace Carter, Chap.; Roland Carter, Cond.; Adeline Hicks, A. Cond.; Laura Carter, I.S.; Albert Finlay, O.S.; Mrs. Hazen Smith, Supt. of Y. P. W.; Nellie Thompson, organist. An enthusiastic temperance meeting

Ladds, I. S.; Gordon Hazlett, O. S.; ence Hicks, District Worthy Patriarch, Harry Dykeman P. W. P.; Miss Mabel presided. The speaker of the ovening Smith, S. Y. P. W.; Miss Mary Dyke- ras Rev. C. W. Hamilton, Grand Lec turer and Organizer. Appropriate addresses were also given by I. C. Harper, A. C. Sears and Le Baron Anderparents at Swan Creek. to organize a Division Sons of Temper-SACKVILLE, N. B., Oct. 4.—Rev. D. ance. There will be a special meeting

Ellis Goodwin of Boston is visiting

In these times advertising is all pow

If Dredge Can Be Got, Mr. Hyman Will Hire It at Once.

Can Place Mails Canada. Even in Nova Scotia, Quicker Via St. John than Halifax.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson who has been John's behalf with the department of public works, wired Hon. Mr. Hyman yesterday urging his best considera-tion of the request of the St. John defollowing telegram:

"Dredge not able to do the ork at St John. Have seen deputation this morning and did everything possible to work out the situation satisfactorily, the department intended to send a dredge from the St. Lawrence, but has found it unsuitable, and is now making other arrangements. He is confident that these will be satisfactory, and that the department will be able to assist in the work so nccessary to the man's grief was pitiable. His name was J. W. Dacey, and he ran up and down the track crying for his wife. In a few minutes, when her lifeless nearby house.

There he told his listeners that he wanted at St. John harbor. They also

There he told his listeners that he had been married last night at Arlington, Mass. The couple had planned an extended trip. Tonight he was making arrangements a have the body of his his bride shipped to Arlington.

Engineer Thomas Holleran, of the special, who lives in Troy, immediately went to the police station in Lansingburg and surrendered himself. He was locked up and would make no ers which propose to make St. John the dredging which will be required to provide accommodation for the steamers.

plans by which the difficulty might be tomorrow and lay the proposals before the city council and let it make the respondent that the position of Saint ohn at this time was an awkward one for the city, the government and the C. P. R., which wanted to be assured of accommodation for its steamers this winter. He was willing to do everything in his power to facilitate this work, but had no dredge to send to the harbor, and the marine department had none which could be sent from the St. Lawrence. However, he had given Mayor Sears and Mr. Scho-field his assurance that if a dredge could be obtained, he would agree to mploy it on the work desired im liately at the same rate per yard as was being paid to G. S. Mayes under the dredging contract which that gentleman now has with the governmen in St. John harbor. Mayor Sears and Mr. Schofield saw, Dr. Colter, deputy postmaster general, this afternoon, and had an informal talk with him about new arrangements for the landing of the mails at St. John and Halifax. The postal authorities have no objection to the two ports being

It is understood that when Mayor Sears and Mr. Schofield were in Montreal they were told by Sir Thomas Shaughnessy the C. P. R. would under-take to land malls at St. John and de-liver them to Montreal and other points in Canada sooner than would be done if the boats called at Halifax and left the mails there. Not only would they do this, but they would undertake to make an hour's better time to Truro fax, by landing the mails at St. John and sending them on from there. While in Ottawa Mayor Sears saw City Engineer Kerr and discussed civic improvements with him.

MRS. JOHN LYONS

ST. STEPHEN, Oct. 4.—Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. John Lyons at the home of her daugh with whom she had spent the past fifteen years. She was eighty years of age and came here from Newca B., almost forty years ago. Joseph Lyons of St. Stephen and Mrs, B. Mergher of Woodstock are her son and daughter, the other members of a large family being widely scattered.

We assert that advertising should be treated scientifically; in other words, a outlined and subsequently persevered in.—Publicity, London.