Goddard-Smith.

Penobscie, Nov. 12.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith was the scene of a very pretty wedding this evening when their daughter, Vera, became the bride of Irwin Goddard, of South Branch, Kings county.

The bride, who was crowned in her travelling suit of brown with hat to match, and carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations, entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, while Miss Blanch Hall, cousin of the bride, played the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Little Mabel Smith, sister of the bride, acted as flower girl, and the Rev. G.
J. Steeves tied the nuptial knot. The ceremony was performed beneath an evergreen arch banked at the base with potted plants. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to almost 50 invited relatives and friends, following which the happy couple left on the Maritime Express for a trip to different parts of the maritime provinces. On their return they will reside at South Branch.
The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of beaver sable furs, and to the organist a diamond pin.

WEDDINGS.

Lynam-Heales.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Trinity church, Wednesday afternoon, November 12th, when Rev. Canon C. B.
Armstrong, rector of the church, united in marriage Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heales and Harold Aubrey Lynam. Both bride and groom were unattended. They left by the Boston train immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip followed by the good wishes of their many friends. The bride is very well known in musical circles. Mr. Lynam is member of the firm of Northrup & Co. of this city.

Truro, N. S., Nov. 12.—A wedding of more than local interest was solemnized at 7.30 o'clock this morning at the Church of Immaculate Conception when Miss Kathleen M. Halliway, second daughter of J. T. Halliway, superintendent at Truro for the Cana-

Middle Aged Women

Women should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, shortness of breath, excessive nervousness, irritability, and the blues—which indicate the approach of the inevitable "Change" that comes to all women nearing middle age. We have published volumes of proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest aid women can have during this trying period.

Read About These Two Women: Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-two years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run-down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. Goddard, 928 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to the annoying symptoms I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and my Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."—Mrs. FRANK HANSON, 1316 South Orchard Street, Urbana, Ill.
