NOTES AND NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

No business was done in London on "Dearly Day." The city was quiet and deserted, the aspect being like unto Sunday.

New regulations for the guidance of recruiting officers in England have been issued. No recruit is to be enlisted unless the aspect being like unto Sunday.

In Scotland demonstrations in favor of unfermented wines being used for the Holy Communion are constantly made, and the subject is creating considerable excitement.

June 23d Oxford and Cambridge will play their annual cricket match at Lord's.

The greatest interest is manifested in this coming event, and large bets have been made.

Baroness Burdett Counts gave a grand ball in London on the 16th of May. Everybody that is anybody in the London world of fashion is said to have been present on the occasion.

This year the Wimbledon Rifle meeting commences on the 7th of July. Queen Victoria and the Princess of Wales, according to the Country Journal, are to distribute the prizes in person.

Gladstone's wife has an orphanage at Hawarden, England, which she endeavors to maintain at her own expense, although private entertainments are often given at her house in aid of the institution.

Twenty-eight million dollars have been expended in deepening and otherwise improving the River Clyde, Glasgow, by the Trustees of the River Clyde Navigation Company. The work is still vigorously continued with six powerful machines, dredging over one million tons every year.

UNITED STATES.

New Bedford has a phenon 100, a woman without curiosity. She is 45 years of age, and has lived within two miles of the railroad and yet has never seen the cars and never wants to. We suspect this old woman must be afflicted with some kind of a nervous ailment.

There is just indignation in high circles at the statement that Christine Nilsson is an American, the daughter of an American man. To think that we were so slandered, and that a woman of her rank and talents should be the daughter of a mere native is mortifying.—Lon. Cour.

The Exodus to Europe is increasing steadily. It is estimated that fully twenty-five hundred people have sailed from New York since the commencement of the month. Saturday, seven or eight steamers will go out, and on Monday, August, after which time the tide of emigration will set in.

A lady riding in a Baltimore street car, the other day, got out on reaching her destination with a feeling as if she mis-sessed something—had left it in the car probably.
The more she thought of it, the more certain she became, and she finally remembered that it was her watch. She went to the car, and the driver presents a great surprise. The watch is there, and the lady is attracted, and proceeds to take it. She is surprised to find that the watch is not the same as the one she lost. It is a new one, and she is obliged to return it to the driver. She is very much surprised, and the driver is very much pleased.

A military funeral was passing a Roman Catholic church in Boston last Sunday, and the band was playing the Dead March in Saul, when the preacher gave notice of the services to be suspended "until the Sabbath breaks." He probably thought that insulting music was St. Patrick's Day in the morning, and some such profane position.

Why will women continually pester other people with their present ailments?
If one of them has made up her mind to die, why on earth can't she do it quietly and not trouble the butcher and the baker, and the rest of the world?
An inconsiderate female in Salem, Mass., told the baker the other day, when he was preparing bread, that she did not want any more of it, and as good as her word. She had a perfect right to do as she did in a legitimate way, but there was no use in making a fuss about it.

Some lunatics in New Orleans offered a prize to the pupils in the school who would achieve the exploit of multiplying 9 by 81 by 81, and so on, using the product as factors for three successive times without making a mistake. A girl was the prize, and not yet in an asylum. The work comprises ninety thousand figures, covering four or five square yards of paper. Such encouragement of insanity ought to be prohibited, to say nothing of the waste of time in public schools.

They have great church privileges in San Francisco—greater, we fear, than they improve. It is said that those who are too lazy or too diffident to enter any of the churches on Sunday, may stand anywhere within a mile of his pulpit and hear Dr. Cox expound the gospel to his congregation, while in their offices, one or two blocks off, San Francisco editors can peruse their exchanges and hear the Doctor preach at the same time, such a perfect business is this reverend gentleman.

It will be a drop of comfort to the habitually abused railroad travelers to learn that their ancient enemy, the "baggage smasher," has come to grief, and the baggage has, so to speak, taken a long deferred revenge. One of these big and burly "smashers," while juggling a curnet-bag into a corner in the usual way in Omaha, recently, was shot several times in the leg by a revolver which had been put in the bag, but we hope without any knowledge or forethought of the subsequent proceeding.

Ye who are wont to laugh at an old man's love listen to the story of the suffering and death of Michael McLevy, aged 70. Journeying from Yankee land, it was his susceptible patriarch's fortune to meet at a railroad hotel in Detroit a water girl, the loveliest of her kind.
The old gentleman's intentions were honorable. After looking the syren for three hours, he proposed marriage; but the fastidious creature laughed him to scorn. She could not think of marrying so old a person. The broken hearted
