

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.
General Remarks—Mackenzie's Parents—Birth—School Days—Characteristic Incidents—Religious Instruction—Books he read.....	PAGE 11
CHAPTER II.
Mackenzie first Employed in a Draper's Shop, then in the Counting House of Gray of Dundee—Dr. Chalmers—Starts business at Alyth, and fails—Clerk to Kennett and Avon Canal Co., in England—London—Resolution to go to Canada—France.....	28
CHAPTER III.
Sails for Canada in the Psyche —Personal Appearance—Lachine Canal Survey—Book and Drug Business in York and Dundas—Dissolves partnership with Leslie—Removes to Queenstown—Politics—School Trustees.....	34
CHAPTER IV.
Reasons for going into Politics—Canada in 1820—Moderation of his Political Principles—Press in Upper Canada in 1826—Union of the North American Provinces—General Election—Scene in Court.....	39
CHAPTER V.
Removes to York—Reports and Publishes Debates—Newspapers and Postage—Government in a minority in New House—Journey to Kingston—Abandons Politics for Literature—Ideal of a Patriot.....	63
CHAPTER VI.
The Colonial Advocate destroyed by an Official Mob—Rioters cast in Damages—Amount collected by Officials—Criminal Proceedings against Rioters by Francis Collins—Conviction—Presentment against Mackenzie for Libel by Official Party.....	73