

Take Dr. Langley's PILLS. If you wish to have good health, &c., &c. The inhabitants of this place, are constantly complaining of drover sensations, sleepless nights, headache, and the thousandills that flesh is heir to. What is the cause? They require an invigorating and purifying medicine, such as will be speedy and certain—Holloway's PILLS are unequalled for the certainty of their effect, and efficacious power of action. Let all who read them, try them. They act upon the very malmspring of life, are invaluable in all disorders of the liver and stomach, and are equally beneficial in bilious complaints.

ERRATUM—In a former Remark on this second letter, for "High Deeds," read "High Causes."
