FROM A GOVERNMENT ORGAN.

Neither the London Standard report that the C.P.R. Co. is to receive another £3,000,000 for any surrender of rights, nor our Correspondents surmise that the settlement of the crossing difficulty will call for a money grant can well be founded. - If the present case before the Supreme Court is decided in the sense that the Manitoba Legislature cannot charter such a line as the Red River Valley, the Dominion Gov't CAN and WILL The Canadian Pacific Co. have NO GROUNDS for claiming compensation for having its line crossed by a legally chartered and authorized competitor -
