

Macdonald, a member of the offices of school trustee, councillor and reeve, and was elected to the same year he was elected to parliament, to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Macdonald, a member of the late premier and was re-elected at the general elections of 1871, 1872, 1873, and 1878. His constituency is strongly Reform and backs him up at each meeting by more than the full vote of his political opponents.

18. The affidavits of Mr. Oliver are trustworthy in having long been connected with the same. The affidavits of Mr. Oliver are trustworthy in having long been connected with the same. The affidavits of Mr. Oliver are trustworthy in having long been connected with the same.

TORONTO.

ONE of the leading manufacturers in the Dominion—a self-made man, in fact—Mr. Cooper is a man of the people, and one held in the highest esteem by those who know him. The subject of this sketch, senior member of the firm of Messrs. Cooper and Sons, the leading rubber manufacturers, Mr. Cooper is a native of Gloucestershire, England, where he was born in 1828, the third of a family of fifteen children of a

[illegible][illegible]