Ottawa, 19th September, 1911

Sirs,-

In reply to your letter of the 14th instant, I beg to say that it is not altogether clear to what cheque you therein referred, although it is presumed that the one to which you have reference is cheque No. 240 for $50.00 which was sent forward by registered mail on the 27th March. The Department is in communication with Mr. Irving, Indian Superintendent, at Saulte Ste. Marie, in the matter and it is expected that you will hear from him in regard thereto without delay.

Your obedient servant,

 Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Mr. Edw. H. Ross,

Saulte Ste. Marie,

S.S.
