

Q. Where the deed speaks of your getting $45 for one chain did you get any money or goods from him at all?

A. Oh no. He had rotten flour, it was not fit for a human to eat and whiskey, and further at that time I used to drink tea. That is why I don't remember this.

Q. Did you get any flour from him? A. No, that I was told.

Commissioner- Did you remain in possession ever since then?

A. Yes.

Q. Did anyone attempt ever to put you off the land?

A. No sir.

Q. Did anyone ever ask you to leave the place?

A. No sir. I am very glad to say that since then nobody can come over there. I worked very hard for that land and put down a lot of grain all the time.

Q. Was your father living with you on this lot?

A. Yes, my father, it was him brought me up.

Q. And at the time of the Stone Fort Treaty was your father living with you in that house on that lot?

A. No, I think my father died before that.

Q. Do you think that your father died before the Stone Fort Treaty? A. Yes, I think so.

Q. Do you remember when the soldiers came up the river?

A. Yes.

Q. Was your father alive then? A. No, I don't think it.

Q. When he died were you living alone with your family on this lot or was anybody else living with you?

A. With my mother all the time.

Q. Your mother lived with you on this lot all the time?

A. Yes.

Q. Is she alive now? A. No.

Q. Was she alive at the time of the transfer?

A. My mother?

Q. Yes? A. I think so.

Q. Did she take treaty. A. Yes, she must have took treaty.