

Procurers—

(f) Persons who procure or attempt to bring into Canada prostitutes, or women or girls for the purpose of prostitution or other immoral purpose.

Beggars and Vagrants—

(g) Professional beggars or vagrants, or persons likely to become a public charge.

(h) Immigrants to whom money has been given or loaned by any charitable organization for the purpose of enabling them to qualify for landing in Canada under this Act, or whose passage to Canada has been paid, wholly or in part, by any charitable organization, or out of public moneys, unless it is shown that the authority in writing of the Superintendent of Immigration, or in case of persons coming from Europe, the authority in writing of the Assistant Superintendent of Immigration for Canada, in London, has been obtained for the landing in Canada of such persons, and that such authority has been acted upon within a period of sixty days thereafter.

It should be pointed out that the prohibition in regard to charity-aided immigrants does not apply in cases where money is privately loaned by one individual to another.

MONEY QUALIFICATIONS.

There are certain regulations regarding the amount of money immigrants must have in their possession in order to become eligible to enter Canada. However there are two classes of immigrants who are exempt from these regulations. They are:—

1. Male immigrants going to assured employment at farm work and having the means of reaching the place of such employment; female immigrants going to assured employment at domestic service and having the means of reaching the place of such employment.

2. An immigrant of any of the following descriptions going to reside with a relative of one of the following descriptions (who is able and willing to support such immigrant) and has the means of reaching the place of residence of such relative:—

A—Wife going to husband.

B—Child going to parent.

C—Brother or sister going to brother.

D—Minor going to married or independent sister.

E—Parent going to son or daughter.

All other immigrants must comply with the regulations regarding money qualification. The purpose of these regulations is to provide that the new arrival will have enough money to maintain himself until he has had time to look about for suitable employment.

The regulations provide that the immigrant must have in his or her possession at the time of arrival a specified sum of money belonging absolutely to such immigrant. The amount varies with the season of arrival. The regulations call for—

March 1st to October 31st $25 (£5)

November 1st to last day of February..... $50 (£10)

And in addition to such money the immigrant must have a ticket or a sufficient sum of money with which to purchase a ticket or transport to his or her destination in Canada.

In the case of a family immigrating together it is not necessary that each member of the family should individually comply with the money regulations, but the head of the family must possess a suffi-
