

THE CREAM OF CANADIAN LITERATURE

THE NEW RALPH CONNOR BOOK

THE MAJOR

From the trenches Ralph Connor has looked backward over the years to discover what were the environment and the influence which went to the making of the Canadian soldier—for he is the finest example of patriotic manhood yet appearing on the battle line.

"The Major" is without doubt the finest novel of Canada's popular writer. It is a book that will appeal to the best that is in every man and woman of Canada.

Cloth, Illustrated, $1.50

THE NEW L. M. MONTGOMERY BOOK

ANNE'S HOUSE OF DREAMS

Those who have read "Anne of Green Gables" will want this new novel in which Anne's "Dream" comes true.

With Frontispiece in Colors, $1.50.

THE NEW H. A. CODY BOOK

UNDER SEALED ORDERS

"Under Sealed Orders" has all the elements of a big popular success. From start to finish, as the struggle for control of the Power Company is told, the reader is carried with a fast-moving series of adventures and mysteries that hold the breath.

A novel of interest and power centering around one of the greatest industries on the continent.

Read this big Canadian story of love, adventure and success.

Cloth, $1.35.

THE NEW ISABEL ECCLESTONE MACKAY BOOK

UP THE HILL AND OVER

A wholesome novel of rural Canadian life, bubbling with romance, pathos, humor.

Here is what Marshall Saunders, the author of "Beautiful Joe," says about "Up the Hill and Over": "This novel is what I call a decoy, that is, a novel that one cannot put down until one finishes it. Mrs. Mackay has an unhurried style—the style we loved in Dickens and Thackeray and all those dear old writers who took time to tell their story. The novel will be a welcome addition to the literature of struggling, fighting, undaunted and heroic Canada."

"No hero and heroine of modern fiction are more likeable than Doctor Callendar and Esther Coombe, who, having kept the faith all the hard way 'up the hill,' find that 'over' lies their 'Land of Heart's Desire.'"—Boston Evening Transcript.

Cloth, with Frontispiece, $1.35.

ON SALE AT ALL BOOKSTORES

McCLELLAND, GOODCHILD & STEWART, Limited

PUBLISHERS

266-268 King Street West

TORONTO

Please mention THE TEACHERS MONTHLY when writing to advertisers