"The Irish People." which so strong-iy advocates the aims of the United Irish League, in its last issue, refers in a spirited manner to the growth of Freemasonry in Ireland and warns the people to protect themselves against its inroads else they will bit-terly run their heedless inactivity when it is all too late. It says that during the years of disunion among Nationalists this secret society man-aged to attain to s drungth in the large towns and Ales of Ireland which has now became almost over-whelming. 'In business, in politics, in every walk of life,'' says the writ-er, 'the interest of the banded Bro-therhood asserts itself. Nationalist workers are employed only where they cannot possibly be dispensed with: and all the time Nationalists workers are employed only where they cannot possibly be dispensed with: and all the time Nationalists is over the supporters of their own class and creed are, with foolish and unsuspecting simplicity, helping their enemies to crush their friends. This is just as true in Montreal. We have countless evidences of this fact, as one may readily realize by a close examination of our daily press. In business, in municipal polities, in the professions, in every concern of life we find the working of this system staring us in the face, says this writer. Any brainless young snob at the Irish Bar who hancens to belong to the dominant caste will receive brief after brief rom Catholic solicitors — because the solicitors how that while the Nationalist' iu-mior barrister will be looked upon with cold disfavor, the son of a land-lord will have the sympathy of his brother 'Mason' in the jury box --perhaps of his brother on the Beach.'' A correspondent commenting on this state of things, says: The picture thus drawn is unfortunately only too true. It behoves the Cath-olic people of Ireland to battle against this scere combination, so picture thus drawn is unfortunately only too true. It behoves the Cath-olic people of Ireland to battle against this secret combination, so dangerous and detrimental to their welfare. It is consoling to know that among Catholics in this country Freemasonry has made no headway. It could not be otherwise in view of the oft-repeated declarations of the Church on the subject.

THE COMING SYNOD .- His Grace the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Dublin, has addressed a circular of Bublin, has addressed a circular letter to the clergy, in which he di-rects prayers to be said that the Al-mighty in His mercy may be pleased to avert the danger now so seriously threatening the crops. His Grace also directs the continuance of prayers on behalf of those, whether living or dead, whom the calamitous war in South Africa has made its victims. The recent outbreak in China is, adds His Grace, an additional reason for the continuance of those radyers. His Grace, in conclusion, draws attention The continuance of those "räyers. His Erace, in conclusion, draws attention to the fact that the proceedings of the National Synod at Maynooth will begin on Monday, the 27th of this month, and that the first solernn ses-sion of the Synod will be held on the following day. The faithful, he says, should he exhorted to unite with the bishops and clergy of the Irish church in praying to God, the source of all light and truth, that the delibera-tions of the assembled Episcopate of Ireland may be guided by the inspir-ations of His Holy Spirit, and may be as fruitful in blessings to the Church or Ireland as were the deli-berations of the former Synod of Mayof the former Synod of Maynooth,

The Dutch commandant who had charge of all the British prisoners taken after the battles of Glencoe, charge of all the British prisoners taken after the battles of Glence, Dundee and Nicholson's Nek has told Mr. Davitt the following interesting little story: Going his rounds at midnight on one occasion, he was as-tounded to see an English soldier acting as Boer sentinel over the pri-soners, and, on the commandant de-manding an explanation, "Tommy" offered the following extraordinary account of his transformation from a prisoner to sentinel over himself and fellow prisoners: "Well, sir, this 'ere poor little chap," pointing to the sleeping form of a Boer lad fifteen years old, "was dead broke for sleep after two nights of duty. I takes pity on the little chap, and I says." 'Look 'ere, you're regular done up, you are, that's sartin. You give me your rifle and take a bit o' sleep, and 'II do sentry so for you, I will. Honor bright! I won't do .nothink wrong; blow me if I do!' So the lit-tle chap went off. It's all right, sir. don't you blime him, plegse: he is only a kid!" "I was assured." adds Mr. Davitt, "that neither "the kid ' nor the kind-hearted English prisoner suffered over the unique incident."---London Star.

RELIGIOUS PREJUDICE. - "We have no money for Catholics." was practically the answer given by the have no money for calculus. Was practically the answer given by the Irish Society to the memorial of the St. Vincent de Faul conferences in January last, says the "Derry Jour-nal." True, the society pleaded pov-erty: but that plea was effectively negatived by the very substantial grants of £100 to the Ebrington Presbyterian Church, and of £50 to the Baptist Chapel in Fountain street. A glance at the "general statement" shows conclusively that the society has money in abundance for every "call" that is not likely to benefit Catholics. Yet Catholics constitute by far the larger portion of the city's population; and to the citizens be-ciety are the trustees and administra-tors. Divery Protestant charity in the city is liberally helped by the Trush Society.
