The Homes of Old Tipperary. BY TREACY.

I; will not pray for weath or power, For fleetin: fame or glory; I will not pray that I may live In Ireland's sacred story; But I will ask my patron saint And my sweet Mother Mary To guard, and bless, and ever love The homes of old Tipperary.

l'il ask a blessing on the Suir, The river of my childhood : I'll ask a blessing on loved scenes— On mountain, field, and wildwood , To-night I'll ask my patron saint And my sweet Mother Mary. To gladden with their brightest smilles The homes of old Tipperary.

I've wandered much in foreign lands, But still my heart is swelling With all its iove for early friends And for my boyhood's dwelling, So now I'll pray my patron saint And my sweet Mother Mary To guard, and bless, and love for me The homes of old Tipperary.

Annual Commencement and Distribution of Prizes at Loretto Convent, Guelph.

Wednesday afternoon the annual com-mencement and distribution of p:izes took place at Loretto Convent. Owing to improve-ments being made in the heating of the build-ing the accommodation was limited, and on that account it was strictly private, ad-mitting only the rev. clergy. However, thisdid not debar the young ladles from displaying their addition the strict of the branches of the strict of the lead, and yesterday's exercises in our hum-ble opinion fully sustained its reputation. The instrumental and vocal music was of a high order, and the rendering of Longfal-low's Legend of the Madonna by the Misses Kirkland and Miller, of New York, was per-fect, and proves that the latter branch re-ceives the most marked attention. The plain sewing, fancy work, paintings, colored and blacked erayon-the work of the uppils —were displayed in the parlors of the Con-veni. Much satisfaction was expressed by those who had the pleasure of inspecting the different articles. The following is the _LIST OF PHIZES.
