A STORY FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS.

BESSIE.

BY M. HOLT.

'Mamma, am I an angel?' said five yea old Bessie. Mamma laughed, although the sweet little upturned face was angelic enough so far as beauty went.

Not quite, I think, dear.'

'Mrs. Parker said I was, any way.'

. Does she know better than your mamma, Bessie ?'

'Yes she does, 'cause Mr.s Parker's minister.'

DISPEPSIA AND BILLIOUSNESS .- Take No. 2 with No. 1 Syrup. CERTIFICATES OF CURE.

MR. C. GATES.—This is to certify, that I was in ck of dyspepsia and indigestion, and that I could ot eat any description of food without suffering great distress; I was also greatly troubled with piles owing to extreme of eat any concernation of nood without suffering great distress; I was also greatly troubled with piles owing to extreme costiveness. Having had the advice of our best medical men, and finding no relief, I began to consider mine a hopeless case; when Mr. Gates' agent called on me, and recommended me to try Gates' Remedies. I did so, though with itile hope; but I am happy to say, by their use, I have quite recovered my health, and sow feel like a new man; and would heartily recommend them to any person who may be suffering as I was, and I have no doubt they will experience the same reliet as I have.
My wite also, was g eatly troubled with the asthma, so mach so that for months she could not lie in bed; she commenced the use of Gates' Remedies, and was relieved immediately; in fact the medicines seemed to work like mague; and she is now able to get a good night's rest, and suffers no informerine from the asthma.
My little girl was very bad jaundice, so bad that I had to employ the doctor; but she got worse under his treatment. I was induced to try Ga.es' Jaundice Medicines, and one half bottle cured her.
