

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

1. Editorial Notes and Comments:-

The Future of the A.E.A.....	1-4
Farman & St. Louis.....	5-6

2. Hammondsport Work:-

Telegrams & letters from Members.....	7-12
Work of the Hammondsport Laboratory since the Flight of the June Bug, July 4th, 1908: by G.H. Curtiss, Di- rector of Experiments.....	13-15
A Device for Raising and Depressing an Aerodrome, or Aeroplane while keeping the Machine on an even keel; by T. Selfridge.....	16-17
Historical Notes, Turnbull's Resear- ches: by T. Selfridge.....	18-18
Ideas on Aviation by G.H. Curtiss.....	19-22
Experiences in the Air: by J.A.D. Mc- Curdy.....	23-25

3. Beinn Bhreagh Work:-

Work of Beinn Bhreagh Laboratory by Wm. F. Bodwin, Supt.....	26-35
Was the Destruction of Hleriet's Monoplane Aerodrome, July 23, 1908, caused by the Gyroscopic Action of its propeller? by A.G. Bell.....	36-36

4. Miscellaneous Communications:-

Torque by J. Newton Williams.....	37-38
Letter from Orville Wright to Mr. Curtiss, 1908, July 20, with Note by A.G. Bell.....	39-40