MY DEBT.

A wide grey sky and a wide grey sea,
And strained are the Look-out's eyes!
Then night as black as black may be
And the wind and the sleet drive bitterly,
And who knows where our foeman lies?

In heat or cold, on land or in air,
In weariness, grief or pain,
Are hearts that keep our fair land fair,
That give us our food, our burdens bear,
And that break 'neath the dreadful strain.

O men who watch over me and mine,
Each stout-hearted man and true,
How can I help both thee and thine,
What token give, what word, what sign,
On the day when my debt falls due?

L. HERWARD.

To all the men who defend our shores from invasion our debt is due already, but it is due in far greater measure to those who have been incapacitated by nerve strain or whose minds are clouded by the haunting horrors of the war.

HOSTEL NO. 1 (The Sir Frederick Milner Hostel, 45, Fitzjohn's Avenue, Hampstead, N.W.), was formally opened on May 15th, 1917, by H.R.H. Princess Patricia, and is now ready for their reception and curative treatment.

HOSTEL NO. 2 at Marshall's Park, Romford, has been placed at the disposal of the Committee. Here there are facilities for Dairy and Poultry Farming, Gardening and Fruit Growing, Fish and Bee Culture, all of which will be taught by experts.

The men for whom we care and plead are, incalculably, our creditors. Their suffering is the price of our safety. Their welfare, and their recovery, must be our constant care. Under no circumstances must they be allowed to drift into workhouses or lunatic asylums. Won't you help us in our work? Won't you send your gift to-day?

Cheques should be made payable to Rt. Honourable Sir Frederick Milner (crossed London and South Western Bank), and addressed to

THE TIELOCKEN

The Finest Safeguard
The War Has Produced

Every Burberry garment is labelled 'Burberrys.'

Ensures that every vulnerable part of the body is doubly covered, and leaves no possible chance for rain or cold to penetrate.

Made in the Burberry-woven and proofed cloth worn by Sir Ernest Shackleton's Expedition, as a protection against the intense cold and gales of the Antarctic regions.

It affords efficient security, yet is healthfully self-ventilating—keeps out wet or wind, yet is free from rubber or oiled-silk—is airtight, and yet maintains warmth on bitter days.

Another advantage is its quick adjustment. A belt holds it securely—no buttons to fasten or lose. The simplest and smartest fastening possible for a Service overcoat.

KIT Burberrys supply Uniforms for France or the Far East, and every detail of kit READY-TO-PUT-ON. Complete outfits to measure in 2 to 4 days.
