first mentioned Table to an ad valorem duty as being unenumerated in the said Table; and from the day on which such regulation shall be therein appointed to take effect, (not being less than one month after the date thereof,) and while such regulation shall remain in force, such article shall be exempt from duty accordingly: Provided also, that if in any British North American Colony, all articles (except spirits or strong waters) being the growth, produce or manufacture of this Province, shall be exempt from duty on importation into such Colony, then the Governor in Council may exempt from duty on importation into this Province, all articles (except spirits or strong waters) being the growth, produce or manufacture of such Colony and imported directly therefrom.

IV. And be it enacted, That all sums of money granted or imposed by this Act either as duties, penalties or forfeitures, shall be Provincial Currency; and that all duties shall be paid and received under this Act, according to British Weights and Measures in use on the sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five; and that in all cases wherein the same are imposed according to any specific quantity or any specific value, the same shall be deemed to apply in the same proportion to any greater or less quantity or value.

V. And be it enacted, That the duties imposed by this Act shall be held to be duties within the meaning of the Act passed in the eighth year of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled, An Act to provide for the Management of the Customs and of matters relative to the collection of the Provincial Revenue, and shall, as shall all matters and things thereunto relating, be subject to the provisions of the said Act, and to the regulations and orders of the Governor in Council, made or to be made under the authority thereof, in so far as the same may not be inconsistent with this Act; and all monies arising from such duties or from any penalties hereby imposed, and belonging to Her Majesty, shall be paid over by the officer receiving the same to the Receiver General, and shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of this Province, and shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as Her Majesty shall direct.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all regulations and orders made by the Governor in Council, before this Act shall come into force and effect, under the authority of the said Act or of any other Act relating to the Customs, shall remain in force, and shall apply to the duties imposed by and things to be done under this Act, in so far as they may not be inconsistent with this Act, until revoked or altered by the Governor in Council, notwithstanding the repeal of any such Act as aforesaid.

VII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That neither the repeal of the Acts hereby repealed, nor anything in this Act contained, shall be construed to render necessary any new appointment of the several officers employed in the collection or management of, or in any matter relating to, the Provincial Customs, but such officers shall continue to act in their respective capacities under the provisions of this Act, and of the law, until removed, or permitted to resign, by competent authority,—nor shall anything herein contained be construed to affect the amount of the salary or allowances attached to any office connected with the management or collection of the Provincial Duties of Customs during the time it shall be held by the present incumbent; or to repeal or affect any provisions of any Imperial Act, except such only as impose Duties of Customs; and
