Not to Abandon Summer Trip

Three Persons Are Named as Successors to Von Buelow

BERLIN, July 8.—In spite of the internal political situation Emperor Wilhelm has decided to take his customary summer cruise in Northern waters, which it was recently reported he would forego. There is nothing in the situation that he cannot deal with by telegraph. He will leave for the North after meeting the King of Sweden at Sassetz July 6, where the two monarchs will inaugurate a new steamship line between Sweden and Germany.

Opinion in the higher political world is setting upon one of three persons to succeed Chancellor Von Buelow. These are Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg, Minister of the Interior, and Vice-Chancellor Harnack; the Prussian Minister of State and Finance, and Count Von Wedel, Governor General of Alsace Lorraine. The report sent to London by Count Von Schwarzenstein, the Ambassador to Japan, have been mentioned as possible successors to Von Buelow appear to have originated here, but no knowledge of such a rumor in responsible quarters.

HUNTING FOR BANDITS IN A WILD COUNTRY

RAINY RIVER, July 4.—The hunt for the bandits who robbed the Bank of Nova Scotia branch here yesterday was prosecuted all day yesterday in a rough and dangerous country north of here where the robbers are believed to have their camp and where the difficulty of following them is so great that few can appreciate it who have not traversed the wilds. The trail of the bandits was lost in Muskoka Friday night and although Indian trackers have been successful in securing further traces. However, bloodhounds have been telegraphed for and will be placed on the trail as soon as possible. Several expert detectives have also arrived to direct the pursuit. The international boundary and railways are being closely guarded.

Closely Watched

The Gallian with whom the bandits made their headquarters, while in town yesterday, was closely watched, as some of the authorities are of the opinion that he does not know more than they do about these restless wanderers. Today he reported to the police that his house had been burglarized last night and a quantity of provisions stolen and gave it as his belief that the bandits had done it, to provide themselves with food. The police are, in consequence, regarded this as a fake and attempt to throw them off the pursuit of the men to the north. The robbery which constantly have planned carefully and to have a camp somewhere secluded in the woods where they may remain in hiding for a considerable period. If they do not know the country well, escape in woods would be impossible, as none may venture in there in safety without guides. This is the danger which constantly faces the posse who are in pursuit, but the big lumber camps are giving them to aid searchers.

A. L. Field, accountant, who was wounded by the accidental discharge of a rifle while posse were being armed after the robbery, is rapidly recovering. His home is in Burlington, Ontario.

$9,080 Stolen

TORONTO, July 4.—Discussing the daring robbery that took place at the branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Edley River when Manager Templeton was held up by three bandits, who covered him with revolvers, "I have learned," said General Manager McLeod, "that the desperadoes are in the bush and that special police and Ontario forces are on the trail. I have also been advised that the men had been seen in Upper and that they were seen sufficiently to enable the bank manager and several others to identify them when their capture is effected. Apart from these few facts there are no new developments."

Mr. McLeod stated that the exact amount stolen was $9,080, which consisted of $3,500 in $5 notes and $10 bills, $2,900 in $20 bills and $800 in sundry cash. The bills were all Bank of Nova Scotia notes.

GOVERNOR'S PLUCK AVERTS CALAMITY

EDMONTON, July 3.—Lieut-Governor Evelyn, Hon. Chas. Murphy and Dr. McIntyre, M.P., figured in a mix-up yesterday which might have been serious but for the heroism and pluck of the Lieutenant-Governor. He was driving the Secretary of State and Dr. McIntyre about the exhibition grounds when a plank run over by one wheel up on the rising side of the carriage, throwing the Lieutenant-Governor to the ground. He pluckily clung to the reins and brought the excited team to a stop, still after being dragged some distance. No one was injured.

RUINS OF FORT TICONDEROGA

NEW YORK, July 2.—President Taft, with members of his cabinet and other federal officials, the governors of New York and Vermont and the officers of the Canadian government, will begin on July 4, participants in services at various places on and near Lake Champlain in commemoration of the discovery of that beautiful body of water three hundred years ago by Samuel Champlain, soldier, sailor, explorer and colonizer.

July 5 the first of a series of pageants will be given at Crown Point, the second at Fort Ticonderoga on the 6th, the third at Plattsburgh on the 7th, the fourth at Burlington on the 8th and the fifth and last at Isle La Mone on the 9th.

RIPPER ALERT IN LIVERPOOL

Three Women Are Stabbed

MAN ARRESTED

Detective Disguised as "Blind Man" Makes Capture

LONDON, July 4.—Early on Saturday, the hunt for the author of the Jack-the-Ripper outrages, which have caused something approaching a reign of terror among unhappy women in the West Derby district of Liverpool, saw a dramatic development in the person of a foreigner named Henry Richard Voight, aged thirty-six, who had been residing at a house in Brookwood, Bootle. He was, subsequently brought up at the City Police Court, and remanded.

The outrages, eight in number, have been described over the past week. All, with the exception of the last, were committed between nine and ten o'clock at night. A woman, while walking the street, was seen accosted by a man.

Having gained her confidence, he has decoyed her into some dark place, and there, without the slightest warning, stabbed her in the body. Then he has speedily vanished in the darkness. In some cases the victim did not realize that she was stabbed until she noticed blood upon her clothing.

To a mercenary of this character the district where the outrages have been committed offers exceptional means of escape. Behind almost every row of houses there is an open passage, which sometimes branches off into as many as four or five exits. At night-time scarcely a ray of light can penetrate into these alleys and passages. What wonder, then, that the police have found this Jack-the-Ripper to be so extremely elusive? Since the first outrage was committed on May 3 they have been persistently at work trying to trap him. From time to time their zeal has been stimulated by some fresh instance of his activity. One night no fewer than three women were stopped within the space of fifty-five minutes. After that a large number of additional plain-clothes men were drafted into the district. Detective-inspector Moore, who has had charge of the operation, showed the utmost ingenuity in his methods. He sent out a band of officers arrayed in all kinds of disguises. So well were they "got up" that, when mixing with the general public, they were unrecognizable even to their most intimate friends.

some conversation, and then walked together to a house in Kirby street (which is situated in the district where the outrages occurred).

According to Parkinson's story, the man, who spoke with a French accent, told her of the way he could find employment for a number of girls in Paris. He explained what his mission was, and said that he had to disguise himself. Then, saying that he would like her to come and see him, he wrote an address on a card and gave it to her. She was on no account, he said, to show the card to anyone else.

They afterwards fell to discussing the outrages. Parkinson says that he spoke slightly of the police, remarking that the man was "staring them in the eyes" all the time. The girl looked at him with surprise; thereupon he said: "You don't think I'm the man, do you? She replied that "she would not like to think he was," and little more was said about the matter.

On arriving at the house the man, according to Parkinson, wanted her to induce a woman who was downstairs to get out. The girl would not do so, a few angry words passed between them. The next thing which happened was that the man, she said, pushed her down, and essayed to strike her with some sharp instrument which looked like a lance.

The girl screamed. The woman downstairs ran up to see what was the matter. The man, hearing footsteps, took alarm, and dashing out of the room, escaped from the house. Save that she was very much frightened, the girl was unhurt.

MONUMENT FOR THE FOUNDER OF THE G. A. R.

President Taft the Principal Speaker at the Unveiling—Pays High Tribute to Work of Stephenson

WASHINGTON, July 3.—President Taft today, as the principal speaker at the unveiling of a monument to Dr. Benjamin Franklin Stephenson, founder of the G. A. R., paid a glowing tribute to the organization and those belonging to their organization as well as to the memorial. President Taft said he was present in his official capacity.

The ceremonies attending the unveiling were simple but impressive, and were more or less official in their character. All available regular forces in and about Washington and the district militia turned out, and after the exercises were over, passed in review before the president and high officials of the army and G. A. R. The president spoke in part as follows: "We are met to dedicate a memorial to a union soldier, who served four years as a surgeon in the civil war and who also led an illustrious life by which there should be united in the bonds of fellowship all the men of that formative period in life—from 18 to 22—are associated in a bond of brotherhood, which will endure in the hearts of the people, church or otherwise, they carry with them after the fondest memories and associations because they have passed through a common mold."

"But how much greater must be the bond of union between men who for four years passed through the dangers of the civil war; those who survive the thinking of the tender memories of those who gave up their lives, and carried the appearance of an Englishman; no responses were the youth and so vigilant the police over the police restrictions which called for the curbing of all patriotic impulses until 4 a. m. Some fourteen bonfire piles for which the authorities had granted permits sent their beacon flames into the sky promptly on the stroke of 12 in as many parts of the city and here and there a giant cannon cracker started the omniscient patrolman, but the crowds of the old-timers 'light before' and hoodlums of the sailor boys from the many battleships in the harbor were more numerous in the streets in the heart of the city than civilian attire and the visiting 'jackies' for the night, a lame one for the display of their pen-patriotism. Up to midnight no serious accidents had been reported.

The first accident was caused by the discharge of a revolver which belonged to Officer McKendry of South Boston was drawing from his pocket and was sent flying into the lung of Joseph McCarty, aged 39 years, who was standing near. The boy was taken to the Carney Hospital and was reported to be in a critical condition.
