WEDNESDAY APRIL 16, 1913

WEDWESDAY, SPRIE AY, APRIL 16, 1913

aie C

COLO

	PLAINTIFF'S CASE	NIGHT IN SIMC		(Continued from Page 1) and the called on Mrs. Marlatt		The following were the jury sworn in in the Holme- dale case: Rufus Reach, Windham,	CHARGE ce nal	(Continued from Page 1)	Yes, Dr. Palmer,	About a week before the baby was how	d been stouter in the summer, had s en turned out of her boarding- use and had threatened suicide. Un-	onsented to a medical examination o clear rumors. Was that honest? That because she wasn't asked to have	farmer. Carl C. Wilson, Charlotte- ville, farmer. Chas. Hutchinson, Port	AGAINS
	You were as anxious to get the rumors cleared up as anybody?	Your Aunt's doctor? Yes. Who called him?	meals but not to sleep. I first saw he her on a street car after this incident.	e police naturally acted. They had v	was now demanded for the clearing.	Rowan, lumberman. Albert Howick, North Walsingham, farmer. John Harris, Townsend,	DEF run- I any	with Boylan and Chapman? A	I do not know, unless it was Dr. shton. Did your aunt call him?	Between two policemen? sur Yes. na	take what clues they could find in ch cases. A Mrs. Archer was also med as able to confirm what Mrs. t arlatt said. Chief Slemin very pro- rly ordered the investigation to be	er cleared. If Dr. Ashton had re-	farmer. George Laing, Charlotte- ville, farmer. Emerson Brown, Port	(Continued from Pag ind me	the house to change my coat. They	I do not know. They held a second examination? Yes. Did you take your clothes off?	No. She waved her hand and they zo turned to see to whom, and I re- th	at or to the inquest by the coroner 1	have been subjected to cross-examin-	Rowan, farmer. J. Garvin, 'North Walsing- ham farmer.	and that an assault was ted on her person on last. The law you wil ıly tly	Then we went on the street car. How did Chapman sit? I sat between the two of them.	Yes. All of them? Yes	At the police station were you of- fered a chair?	The next thing was the conduct of e police. The two men went to	had not been one sign of any arrest, and all this time, mark you, Dr. Ash- ton one of the defendants, did not	Herman Dean, farmer. Augustus Jacques, Simcoe, manufacturer. Noel J. H. Green, Simcoe,	take my statement for. wrong, there is a chan eel	Are you sure? Yes. Then if people say Chapman was	Before both doctors? Yes.	I was asked if I had heard about no the dead baby and I said "yes." he suppose you know what Gladys is be	b subterfuge and no trap. They sked for Mrs. Archer, and must have een advised of her name. That was	Then why did he leave an office full of patients to examine the girl exceptor there request? And when he ar-	merchant. Ashton Summers, Towns- end, farmer.	peal. As to the facts, y sole judges. You have witnesses and must h of	rolling the truth?	afterwards and got the certificate? Yes. What objection have you to what Chief Slemin said or did?	here for, and I replied that was what in I had come to see. The chief an- swered that it was giving birth to a an	rcher swore she had never heard ny rumors, and also swore that her	rived he asked if she wanted same and she said Yes. He wasn't trying to accuse the girl but to help her. He	Godfrey Calls	hem up, and your d the facts will be final. tute an arrest it is not
tle,	No. Who paid your fare?	He told me I was accused. Is that all? Yes.	threatening to drown hersell. I der sin nied it and he said she must be ex- amined by a doctor. I said it was a	now what a witness he called was to ay he was very much surprised, that	tion. There was a second examina- tion with another doctor, and then a	Them Sleuth	ior an officer to take lone. Any restraint of a policeman is arrest of law. I can tell you
	How much did they give you Ten cents. Then when you got to the police	And against Dr. Ashton? He examined me. And Dr. Palmer?	bid the chief 'phone Dr. Ashton h while you were there?	earned friend would ever do such a hing as that. It was claimed that	motherhood of the dead infant. Did that look like conspiracy? The girl	(Continued from Page 1.) an arrest, that Miss Meredith has been told that she must see the Chi- Suppose the girl, when in company	d evidence for the plain f. arrested. If you beli
IR	They told me Chief Slemin wanted	I have no objections. I think Dr. Ashton authorized	Had Gladys been stouter and g threatened suicide?	vas chairman of a committee for the	He swears he didn't. Which do you believe? And if not the girl, what	the two officers, had attempted to r away would they have grabbed he	not. For an officer to cate a given direction
50 ore- and		How many people did you tell? All the people at the house, my two coustns and Mr. Kyte, my cous- in's friend.	with regard to the suicide tilleat.	mill hands were hard to get, and it	stated. The doctors cleared ner char-	mark, when Miss Meredith was te	n- other hand, officers ers sso can Be-	Then what was the first thing he said to you? What She Told the Officers	Did you tell Mr. Kyte you would bring an action? No they came to me.	If Dr. Ashton had told you that it	when she could not be found, had	onerating her as one who was act	What was her consent for? W	hy hands on one person ich ing or	He told me that he had heard ru- mors that I had atempted to com-	Who are they?	was necessary for the sake of the girl, would you have agreed? Certainly.	of the jury in their lives had said, "You must have seen me coming" The	of the statement of the aunt as to ru- mors. He wanted to emphasize the fact that the girl and her aunt were	afraid of a runaway, and why Boylan go with her to the au War't she under arre	he girl did not const nation, said examination a h's it	What did you tell him? I told him that I had not.	head. Then they got a Toronto lawyer Yes.	the examination of the girl? No.	threat of throwing herself in the river	to try and prove an arrest. On such points they differed with all other	her throughout? And the crew of	a not an assault. His Lordship th all ne er	In my mind I was. Did you not tell him so?	are you responsible for the story t gation. Then your aunt told the story t	Ashton?	had told her who they were, and of the rumors, and there never was any	trying one man, but four. They must stand or fall together under the plain-	policemen and yet was not under	ar- girl denied threats o
y-	No. What did you tell him?	Then they came down to the hous and my aunt and I told them D	e girl? r. No. y You say that Dr. Ashton said he	There never was any arrest. Here the stories differed. She said the officer remarked, "You are wanted. Com	s friend, at the close of the plaintiff's evidence, admitted that there was no conspiracy. If there wasn't, what	lested? Look at that girl. She worked in the mills since she	was locked out by that kind it was was locked out by that is had to commit y e- ir id of	a joke and that might have account ed for rumors. Yes.	way. Did you know where the rumor came from?	rs Yes.	language was, "You are asked to see the Chief." He couldn't see much	h cause lawyers will claim anything as to damages, and he couldn't perceive	death of her father to get more wa	ing lieve the officers sp ing way by the girl?
	He told me I was charged with having attempted suicide. You did not tell me that before.	Yes.	Yes. You said nothing to Dr. Ashton in objection?	rest he had to learn the law anew o	n give them. What about that? She	grasp of the law regarding arrest,	and of the officers. The ged was under arrest. I l did. Then the stenographer must have	I was told at the examination t other day-the examination for d	- Second examination?	What had Dr. Ashton to do wit that alleged arrest, and under th	the the fact that women in the mill admit- the ted they had heard rumors, and what he the women knew, any one very soor	that she had, this to be asked that, gentlemen, that she asked the doctor to examine her. An 18-y	ear ind the other smol
	Did he tell you how, when of where? No I told him I had not attempt	Then you turn	You sanctioned information to Brantford paper? Ves	do with that arrest than either of the	defaming the girl, he had done his o- very best to help her.	gentlemen of the jury an 18-year girl? If so don't you know that	old hey her under arrest matter how they s ed to commit suicide. Then what? He told me I was accused of hav ing given birth to a child.	Yes	Mill testified that the two constables	ing to the station. She expressed he willingness and wanted to clear he self of rumors. She didn't protest	to HIDV ACKED	not virginal and opposed to nature an 18-year-old girl to demand a	by As to the aunt's h
177 177 390	What did he begin with the guestion about the began with the guestion about a stiempting to commit suicide.	of the plaintiff.	had come there and asked about Gladys. He said he thought the girl was square, but sent for the foreman They were asked as to the time of	her coat. The office boy, like all office boys, thought he smelt a rat, an	nd	"What a shame!" and so it was deep shame. I claim that the au of those three high constables ag that little girl was an outrage.	inst hat in his stateme
-1	You didn't tell me that. He told me he had heard the ru	Mrs. Emby, the aunt said the Gladys at the time prior to the true	hat for her and figured it at one and a half days-Labor day and a half day	two officers, but the evidence show that Chapman had lighted a cigar and that Chapman had lighted a cigar and		didn't know her rights, and a stage of the proceedings was abild told her sights. These has	the same questions as The girl admitted
1 501	Did he tell you where he hear	ble lived with her. The first sknew of any apprehension was where been been between two of	m. nothing wrong with the girl.	take some of his fat of It was t	he While Lawyers and Judg	e men, to show that this girl is	you where she lived.
	No: he just said if who were under He never told you you were under arrest? I thought I was because I was be tween the two constables.	e- ice station. She was asked to tak	Mrs. Archer also works in the Mil e a 'and said that she had been questioned	1 That was readily agreed. In a d event, what had either Ashton or S	ing This Morning.	tlemen, to be physically exam and then calmly told to go be	ined so this ended that.
	That is the only reason for your s believing?	be many minutes before Gladys out." She understood that her ni	ece Cross-examined. Gladys boarde aby with you after the law suit?	and all four defendants were join together in the action. The girl ma no protest, nor the mill foreman, n Mr. Kite, who was in the house-r	or (From Courier Staff Correspondent	her chastity was proved. Mr. Godfrey spoke in such patterms at this period that one of in jurors openly used his handkerce	hetic man and Dr. Ash
	Is there anything you have forgo ten? I can't remember.	found in the river. Witness show signs of collapse, and the judge of and for a chair and a glass of wa	all- when did she leave her aunt an ter. come to you?	d a word. She changed her clothes a willingly jumped on the street of with the officers. One paid her fa	the Meredith trial resumed at nin ure. o'clock this morning, The jury we	ne Referring to Dr. Ashton, Mr	God- itude in the box
	You were anxious to clear you elf of those rumors? Yes, but I never said so. Didn't you care?	stop until she felt better, which	Was You suggest it? No. sir, she did.	That was one little point to make lieve she was under arrest. Boy did a kindly act. She swore he p	aid The judge—"I want you gentl	what onfusion of mind she w Stripped or not stripped there	vas a Chief Stemin a p
	Yes, I denied every one of them. Did you ask the chief where he g	lie, just as much as they would	be Not at all?	his own fare. As a matter of fa the police did not have to pay, a who would pay if they hadn't to? small incident, that, tending to sh	A The jury withdrew.	Counsel closed with an elo	uent why the girl cou mother of the dea there was talk of that man and he would not ten in	he, just as much as they works with regard to his own wife daughter if he had them. He as if she had been stouter in the s mer and she said "no." He aske there had been the birth of a bi	d if in a case and not discuss it?	the unreliability of the girl. swore the constables were one each side of her. They swore diff	on if they would agree on a set of que tions or on a general verdict.	DODE CINKINC	cleared up. What ing the girl and t mors based on three rumors?	she said "no" and for sufficient	The Mr. McCarthy: That will do.	As to the police station. Chapm and Boylan at this point practice	man Godfrey had abandoned the consp ally acy charge, he didn't know where t		tions? They wou cide. If the girl of examination it w attempting to commit suich	of Gladys she must be examined uld a doctor. She said that would b	e a that Policeman Boylan had warn her. "Don't open everybody's mout	most and her name was not even	ar- mr. Godfrey claimed that all for who took part in this affair we equally culpable. There was a co	on-	sault; if she didn' sault. Then was s clear you? Yes. What did you say?	biame Did you ask for an examinatio No. Ever ask for one.	n? She was engaged to Mr. Kite. Why did Miss Meredith leave t house you were both boarding in?	to her aunt. No request to stop	the Mr. McCarthy—"I object to a ffice changes. I will accept the issue	ny ROME, April 16.—1.10 p. m. on pope ws disturbed more than	The went to tea at 6 o' usual lan remained unti
1	Nothing. Did you object to being examine No; I thought I was compelled Then you went into another ro	ed? No. to. Did Gladys ever threaten suid Wall one night she arrived h	iome No sir.	the Chief went over with her cer- rumors, which she denied and said,	"If His Lordship—"I suppose it v ndi- have to go that way."	day.	tinue? As to Dr.
	with your aunt? Yes, for about three-quarters of	an Then she cried out that she w drown herself.	have to go to the station to cle	<sup>1/:]</sup> ined." She says Slemin said she to be. Now, gentlemen, every off knows that he has no right to for	had evidence was resumed.	ROME, April 16 The ag	grava- you prepared to
	Did you have any conversation cept with your aunt? No. Then the doctor came in. Did	police station what did he do? He said: "Girlie, come along	Mr. Clark Mr. Clark, assistant superintende at the mill, said he remembered t	physical examination. Would C Slemin with all his experience the that? Assuredly not. And where	do did	then gradually wore off in the morning hours. When Prof.	early Ettore bassid that by re know him? No. Then you went upstairs?	No. At any time?	mill. Chapman and Boylan ask many questions, including if the	the Dr. Ashton come in here? He ted out on his calls and didn't even k wey Miss Meredith. Is the doctor	now Philip Philip	seven the fever had entirely	disap- h had the way. It was a
	Yes. Did the doctor say anything? Yes: he said "I am Dr. Ashton	Did you know what trouble girl was supposed to be in? Not until the chief told me ar Ashton after the first examin	d Dr symptoms that she wasn't a stea	tic No, sir.	[Canadian Press Despatch]	been most abundant during the was considered by the profess	or to tors had reached
	Then what? He told me to take down clothes. Do you remember Dr. Ashton s	my said she would have to go the X Rays. Sure about that?	the moment, but he thought	at that? she Well, 1 said possibly he was, a and generally did.	as he of J. P. Morgan is expected to filed in the Surrogate Court h	will in substance. The injections istered by Dr. Andrea Amici course of the night had produ	ed the men showing any
	ing when being examined that asked if it was being made with consent?"	t he Yes; and I again said it wa your shame. Did you consent to a secon	s a they asked him to see that she did get out of the factory. Both offic	said he worked at the mill as an	n of-official announcement here to-day plice is expected that the general pro	though the weakness of the patients heat	t, al- again for them pe had could tell them in
5	He never asked me that. Did you take all of your clo off?	othes Ng. Not at any time? Ng. sir. Dr. Ashton after th	the office and accompanied her th	ere. bringing Miss Meredith in, and Boylan asked him to get her	later members of the family and se coat, phases of it to the members of	the the earlier part of the night.	dence to incrim sion of that. Is your memory g	pres- amination said it was impossib	le for were asking for. Can I be of any	and tween the two officers. He was ex- them.	tched been given out as to its terms. The greatest interest centres in aused dispositnon of the Morgan art tr	to retain some nourismust greatly enjoyed some yolks beaten up alternately in.	f eggs darsals akes a His Lordship of
	Yes. Did you see Constable Felker I do not know him. He was on the Holmedale	<ul> <li>Cross examined.</li> <li>Gladys was locked out one ni</li> <li>beat Yes.</li> </ul>	ght? to the tab kept on girls in the n He warned Gladys to be careful w she said and to speak the truth	hill. you to watch? Curiosity, I guess.	ures. It is understood that the un tors of the Metropolitan Mus My have an idea of what Mr. Morgan	eum kird of cream both nutritou has light and much liked by Itali	s and Princess I ns. sh pre PARIS April 10
	yet you did not know him? Yes. Do you remember your aunt	4 LL FL COM 2	25. y, un- said he was a motorman. He rem	em Mr. McCarthy argued that of was no evidence of conspirac	there out, however, that it seemed cent y as Mr. Morgan would not have conte	the as he feared that what the p	further pe had by the civil court
	No. Did she ask? I don't know. Did you hear Chapman volu	Who locked her out?	tective Chapman and Constable I lan boarded his car. The girl sat	be could Dr Ashton be charged	with would anomatically make many the works of art, which were	in- the vomiting from which he	nus suf- mended for each of twelve
	Did you hear Chapman von to show her? No. Then after a while another	Did she crv out? Yes; she said if I did not n she would drown herself.	tween the two officers. Cross-examined: Previously said Chapman was on the rear	false arrest? you After a somewhat lengthy end ment, the Judge announced tha would note the objections.	argu- the works of art, which were ported without tax, because, were intended for exhibition purp subject to duty.	oses	re say-   The most exper $140.
W Contraction	tor came in?	When was that?	smoking a cigar.	The second s	TARE SHOT WELL THIS FO	A Real Provide Street S

Defence Says That There Was No Conspiracy At All

THE DAILY COURIER, BRANTFORD, CANADA

PAGE SEVEN