Among the German papers received in London is The Strassburger Post which gives the Emperor's rescript issued after the German victory at Muehlenberg and addressed to army headquarters. The Emperor said: "I am grateful to our God who is with us. I thank you and our brave troops for the first victory and express to all who took part in it my imperial thanks which your chief war lord addresses to them in the name of the fatherland."

Southeast of Brussels they are investing the fortified city of Namur, situated on the Meuse.
