Sporting Comment

The result of the double-header on Saturday, and a survey of the games of last week will pretty nearly convince the most ardent Brantford supporter that Ottawa is the better team. Winning five games out of seven in a series where both teams were fighting for all that was in them, shows pretty conclusively that Shag, has it on the Brants. And in acknowledging this, one must hand it to the Ottawa manager. It looks like the pennant for him again, which means four championships in a row—about a record. It is Shaughnessy that Ottawa has to thank for her success, and it need occasion no surprise if he managed higher league ball next year. Why doesn't J. J. McCaffery pick him up? He pretty nearly needs him.

However, to get back to the point, Brantford fans have no occasion to be ashamed of their team. They play baseball all the way and have come from a seemingly hopeless, tail-end position to third place in little over a month. The fact that three out of the first four batters in the league belong to Brantford, shows just the number of good players "Slab" Warner has gathered about him. The team started to climb too late, which, coupled to a mysterious delay in strengthening a

HAMS "FIRE" CRISTALL; ZEIMER WILL MANAGE

Hamilton, Aug. 16.—Wm. Cristall, manager of the Hamilton Canadian League team, and Woods, outfielder, and substitute catcher, were released Saturday. Gus Zeimer, the second baseman, will be manager of the local team for the rest of the season.

The three games Hamilton was scheduled to play at St. Thomas this week have been transferred to this city.

Football

S. O. E. v. PARIS.

These teams met at Tutela Park on Saturday in the last E. and P. league game of the season. Both teams were out to win as this game decided who were runners up in league. A draw for Paris would have given them the honor, while the Sons had to win. Hamilton won the toss and Paris kicked off before a good crowd of spectators.

Play at the start was very even, but the Sons pressing and the defence of the both teams was playing a great game, Paris came near scoring, but Small made some fine saves in the Sons goal. They pressed but were weak in shooting. Play continued very fast and there was little to choose between the teams.

The game was one of the best and cleanest of the season, not one foul being given during the game. The Sons all played well, Small especially deserving credit for a great save in the second half.

Paris played a good game, but their forward found the Sons defence too good for them.
