CIVILIANS ON PARADE IN PARIS CELEBRATE ALSACE-LORRAINE DAY

Entire Population of Capital Took Part in Fete GALA SUNDAY

By Courier Leased Wire.
Paris, Nov. 17.—Today was Alsace-Lorraine day in Paris. The day was celebrated not by victorious troops marching through the city, but by countless processions of civilians on parade before ten thousand troops scattered along the route from the Arch De Triomphe to the Place de la Concorde, and then past the monuments of Joan of Arc, Gambetta and Lafayette.

It is estimated that 200,000 members of societies of every social kind marched in the processions, and it seemed as if the remainder of Paris, taking advantage of the clear, cold weather.

CONGRATULATE PREMIER.
Paris, Nov. 17.—The cabinet, the under-secretaries of State and Government Commissioners, waited on Premier Clemenceau this morning at the Ministry of War to congratulate the Premier on his patriotism and indefatigable labor in bringing victory to France.

The Clemenceau ministry, being just a year old, an artistic souvenir was presented to the Premier. It was a booklet commemorative of the government's work and contained among other illustrations Daumiers pictures of Don Quixote and Sancho Panza.

REMEMORING IN MULHAUSEN.
Mulhausen, Nov. 18 (Havas Agency).—No words can picture the triumphal entrance of the French troops into this city nor express the wild joy of the people who crowded the streets to applaud their liberators. Flowers, tobacco and cockades were thrown to the soldiers as they marched along.

General Hirschauer headed his troops. Men and women rushed forward and affectionately kissed the flag borne by the 54th infantry. The cheers of the populace grew until the troops arrived at the city hall, where the city authorities welcomed Hirschauer and his staff.

HUNS LEAVE BRUSSELS.
Paris, Nov. 18.—The last German troops left Brussels yesterday, according to a dispatch from the Havas correspondent on the Belgian front. Extraordinary scenes were witnessed around the North station from which most of the enemy soldiers departed. Wishing to have money to take home with them, they sold everything they owned or had stolen. Some laid out objects on the sidewalk and cried their wares in loud voices. Among the articles offered for sale were blankets, clothing and shoes, as well as wool and copper goods taken from the inhabitants of the city.

RETURN OF COLONIES OPPOSED

Australia Declares it Imperative Captured Possessions be Retained

By Courier Leased Wire
Melbourne, Nov. 17.—The Australian senate today passed the resolution, moved by the ministry last week, providing that it is essential to the future welfare of Australia that the captured German possessions in the Pacific and elsewhere, should not in any circumstances be restored to Germany. The resolution also provided that in the consideration and determination of any proposals affecting the destiny of these islands, Australia should be consulted.

WAR VETERANS WOULD REPORT ENEMY ALIENS

Favor Returning Interned Foreigners to their Native Countries

The following resolution passed by the Great War Veterans Association was adopted by the Brantford branch on Saturday.

"Whereas there are at the present time interned in the Dominion of Canada, some 40,000 enemy aliens, who have during the past four and a half years, been provided with the necessities of life at great expense to the Government without making any return in labor performed or otherwise.

"And whereas these men were originally admitted to the Dominion in the belief that they would prove themselves useful and law-abiding citizens, have shown themselves to be such a menace to our country that it is necessary to deprive them of their liberty.

"And whereas the rapid influx of our soldiers returning from the front will provide abundant employment for all of industries throughout the country.

"Be it therefore resolved that the Brantford branch of the Great War Veterans Association in Canada hereby demand that immediately upon the conclusion of peace the Government of Canada shall take the necessary steps to have all interned enemy aliens deported and sent back to the countries from which they came."

UNITY KEYNOTE OF KING'S MESSAGE TO U.S. FLEET

His Majesty Hopes to See British and American Peoples Advance Together Along Path of Progress

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Nov. 17.—At the close of the entertainment given for American soldiers and sailors and war workers at the Palace Theatre tonight, Vice-Admiral William S. Sims, commander of the American naval forces in British waters, read a message he had received from King George in answer to a letter sent to His Majesty by himself and Major General Biddle in behalf of the American sailors and soldiers present. The King's answer read: "It is with feelings of gratitude and sincere pleasure that I received the letter you addressed to me in the name of the American sailors and soldiers who are assembled this evening under the auspices of the British committee for entertaining American forces. In the unity of our cause and our memories fostered by comradeship in arms, I see the realization of my fondest hopes, that the American and English peoples, united by the ties of closest friendship, will ever advance together along the path of progress and civilization."

(Signed) George R.I.

Cheers were given for King George and the National Anthem was sung with enthusiasm.

BELGIAN ROYALTY WELCOMED AT GHENT

Streets of City Thronged With Cheering Thousands as King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold Made Triumphant Entry

By Courier Leased Wire.
Ghent, Nov. 17.—(By the Associated Press.) King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold of Belgium made their official entrance into Ghent today. Huge crowds, delirious with enthusiasm, lined the streets. The royal party moved through cheering throngs and showers of roses and chrysanthemums. Every balcony, window and roof was covered with people, some of whom sang patriotically near to chimneys and cottages.

The royal party entered through the Bruces gate at 11 o'clock. The King wore the uniform of a Belgian general, without decorations. Prince Leopold, in the uniform of a private soldier of a second line regiment, rode a white prancing Arabian. Both the King and the Prince had steel helmets on their heads. The King rode a tall bay horse. The Queen looked slender and girlish as she sat on her huge brown horse with elegant ease. She wore a simple champagne colored habit.

The troops which entered the city were quartered at Ghent. They were given a great reception by the citizens, their battered helmets and tattered uniforms bearing evidence of the recent fighting. The flag borne by the troops was inscribed with the name of "Clarehem." The place where this division smashed the German line of September 28 and entered Houthulst forest.

The royal party halted in the centre of Place d'Arms and reviewed the whole First division, these soldiers being veterans of the whole four years of war. As the regiments filed past with their hands playing the King and Prince saluted and the Queen bowed and smiled.

As the crowds cheered, the King seemed deeply affected. Prince Leopold was weeping and impetuously, being busy by curbing his nervous steed.

Silvone Van Der Luyck, a ten-year-old girl, stepped through the line of Langens and presented a bouquet to the Queen. An aide lifted the child and the Queen kissed her on both cheeks. The little girl then returned proudly to her mother and exclaimed with mingled pride and awe: "Mother, the Queen kissed me."

Queen Elizabeth's gracious act was cheered by the throng.

The crowd then sang the "Brabanconne" and wound up with a tremendous outburst of applause. King Albert then went to the city hall, where he was received by Acting Mayor Asselens, who expressed the admiration of the citizens for the breaking up of the German front.

Will Brave Wrath of New German Government

LONDON HEARS

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Nov. 18.—Bulletin.—The Potsdam Soldiers' and Worker's committee learns that William Hohenzollern intends to return to Germany because of disturbances, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin states that he is likely to be permitted to return.

Prince Eitel Frederick, son of the former Emperor, has appealed to his comrades of the Potsdam garrison to place themselves at the disposal of the new government in Germany.

LUXEMBURG DEMANDS THAT DUCHESS QUIT

Duchy Would Become a Republic and Atch Itself to France—More German Kinglets Quit Their Thrones

By Courier Leased Wire.
Geneva, Nov. 18.—The Lausanne Gazette says it learns the people and parliament of Luxembourg will demand the abdication of the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg, who is considered the symbol of German intrigue. The members of the Liberal party desire the Grand Duchess transferred into a republic and attached to France. The newspaper adds that the Grand Duchess learning of the general opinion of the people of the country, replied that she would ready to abdicate after a general vote had been taken on the question, but not before.

Basel, Nov. 17.—More of the smaller German principalities have followed the example of their larger neighbors and have taken steps toward establishing republican forms of government.

Saxe-Meiningen has been proclaimed a republic, and all estates owned by princes are made public property. A special dispatch from Karlsruhe has announced that the provisional government has announced that Grand Duke Friedrich II has abdicated, and that Baden is a free republic. A constitutional assembly will later determine the form of government to be established.

A Pleasant (?) Surprise.
Meaux, Holland, Saturday, Nov. 18.—Count Charles von Bentinck, son of Count Godard, in an interesting letter, describes the fact that he was unaware of the intended coming of the German Emperor until the Sunday when the Dutch Government telephoned asking that he should receive the ex-Emperor. The Count agreed as a duty to the Dutch Government.

The former Emperor's host seemed somewhat embarrassed over the delicate charge given him, as his family has considerable English connections. Count Charles said that he asked the former Emperor: "Well how long will you remain?"

"The Emperor and the Dutch Government," was the reply.

"There are no indications that the former Crown Prince intends to join his father."

Bill's Wife Joins Him.
Amsterdam, Nov. 18.—(11:24 a.m.)—The former German Emperor has arrived in Holland, making the trip by airplane, according to the Zeevaar correspondent of The Telegraph.

Karl Says He's Through.
Geneva, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—Former Emperor Charles of Austria, who is still in Vienna, announced the terms in an autograph letter to Count Karoly, president of the Hungarian national council, says an inauspicious despatch received here.

The despatch adds that the former monarch is now wearing civilian clothes and that he says he is entirely finished with state affairs and wishes to live in the future as a private citizen.

CITY AND COUNTY ARE OVER THE TOP

Four Million Mark Passed by Big Margin; Brantford, Paris, and Townships of Dumfries, Brantford and Burford Win Honor Flags

By Courier Leased Wire.
Washington, Nov. 18.—John W. Davis was formally nominated today by President Wilson to be American minister to Great Britain, and Alexander C. King, of Atlanta, Ga., was nominated to succeed Mr. Davis as solicitor-general.

MINISTERS OVERSEAS
By Courier Leased Wire.
Ottawa, Nov. 18.—Sir Robert Gordon and party arrived safely in London last night. Sir Robert is accompanied by Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce; Hon. Arthur Sitton, minister of customs; Frank Jones, vice chairman Canadian War Trade Board; Dr. James Robertson, representing the Department of agriculture; Col. C. M. Biggar, representing the Militia Department; and E. M. Draper, secretary of the Trades and Labor Congress. Hon. C. J. DeLor, minister of justice and Lloyd Harris, chairman of the new Canadian Trade mission in London, left a few days ago to join the party in London.

with Paris close at its heels. Saturday Brantford and Burford townships passed their objective, and hastened to claim their "garrison" Ontario and Ontario townships have also failed to reach the mark, and the other municipalities have subscribed more than sufficient to offset their falling short.

The canvassers put in a record day's business Saturday, receiving until late at night in order to assure the victory they saw within their grasp. The banks of the city were open until six o'clock, and the big business. Hats off to Brantford, the county of Brant, and the "divided" municipalities of the latter district.

Since neither word of oars can raise the dear lost lots of other days. The legion "gone before" the how shall we grudge the yellow gold.

To beat their foemen down, Where the Red Hussians' pitiless hold sacked city, pillaged town?

"Over four million, and still going strong," was the report forwarded to the Provincial headquarters late Saturday night from the district Victory Loan officials. Brantford did not grudge. Brant County did not grudge, instead, both went over the top with a splendid margin, in the last call of the world war, a Victory Loan which is that in every sense of the word, a loan which is a peace loan rather than one of war. One move, as on countless occasions during the stirring days of the past fifty-one months, Brantford has stood true to his promise, redeemed his promise and vindicated the proud honor of his name. Today, the one of many municipalities who are entitled to the honor, flag in token of having surpassed her as its honor flag. This city was next.

CHANCELLOR'S PEACE POLICY WAS SHATTERED

By Courier Leased Wire.
Copenhagen, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The former imperial German chancellor, Prince Maximilian of Baden, has issued a pamphlet in which he writes: "My peace policy was entirely upset by the proposal for an armistice, which was handed to me in complete form on my arrival in Berlin. I fought against it for practical and political reasons. It seemed to me that the proposal to allow the first step toward peace to be accompanied by such an unambiguous admission of Germany's weakness.

"Neither the enemy powers nor our own people would have accepted any situation such as to make desperate measures necessary."

Prince Maximilian says that he informed the Emperor that it would have an important effect if the Emperor decided to abdicate of his own free will as by so doing he would probably be able to save the country from serious disturbances. But other important considerations tried to convince the Emperor that his abdication would be the signal for the breaking up of the German front.
