THE KLONDIKE NUGGET, DAWSON, Y. T., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, 1900

Nigger Jim Tries to Blind Attorney Woodworth.

The Aggressor Drunk at the Time-Physicians Say the Injury Is Not Serious.

C. M. Woodworth, the attorney, came very near being blinded for life at the hands of Nigger Jim today. The assault occurred this afterneon in front of the Orpheum and was occasioned by Nigger Jim using vile epithets to the attorney who promptly knocked him at $223. It was found on a beach opdown. Upon regaining his feet, Dougherty who was under the influence of his finger and thumb into the eyes of Woodworth and attempted to gouge them out.

The attorney was blinded at the time physician. Upon examinations for finally .- Philadelphia Times. tunately no permanent injury to his eyes could be discovered, although they are much swollen and abrazed.

The difficulty between the two men arose from charges made by Dougherty that Attorney Woodworth gave him the worst of a law suit in which Murray Eads and he were interested last winter. No arrest was made.

Future of the Negro.

Washington, May 23. - Booker T. Washington, of Tuskegee, last night de-livered an address on the future of the for the capture of Kroonstad demonnegro at the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal church. He said :

"In these latter days we hear much of removing from our fundamental law the precious magna chartar of our citizenship, the fifteenth amendment. Whether wisely or unwisely, this guarantee of our right was placed in the constitution by the ripest thought of the nation at the time it was enacted, and there, in my mind, at the behest of the conservative and patriotic opinion of both the North and South, it will remain while the constitution itself stands.

"What the negro seeks is equality of opportunity. Close the door against this will be the end, if indeed the purthe negro now, and within a few years pose of resistance to the last is still the temptation will be to close it maintained, -Boston Post. against a class of white men. The minute you recogni e a law which taxes a negro for support of the government British loss has not been very heavy in and denies him the opportunity to make propertion to the results accomplished. his wishes felt at the ballot box, that The mobility of Lord Roberts' army minute you begin to undermine our whole theory of principles and throw to without a fight is an evidence of dethe winds the principles for which the moralization. It is scarcely probable Revolutionary war was tought."

Chinese Exclusion Law.

21 who came to the state not later than 1888 are eligible for membership. The old soldiers of the country, both Federals and Confederates, are also expected to take part in the reunion. O. A. Barney was drowned some days ago in the. Walla. Walla river, while trying to save his horses. While cross ing the river with the team the wagon upset. Barney and a companion named Smith gained shallow places and cut the horses Toose, when Barney slipped off the shoal into the swift water. He rose three times and was finally drowned

before Smith's eyes, who was unable to assist him. A Big Nugget. Messrs. Smith & -Fancliffe are the owners of what is claumed to be the largest nugget ever found on Hunker creek. The weight of the big nugget is 121/2 ounces, and its value is placed sen.

THE END OF THE WAR.

and was hurriedly escorted upstairs by humanity at large that the whole busi-his friends, who immediately sent for a ness shall be settled up quickly and this week or the first of next. She is

The brilliant campaign of Gen. Roberts and Kitchener seems to have cut the ground from under the gallant re publicans, and to have left them little chance for successful resistance. -Chi-wages unpaid. No news has been recago Inter Ocean.

The British odds are simply over whelming, and the beginning of their concentration is at hand. The end of it must be unconditional surrender. The only questions are for how long that end can be delayed and how much it shall cost. -Brooklyn Eagle.

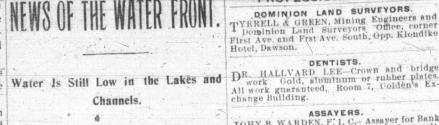

The wonderful . precision with which strates that his ability has not been overestimated. Krooustad is now being prepared as an advance base of supplies for operations in the Transvaal. - Iowa State Register.

No siege of modern times can be compared with that of Mafeking, and comparisons with those of ancient history are scarcely apropos, for they had not contend with modern artillery in those days. The name of Mafeking will live in history and its commander has achieved enduring fame. -- Victoria Times.

The British can turn any position taken by the Boers, and a stand in a fortified place is the only and the final The orderly and successful recourse. manner in which the Boer retreat is conducted leads to the conclusion that

Notwithstanding the rapid march of the British, and the frequent engage. ments which have been fought, the Kroonstad that the Free Staters will play any fur-

Orleans Picayune. The courage of the Boers in the

Ora Expected Today-The Gold Star Will Leave for White Horse-

Other River Notes.

The Indian crew which are at work on the Hannah gives a touch ot color to the water front unlike that of any other city in the country. These Indians still wear their winter garments and a procession of them can be seen every night with squirrel parkeys and posite the upper half of No. 8 below hair seal mucklucks wandering through discovery, which claim the two men the town with mouths agape as they liquor, rushed at Woodworth and drove named have recently sold to Geo. Johan. witness some new mystery of civilization. They come from the lower river, near the mouth of the Koyukuk. The

A. C Ci, has not as yet fixed the date It is much better for civilization and of the Hannah's sailing, but she will now taking on stores for the trip. The Merwin, as was mentioned before, is tied up at Circle City, presum- ALL THIS WEEK ceived of Capt. Talbot the erratic mariner who was to guide her destinies. It is particularly unfortunate for her passengers, her-being held, for every day's delay means added suffering, as there was not nearly enough provisions taken to feed them under ordinary circumstances, and owing to delay what little they have aboard will be quickly consumed. It will not be surprising if some startling news is received of that vessel before she accomplishes her journey

The John C. Barr is billed to sail DAWSON'S BEST Thursday next and will have a full complement of passengers. She trans fers at St. Michael for Nome.

The steamer Yukoner was reported vesterday on the other side of Selkirk making fair progress.

The Gold Star is billed to leave this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She has a fair passenger list booked for Whitehorse. The Ora is due today and was reported having passed Five Fingers yesterday morning. As yet no additional news has been received of her movements.

The S.-Y. T. Co.'s steamer Seattle No. 3 will sail for St. Michael and down river points on June 9th.

The weather all along the river is reported clear and cool. The Luly C., a small steamer arrived last night, after a voyage emphasized with profanity and execration. It is said she found every available bar on ther important part in the war.-New the river but one, and that shifted while she was tied up on another. She comes

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

DOMINION LAND SURVEYORS.

LAWYERS

F

nard, A. May

tifu

and

peo

vici

A

bro

Spo

Ba

******

La

ARCT Shuice, F

Washington, May 23 .- The president today sent to the senate a series of letters from the Chinese minister, Wn Ting Fang, setting forth reasons why in the opinion of his government, the pose. Probably it was the belief of in the opinion of his government, the Chinese exclusion laws should not be made applicable to the Philippine islands.

The minister says that "for centuries very important relations have existed between China and the Philippines, owing to their contiguity and their favorable trade and industrial conditions."

The Chinese, he says, have been always welcome, and up to the present time there has existed free intercourse and unrestricted trade. He expresses the hope that this will continue to be the case and contends that our Chinese exclusion laws were enacted solely because of labor conditions in the United States proper.

Boundary Line a "Sticker."

The Canadian government, finding no firm in its own territory that could do à lot of official maps of Alaska from a Chicago firm, but when it was found mistakes. that the boundary line was shown according to the American contentions there was a row.

After 100,000 copies of this map had freeze by the fireside or on the sunny been printed, another 100,000, showing side of a fence at noon.' the boundary as claimed by both countries, were struck off but as yet even these have not been accepted. - New Or- 1f the sun shines. Windy or calm." leans Times-Democrat.

Northwestern News.

An Aberdeen hen has adopted a family of young kittens, over which she stands guard as faithfully as though they were eggs. She keeps them in her nest and fights when taken from them.

Mrs. James M. Gilbert, formerly a resident of North Yakima, died recently at Syracuse, N. Y. She and her husband lived in North Yakima from 1890 to 1896, in which place Mrs. Gilbert was well known in' musical circles, as she was gifted with a beautiful voice.

The first regular meeting of the early settlers of Adams county will be held at Ritzville on June 7. All persons over gle now drawing to a close has been of the highest though not of the most Presidents Kruger and Steyn that England would rather concede what was miles. asked than make such a prodigious effort. The British supposed that 50,000 or 75,000 men at most would be that There was miscalulation on enough.

Not Yet Recorded.

The coroner's jury empannelled by Magistrate Starnes to inquire as to the identity of the body known almost to a certainty to be that of Fred H. Clayson, and to determine, if possible, the cause of death, which jury held its first session Monday afternoon, was in session yesterday and again this afternoon. By this time it is probable that a verdict has been reached.

Took no Chances.

Samuel Clough, who edited the New England Almanac at the very beginning lished here from two to three weeks the work cheaply and quickly, ordered of the 18th century, was a good example previous. of a prophet who intends to make no

> "Perhaps," says he, predicting the weather, from Jan. 15 to the 22d, 1702, it will be very cold weather it it

> In April he hazards: "Perhaps wet weather if it rains. Now fair weather

And in July he ventures a small advertisement for the town of his residence :

If now the weather do prove fair, People to Cambridge do repair.

For first-class meats go to the Denver

Table de hote dinners. The Holborn

Notice of Dissolution.

Market.

Notice is hereby given that the copartnership heretofore existing between Wm. Van Buskirk, Wm. Abbott and G. B. Curtis, doing business at Grand Forks, has this day been dissolved, Wm. Van Buskirk withdrawing. Messrs. Abbott & Curtis will continue the busi WM. ABBOTT, p8 ness.

Mohr & Wilkens for tresh goods.

from Selkirk, where she was held up by the ice last fall. She made the trip from Tenmile slough to Dawson with two scows in tow in the remarkable time of four days, a distance of nine

A Newsdealer's Views.

Mr. R. E. West, the traveling newsdealer who arrived from Skagway a few days ago with 1000 pounds of newsboth sides .- St. Louis Globe-Democrat. papers, magazines and other reading matter, this being his third or fourth Going Down the River ? trip to Dawson from the outside, says that he does not find such ready sale Oars, Rowlocks, Oakum, Pitch, Rope for outside papers in Dawson as before the telegraph line was completed to this place. Mr. West says that since the completion of the line to Dawson and a geueral resume of all important news published in the local daily papers, the people are not so anxious tor the outside papers, as gist of all important matter contained in them has been pu-

The result is that where the people of Dawson formerly paid $1 each for outside papers, the fact that their news has already been given by the local papers, causes them to sell now at the very reasonable price of 25 cents per copy.

The liquors are the best to be had, at the Regina.

We fit glasses. Pioneer drug store. Private dining rooms at the Holborn. Mohr Potatoes, eggs, lemons. Wilkens.

WANTED.

WANTED-Will buy a quantity of rags, cotton preferred. Apply at this office. FOR SALE.

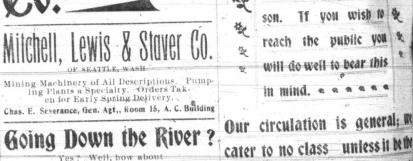

FOR SALE-Guitar und mandolin. Nugget

FOR SALE-stock, building and lease, now owne by George Brewitt, merchant tailor, Second ave, between Second and Third sts. c7

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND-A red pocketbook, containing valu-able papers. Owner can have same by proving property and Laying for this notice. Apply at Nugget office.

4 .

We can fit you and suit you, both

price and :

in quality,

态

one that demands a live, unpre-Shindler The Hardware Man udiced and readable newspape.

season and out of sea-

Tickets on the Flora were sold by AII Noon on the day of her arrival.

he Ora Follows

IN A DAY OR SO

Secure your tickets at once if you wish a berth.

OUR BOATS ARE LIGHT DRAFT

R. W. CALDERHEAD, Agent.

Consequently We Get There.

THE KLONDIKE CORPORATION, LA