

THE PRESIDENTS OF THE UNION.

Nearly All of Them Have Enjoyed Their Country House. Almost every President that this country has had has passed a part of his career in the delights of a country home.

Washington, as everybody knows, passed a large estate at Mount Vernon, where he retired after his two terms in the Presidency. His death, it will be remembered, was caused from exposure incident to his duties on the plantation, which he delighted to manage in person.

John Adams, his successor, retired after his term in the Presidency had expired, to a country seat, "Quincy," near Boston, and engaged in agricultural pursuits.
