Nothing is more painful than to hear the choking sound of the Whooping cough which is well named. This feeling of pain is increased when it is known that it is unnecessary for any child to have this discusse for more than a few hours while Da. Witton's Polamonan Cumans Halaam is at hand. This celebrated remedy for throat and long diseases has had a remarkable history in the number of wonderful cures made by it. In the most obstinate cases it only requires to be used with judgments to destroy the seas of the disease, and this being effected, there is no need for alarm. But it is always better to attack the enemy on his first appearance than to permit him to take up a strong position before any iffart is made.

Leading American Newspaper."

During the year 1862 The Tribuse hopes to employ with increasing success the work and the methods which have wen for it so large a measure of popular approval. It has attained, and means never to lose, the high standard of success which was aimed at by its founder, the largest circulation among the best people. He large a circulation and one so wiledy identificated over the entire territary of the Nation has never been attained by any other neverpaper in the United States. We accept this fact as the verdict of the American people upon the conduct and character of The Tribuse. The position it comples could never have been gained nor retained but by pre-eminent merits as a newspaper, as an organ of sound opinion, and an advocate of just public measures.

In short, The Tribuse will, as heretofore, continue to be the medium of the best thought and the voice of the best conscience of the time; will keep abreast of the highest progress, favor the freest discussion, hear all sides, appeal always to the most health them of intelligence and the purest morality, and refuse peremptorily to cater to the tastes of the vile or the projudices of the ignorant.

The well-known special features of The Tribuse will be carefully maintained. Its Agricultural Department will remain as it is, the fullest and best. The Rousehold and Young Folks Departments, the literary, scientific and religious features, the standard market reports will all be kept up and extended as opportunity may serve.
