EMBARGO ON POTATOES LIFTED

New Brunswick potatoes will be shipped to the United States under a system of inspection after Dec. 1, of the present year.

Regulations which had been approved by the authority at Washington are to the effect that under a system of inspection first grade potatoes can be shipped to the United States.

Regulations with regard to exportation of potatoes will be put into force by an order-in-council at Ottawa to be approved of at Washington, after which they will come into effect, which should be about Dec. 1. When regulations for shipment of New Brunswick potatoes to the United States come into effect the matter of shipment to Bermuda will in all probability be dealt with in the same way as it was only the action of the United States government that caused Bermuda to place an embargo on potatoes from this province.

Do you read the papers? Then you know the awful condition of affairs existing in Belgium at the present time. You know how near to actual starvation the millions of Belgium are? You have read how for weeks they held back the masses of the German Horde and so gave the Allies time to prepare. Don't you feel you owe the ruined people of Belgium a little more than sympathy? Would you like to help a little? Who cannot afford a few barrels and a little of his time to haul them to Hartland or Peel? Bath has already collected two car-loads and Florenceville is following suit. Can't we double the amount?

How many barrels of potatoes will you give? Or if you cannot give potatoes, how much cash will you give? The Committee has no facilities for handling anything but potatoes and money. This movement was begun as a branch of the Hartland Patriotic Association but was turned over to the following sub-committee: Rex York, chairman, J. H. Barnett, Secy, Richard Owens, Arthur Kyle, A. A. Rideout and the teachers of the outlying districts. Let us or your teacher know how much you want to give. We must know how many barrels you want to give before we can arrange for cars we ought to know right away. The farmers of Florenceville districts (at their own request) are making it five barrels each. What about you?
