SAVE THE SURFACE AND YOU SAVE ALL

It has been said, and we are almost persuaded to believe the saying, that one cannot stand still, but must go forward or backward. We have gone slowly forward for nearly twenty years and saved the price of our service and invested all for the benefit of the public as well as our own. Nothing has been hidden to save tax or revenue. Until a year ago we came to a standstill as far as profits go, and you have saved the service and all since that time except ordinary expenses. We have no complaints to make or comments to make regarding the cause, for that is well understood.
We only wish to say that you have given us a good start on another year and we are in a position to serve you a well or better than ever before and whether you save the service or we save the service we will serve you just the same. So don't forget the SEEDS and the FERDS for the snow is due to go and we can't save it.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

On Tuesday Shirley Mason as "Queenie" in a picture of that name held the boards of the local theatre.
Although in the title role, the main bit of acting was done by Wilson Hummel who cleverly assumed a double role of Mr. Pepper, a wealthy old crab, and Mr. Quigley his agent, who managed to look exactly like him. The same actor appearing in the same scenes many times called for a lot of good photography. The story had a sort of Dickens' touch to it, especially the parts portrayed by Mr. Hummel. The twelfth episode of "Bride 13" was shown, and evoked a great many gasps as our heroine got into divers dangers. On Saturday evening Dorothy Dalton put lots of pep into the western film "A Crimson Challenge". Frank Campeau as the villainous ranch owner did some good work. The part of the hero, played by Jack Mower, wasn't nearly as strenuous as it might have been.

Paramount magazine film completed the show. On Saturday evening the show was shown in a strong feature production, "Where Men are Men". On Tuesday, April 9, the great comedy-drama, "Extra, Extra" featuring Edna Marshall and Johnny Walker will be shown. This feature play had been advertised as one of the January shows, but was unable to be sent at the time through irregularities in the train service. The 13 episode of "Bride 13" will also be shown on this evening. All those holding coupons should bring them along on Saturday, March 31, when a drawing will take place to decide the winner of the first prize for April.

The Miss Carleton Contest is an amusing, animated proposition. The tide of battle ebbs and flows daily between the contestants in Hartland and Centreville showing on in the lead at the end of one day, but lo! when next evening arrives, her rival's star is in the ascendant. Although the early bird is usually in line for the show, we mustn't forget that the race is not always to the swift, and that any moment a dark horse may step in and give these with a big lead. For your money, if therefore, whoever all those interested to keep plugging away and to think at no time, "perhaps I have enough to win". The last ditch may be the hardest fighting in the contest.
The Observer knights should also remember that Mr. Stevens has made no provisions for "dis-runs" and in order to come in for any enrollment for services, one must be fighting with their coats off and in shirt waist with sleeves rolled up at the finish.
So girls, as they say in the movies, "Register Determination", and get to it. The contest is being conducted in a perfectly impartial manner, and you simply have to hold the votes to get a standing.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage on Saturday evening, when Miss Evelyn Bridges of Knowlsville, was married to Stanley E. Jones of Seattle, Washington, by Rev. H. R. Bell in the presence of a few witnesses.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church held a big supper in the church parlors on Friday evening.
This was largely attended and the sum of $45 was raised for church purposes.

The members of the St. James Episcopal Guild were entertained on Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. C. H.
Sullivan at their home on Mill street.
At the supper hour all the male guests arrived and wrought havoc with a lot of eats. Proceeds went towards the church fund.

Rev. H. R. Bell will spend two weeks in April in Winsted, Conn., assisting Rev. E. Johnson, a former pastor here in special service.

Rev. Hugh Miller, Blair Reid, Chas. Goodspeed and Clark McBride, formed the local branch of the large committee who waited on Premier Veniot on Wednesday morning in the interests of the Temperance Alliance.
Eldon Reid of Glassville, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. A. West last week.

Dr. B. R. Field is putting up aerials prior to installing a new radio set in his home here.

At O. R. Cline's drawing on Saturday evening, A. G. Baird won first prize and G. H. Strahan second prize.
Friends of Miss Vera E. Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown will be interested to learn that she has been given another valuable scholarship entitling her to carry on further research work. At present she is one of the instructors at Bryn Mawr, Philadelphia.

The owners of discovery claim at the local gold mine have been incorporated as the Carleton and Victoria Development Company with capital stock of $24,000. They plan on opening up their claim on a larger scale as soon as the season permits.

On Sunday, April 7, Rev. H. R. Bell will preach at Centreville at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. and at Carvell 3 p. m.

J. F. Gill of the head office, Bank of Nova Scotia, spent the week-end here.

Mrs. L. A. White is convalescing after an operation for appendicitis, on Monday.

Sherwood's Ltd. have a full line of up to the minute "Lenten Lids for Ladies," and we will look for a lot of glorious Easter apparel on the board walk next Sunday.
