LOCAL MATTERS.

THE ice has gone out of Cumberland Basin.

THE party from Murray Road who sent a dollar last week will do well to give his name.

NEW CHURCH.—It will be noticed that the Baie Verte people mean business in the matter of church building. Tenders for the work are invited. See advt.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Bradley, dentist, will visit Baie Verte, Wednesday, March 15th, and remain one week. Parties requiring dental work will find it to their advantage to call early.

FINED.—Two of the sportsmen of Midgic shot a deer a few days ago on the Joggins plain. Mr. Seth Ward, Deputy Game Warden, laid an information before Justice O'Brien, who fined them $20 apiece.

MT. ALLISON LADIES.—The Eclectic promises to give a good entertainment at Lingley Hall to-night. There will be essays, dialogues, recitations—probably orations, certainly music, and all the sort of thing that goes to make up feasts of reason and flows of soul.

FIRE IN SACKVILLE.—The dwelling house of Mr. John Horton, at Dixon's Landing, was entirely destroyed by fire on the afternoon of Tuesday. The fire originated in one of the bed chambers, but the cause is not known. A good deal of furniture and clothing was lost. Mr. Horton though growing old is a hardworking man, and much sympathy is felt for him.

SMASH ON THE ELGIN RAILWAY.—On Friday afternoon the rails, a mile and a half from Elgin, spread, and the train left the track. There were a passenger car, freight car and two flats attached. The tender was thrown against the fence and the track for some distance was torn up. It will be some weeks before the track is repaired. Two or three persons were slightly injured.

EURHETORIAN.—This society is to the front again with one of their entertainments. The usual programme will be followed. Some new College songs are to be sung. The dialogue will no doubt contain the customary quantity of political and local hits. Every Eurhetorian public meeting draws a larger crowd than the one before it. A week from to-night at Lingley Hall.

PERSONAL.—Mr. George H. Dunlap, of Moncton, has passed a most successful examination for his doctor's degree at the New York University Medical College. His name stands at the head of the list.—J. L Black, M. P. P., paid a visit home last week. He returned to Fredericton on Monday.—Mr. Charles Fawcett has returned from his trip West.—J. W. Cudlip, Esq., is in town.

A lengthy communication from Advocate Harbor, in reply to "Trustee's" last letter, has been received. Our correspondent denies the various charges made against him, and replies with vigor to the various reflections which have been made upon him. The matter though interesting to the residents of the settlement referred to, is not of importance to the country generally.

ROAD BREAKING.—A correspondent says that Anthony Fillmore and his brother have a monopoly of the work of breaking roads for some five miles on the post road from Dorchester to Sackville. These gentlemen drove a single team consisting of three pairs of oxen and a span of horses, and did an immense service. It appears that this section of country owes much to the Fillmore boys for their public spirited efforts in this line for years.

MISSIONARY SERVICES.—The annual sermon by Rev. Mr. Shenton last Sunday was heard by a large audience, notwithstanding the bad weather. In the evening, addresses were delivered by Rev. W. B. Thomas, chairman, and Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Newfoundland, theological students, also by C. N. Jeffery and W. B. Jonah, undergraduates of the College. Male and female students occupied the choir seats, and Prof. Cranz presided at the organ.

NOT MUCH OF A STRIKE.—The News is hugely inaccurate, in its sensational report of some Mount Allison students changing their boarding place. Half the number mentioned by the News asked permission to board at the Temperance Hotel and it was granted. The movement was not dramatic at all, nor is there any ill feeling in the matter. The late fire has made it difficult to provide for the young men as well as the authorities would have wished.

—Mr. E. B. Chandler, jr., of Dorchester, has been searching for coal near Curryville, in Albert. He has had several men at work.—Times.

LOCAL MATTERS.

(From our own correspondents.)

PARRSBORO' NEWS.

—D. R. & C. F. Eaton are building a large barque at the "Sisters."

—At a recent meeting of the Marine Board, George Simpson, of Parrsboro', passed examination as mate.

—Price & Co., at West Brook, have trouble with the weather. Their logging operations are not progressing as they had hoped.

—At Half Way River a good deal of work is being done. Mr. Young's magnificent mill would saw more lumber next summer than the firm will be able to get out this winter.

ALBERT ITEMS.

—It has been very dull weather for the last three or four weeks. It is seldom that the people are permitted to enjoy a fine day.

—A Mr. Webster, living at Elgin, lost his house, barn and work-shops by fire, on the morning of the 2nd inst. It is said that they were uninsured.

Edgbert Wood was tried at Riverside last Friday for cruelly using a horse belonging to Ezra Stiles some months ago. The magistrates disagreed. This is an outcome of Mr. Stiles' last trial for use of horse in a drive to Moncton.

—Three or four drunken men raised a terrible row in a house occupied by Mr. John Custin. They were bound to get liquor and succeeded in getting a bottle of gin after breaking nearly half a hundred panes of glass, three sashes, two doors and a cupboard. No arrests. Some of the party skeddadled.

PETITCODIAC ITEMS.

—March has come in with a fine day but with an unsettled appearance.

—Sickness is all around us. One of our oldest citizens is very low, and not expected to live long.

—There is a scarcity of carpenters. The leading one of the place, Mr. D. Jonah, has been laid up all winter, but is now slowly recovering.

—Merchants are getting ready for their spring goods. J. P. Cochrane has enlarged his store, and B A. Trites is making more room in his store.

—We should have some sort of liquor laws here, for the way rum has been sold since the Scott Act came in force is shameful. When the license law was in force there was only one rum hole, but now there are three public ones and no one knows how many secret affairs.

—The mill and spool factory is running with a full crew; the latter employing from 16 to 20 hands, including six or eight females. The manager is tearing down the old building known as the cook house, and will make it over into a dwelling house for himself, where it is reported that he will board his own men.

AMHERST ITEMS.

—Rev. Canon Townshend is improving.

—Rev. D. A. Steel baptized three persons last Lord's day.

—Dr. Carritte, who has been seriously ill, is again about.

—The old Baptist Parsonage was sold at auction on Saturday to T. R Black, for $825.

—Hon. C. J. Townshend is expected home from his Legislative labors on Thursday.

—Mr. Cyrus Read, lately Shemogue, had his left hand injured by the buzz planer at Rhodes & Curry's last week.

—Mr. Drake, the efficient organist of "Christ" Church, resigns his position at Easter. He intends going West.

—The many friends of J. Albert Black, Esq., of the Gazette, will be pleased to hear he is improving, though slowly.

—The roads throughout the County have been quite clogged the past month, and business generally has been almost suspended.

—An enthusiastic meeting of the Reform Club came off in White's Hall on Tuesday evening. Addresses by Mr. Cromlie and others.

—The Baptist Sunday School give a sacred concert in their Church next Sunday evening. Silver collection in aid of the Sunday School at the close.

—The snow in the woods is very deep, and is a great impediment to lumbering. It averages five feet. Many teams have returned home—particularly in the Half Way River and River Hebert district.

—A public meeting of the Y. M. C. Association was held in the Baptist Church last evening, which was addressed by Mr. Cromlie, Secretary of the Dominion Executive Committee of Y. M. C. A.

—At the regular meeting of Acacia Lodge, A. F. A. M., held on Thursday last, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year:—D. T. Chapman, W. M.; J. M Townshend, S. W.; N. Curry, J. W.; A. Davison, Secy.; F. Wilson, Treas.; G. G. Bird, Mar.; Canon Townshend, Chaplain; E. J. Lay, S. D.; A. Black, J. D.; R Pugsley, S. Steward; C. Warmunde, J. Steward; E. C. Pelton, I. G.; C. Brownell, Tyler.

—The members of the Order of the Royal Arcanum celebrated the second anniversary of the formation of the Order in this place, by a musical and literary entertainment in their Hall last evening. They had a very large number of guests. At the close, oysters, &c., &c., were served. Dr. Berryman, W. H. Olive, Esq., and others from St. John were present. They now number upwards of forty, and are increasing, and altogether the Order is in a flourishing condition.

—A new liability of the P. E. I. Bank, amounting to $30,000, has discovered.

The Scott Act in St. John.

The petition for a scrutiny came up on the 4th before Judge Watters. The petitioners allege that ballots were counted against the Act which were not regular, and that good ballots were thrown out on the other side; that persons were allowed to vote, and voted against the Act, who were not legally entitled to vote, and that bribery, treating, conveying voters in sleighs, and undue influence were used against the Act.

Affidavits were read stating that several parties personated voters and deposited ballots as such voters. One man swore that Charles A. Stockton, Esq., brought to the polls one King, who personated a voter of the same name. Several other irregularities are set forth. The day fixed for the scrutiny is March 28th.

THE "Northern Light" has been doing wonders of late. For about five weeks, she has been sailing up and down the Gulf with great regularity, taking with her without apparent difficulty a whole field of ice.

SABBATH SCHOOL FESTIVAL.—Some two hundred persons gathered in to the sociable at the Methodist Church last Thursday evening. A good tea was provided by the ladies which being disposed of the company promenaded and otherwise amused and edified themselves. Towards the close of the evening John A. Smith, A. B. mounted the rostrum and gave some readings from Artemus Ward. Mr. Smith has a commanding presence, (he weighs precisely one-eighth of a ton) has good control of his voice, and is strong on facial expression. Also he interprets Artemus well. The proceeds of the evening to the School were $52. and to the other parties concerned, the recollection of a pleasant evening.

A Promising Town.

A village that is quietly growing into importance is that at Chignecto Mines. Everything there indicates prosperity. A large engine house is approaching completion. Thirty double houses will be erected next summer, which, when it is considered that a hundred workmen are already employed about the Mines, indicates the future existence of a fair sized town. A new and commodious school house has lately been built, and a teacher is now at work among the youth. A movement is on foot to establish a temperance society, and another was commenced looking to the starting of a dram-shop. The latter failed on account of the want of sympathy of the authorities; the former will succeed. In a couple of months a locomotive will be run to the village. Coal raised at this Mine is of excellent quality. The total output last year was 3,299 tons.

ANYONE wishing his house or goods insured would do well to call on S. D. Scott. Agent for Commercial Union.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

—Tilden has expressed his willingness to run for the Presidency in 1884.

—Ex- Senator Conkling has declined the appointment to the Supreme Bench.

—Mr. W. Chambers, of Chambers' Journal, has been offered the honor of Knighthood by Mr. Gladstone, but has declined it.

—Mrs. Kerr, sister of Hon. Edward Blake, died last week. Her death was caused by a mistake in the use of medicine. She was a most estimable lady, well and favorably known.

—The Crown Prince of Germany has Crosses and Stars of 65 Orders. His uncle, Prince Charles has 55, and the prominent German who who sports less than 20 decorations considers himself abused.

—Capt. Percival, a Cape Cod mariner of the old school, was once awakened in his bunk by a shipmate with the announcement that the vessel was going to eternity. "Well," replied the Captain, "I've got ten friends over there to one in this world; let her go." And he turned over and went to sleep again.

Col. Ingersoll's father is said to have been a preacher of extraordinary force and eloquence. The Louisville Courier Journal learns that on one occasion "he so vividly portrayed the tortures of hell that the whole vast audience was swayed like trees by a strong wind." He began his sermon that day at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and ceased speaking at sundown.

—The Mail's Ottawa correspondent thus speaks of the journey of Alfred Ogden, M. P., to the Capital: "Mr. Ogden, of Guysboro, N. S., arrived here this morning, having left home on the 2nd of February. He was overtaken by a snowstorm, one of the severest in the storm record of Nova Scotia. Before it ceased the drifts were in many places more than ten feet above the tops of the telegraph poles, and thirty feet of snow drift was no uncommon occurrence. After laying by for some days, till the snow hardend, he secured a sled, upon which he placed his traps, and then began his journey towards the capital. He frequently found himself sinking to his middle, as, like some Alpine traveller, he plodded his way onward to represent his constituents in the federal capital.

N. S. Assembly Prorogation.

The Nova Scotia Legislature prorogues to-day. The session has been short and sweet. The principal business done—the new Railway Syndicate Act—after an elaborate dissection of its terms, received the almost unanimous consent of the Assembly, and of a majority of the Council. Public opinion outside was just as unanimous in its favor. The Government is to be congratulated on having accomplished a work of great difficulty with complete success.

The Queen Shot at.

As the Queen was entering her carriage last Thursday a man deliberately fired a pistol at her. The shot missed. The would be murderer was instantly arrested. He gave his name as Roderick McLean. It appears that he is a miserable creature, who has been in the Lunatic Asylum, and has been considered crazy for a long time. He says he was hungry and poor and that his class was ill used by the aristocracy, of which class Her Majesty is the head. This crank business is becoming serious. It will be seen that more danger comes from this kind of people than from the sensible class of villains. McLean says that he didn't mean to hurt the Queen but only wanted to attract attention. Guiteau meant to kill the President in order to attract attention to him and help him sell his book. It has become an additional peril to greatness that some fool may wish to become famous by becoming a murderer of rulers. Her Majesty was, of course, immediately assured that there was no political significance in the shot, but, if the shot had proved fatal, that would be a small consolation either to the Queen or her Subjects.

From all parts of the world congratulatory dispatches were forwarded to London, expressing deep gratefulness for Her Majesty's escape. The one from Canada abounds in expression of kindly feeling and superfluous adjectives. The devotion to the Queen of her Canadian subjects is not less than that of her people who immediately surround Her.

A ROMANCE NIPPED.—A youth of tender years and a maiden whose age it would be ungallant to specify, belonging to a neighboring parish, left their homes a few mornings ago, and hand in hand they took their solitary way to Port Elgin—the Gretna Green of their hopes. They had travelled several miles through seas and over mountains of snow towards their destination and matrimony, when the traditional parent of the cruel heart overtook them by means of a steaming horse, and with the aid of a constable and a magistrate, had them each fined five dollars and costs. Neither of them appear to have been capitalists to that extent, and they returned to their homes to work it out. Thus a paltry $11,75 cash spoiled a dime novel romance, having love, the adamantine parent, the elopement, the pursuit, &c., &c., all the foreground.

Charles Beal has on hand a supply of Furs, Coats, &c., which he is ready to sell wonderfully cheap.

Nova Scotia Politics.

The Halifax papers are still publishing the Syndicate debate, and are still criticising the Act. When the Upper House agreed to the Railway Bill, Legislative Councillor Butler was angry and announced his intention of "busting" the whole one horse concern. He was somewhat surprised at finding himself side by side on the question, with all the Conservatives in the so-called Upper House. Still he held to the question, but the liberal councillors and Mr. McKinnon voted for their continued existence, and the bill was lost by a majority of two. This vote, with the one taken last winter, seems to show that Liberalism in the the Halifax Legislature is extreme Toryism, conceited selfish, despotic, and stupid Toryism. The Upper House would be an aristocracy. The British House of Lords represents an element in the British community. The members of the Nova Scotia Legislative Council represent nothing but the desire for a resting place felt by a politician whose usefulness is gone. This body of vetrons having perpetuated their own existence a little longer, concluded to do something threw out a bill which disfranchised the Dominion officials. This act of theirs is the reductio absurdum of the Council.

FROM AU LAC.—During the past week there was shipped from Au Lac 7 cars of hay as follows: Howard Trueman, 2 cars; James Trenholm, 2 cars; A. McQueen, 2 cars; James Patterson, 1 car; and 1 car of cattle for McDonald Bros., of St. John. Besides the above car loads there was about ten tons of small freight shipped, of the latter about 2 tons of cloth from the Woolen Mills of J. Read & Sons, Port Elgin, to Doull & Millar, of Halifax. This factory is doing a rushing business since the introduction of the National Policy.—James Lowerison, Esq., of West'd Point can boast of the best pair of calves I think in the Dominion, they girth over six feet and are not eleven months old yet.—COM.

—Mr. J. G. McDonald, the contractor of the Dorchester Penitentiary appears to be a pretty active man in the North West. The Manitoba Free Press of the 28th January says: "Wolf last night closed out the balance of J. G. McDonall's lots in block 3, Logan estate and subdivision of Lot 32 Point Douglas. Sixty lots aggregating $37,000. The total amount of the two nights sale of the property was $66,155. And yet some people in Ontario say that the bottom has dropped out of Winnipeg."

A later paper states that the superstructure of the new jail has been awarded to him for $36,000.

—Messrs. P. Hopper and W. T. Huggan were ordained elders in the Presbyterian church in this town yesterday morning, and Mr. Wm McKenzie in the evening. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hogg.—Times.

—A man named George Beehan was fatally injured at Hampton, on Friday, by an I. C. R. car passing over his leg. He died the next morning. The verdict at the inquest was to the effect that the deceased came to his death by being run over by the train while he was under the influence of liquor.

—Harpers' Weekly is to the general American reader probably the most interesting of any modern publication. Its illustrations of current events and those who take part in them, shew the perfection of art. Nast, the greatest of caricaturists, contributes his creations to it. The coming man for all future time must be indebted for his most correct impressions of previous generations to the illustrated paper, of which Harpers' Weekly is a leader, and its value beyond mere temporary pleasure is great, for it will fill a most important place in the school and library of the future.

Age of Enlightenment.

In an age of enlightenment like the present, the value of electricity, and of compounds containing an electric principle as remedial agents, widely appreciated. Foremost among the latter, both as regards the thoroughness and safety of its effects, and the rapidity of its action, is THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL, a widely popular external and internal remedy for coughs, colds core throat, asthma, croup and other affections of the breathing organs; an invaluable outward specific for lame back, soreness and contraction of the muscles, and every variety of sore or hurt; a prompt source of relief for pain, and a medicine upon which the public can also implicity depend in cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, piles and kidney complaints, inflammatory affections, dysentery and many other ailments. Its persistent use eradicates the most obstinate of the disorders to which it is subject. Physicians speak of it in the highest terms. Moreover, horsemen and stock raisers administer it with the greatest success for diseases and hurts of horses and cattle. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Catarrh, Asthma and Cough.

FROM C. W. THOMAS, of Battleboro', Vt.

"For ten or twelve years past I have been troubled much of the time with Catarrh, which has kept up a continual irritation of the throat and lungs, attended with a severe cough. During this time I have tried many of the popular remedies of the day without the least benefit. The past winter I commenced the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, the beneficial effects of which have been very great, as after having used three bottles I find myself entirely cured of my disease. The Balsam has also been used in a severe case of asthma and cough which came within my observation, which yielded at once to the remedy. I recommend its use to the afflicted generally." 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

A New Principle.

The principle upon which Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor act is entirely new. It does not sink deep into the flesh, thereby producing soreness, but acts directly upon the external covering of the corn, separates it from the under layer, removes the direct pressure from the part, and at once effects a radical cure, without any pain or discomfort. Let those who are suffering from corns, yet skeptical of treatment, try it, and by the completeness of the cure they will be ready to recommend Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor to others.

A Card.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

—Thomas Myers, Bracebridge, writes: —"Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is the best medicine I sell. It always gives satisfaction, and in cases of coughs, colds, sore throat, &c., immediate relief has been received by those who use it."
