Satisfaction

It is reasonable to suppose that a watch of a better price, and a more reliable one from a firm that has been in the watch business for more than a century, than from a dealer who has been in the watch business for only a few years.
In business with only a few tools, and the only number of months was knowledge of watches is you in the purchase of a watch that will be under the name of a firm that has been in the watch business for more than a century, and we KNOW will give you a watch that will be a watch for life.Our Department also must

PERSONAL MENTION

THE NEW FAD
Forgotten the waltz and its languorous The maxixe and its manifold graces:
And dim in the past are the animal hops.
The fox, bear, and bunny-hug paces, The clinkety-clank of the clink-clank stops.

MILITARY DANCE A

SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR
The 15th military dance which took place at the Al Asher Temple on Tuesday night last was a most successful one. The large floor space was filled to its capacity, and our "Tommy" turned out in goodly numbers. The ball presented a spectacular sight, being prettily decorated with colored lights and the band was specially worthy of praise.

FREE SWIMMING LESSONS

FOR GIRLS AT Y.W.C.A.
The Y.W.C.A. announce that they will give three free lessons to all girls between the ages of twelve and fifteen years of age, beginning Monday next.
After these lessons, a special rate for classes for fifty cents, or individuals will be given twelve lessons for a dollar. The swimming classes will be continued throughout July, August and September, under the supervision of Miss Hulbert, the successor to Miss Erla Glass, who is an expert swimming instructor.

These classes were held last year, and proved a most successful feature of the association's physical development department, over 300 girls having taken advantage of the opportunity. And greater success is anticipated the coming season.

BOWNESS PARK

Bowness Park, the prettiest park in Calgary, is an ideal spot for picnickers and campers. It is "Calgary's Beauty Spot," and Calgarians certainly appreciate what it offers, considering the few pretty parks in the city.

WEDDINGS

Tait-Smyth

The marriage was solemnized at Biggar, Sask., on Wednesday June 21, of Miss Katie Belle Smyth and Mr.
Howard A. Tait, of Calgary, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Smyth. The bride wore a travelling suit of gaberdine serge and was attended by her sister, Miss Jennet, while Mr. Harold Rowan, of Calgary, was best man.

The ceremony was performed by the groom's brother, Rev. W. B. Tait, of Red Deer. Mr. and Mrs. Tait will reside in this city at 1326 Fourteenth avenue west.

Robinson-Mewburn

A wedding of interest to Canadians took place in New York on Friday, June 16th, at high noon, at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, the Rev. Mr.
Belaney officiating, when Helen Chilton, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs.
Hamilton Mewburn, of Calgary, and granddaughter of Dr. Francis C. Mewburn, of Toronto, was married to Norman Beverley Robinson, youngest son of the late Mr. C. C. Robinson and Mrs. Robinson, of Toronto, and grandson of the late Sir John and Lady Robinson. The bride, who was given away by her mother, wore a smart French coulotte of champagne tulle, the deep collar and cuffs heavily braided in blue and gold, a large cream net hat with ermine, and carried roses and lilies. After the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served at the Knickerbocker Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson leaving later for a short honeymoon before returning to Welland, Ontario.
Mrs. Hamilton Mewburn sailed on the 17th to join her husband, who is on the staff of the Duchess of Connaught Hospital, Taplow, England. Mrs.

WHY THE TABLES ALWAYS TURN

Who is the lady sitting in the pew in front of us?" asked a woman of her seatmate in church.

"Oh, she sat there in that same seat last week, all dolled up; everybody was laughing at her. Not the slightest idea who she is?"

"There was an involuntary shrinking of the woman. It seemed a sort of blow. Her thought had been far from critical.
And the young girl who had spoken was such a 'dear' herself."

Then it reminded the old lady of the time she had entertained the minister and his wife to dinner and how with the after-dinner coffee the pastor had spoken of a prominent woman who had been much in their congregation of late and had said, "I think Mrs. X. is on the verge. With the right handling we may be able to get both herself and her husband into the church," and almost immediately the good woman breathed, "But she is such a mischief-maker."

The minister bowed politely and soon excused himself. He was hurt, and his
