THE END OF CAREY'S TELL HIM HE'LL BE HANGED ON MONDAY BIG SALE OF PIANOS

Good Friday We Will Be Closed and Will Take a Well Earned Rest

The Exchange Stock Will Be Offered at Slaughter Prices on Saturday, Leaving a Clear Sheet For Monday, When We Go Back To the Regular Routine.

We desire to thank our many friends for their liberal patronage during our great sale just closing.

The number of instruments sold is a record breaker, and far exceeded our expectations, which is positive proof that Mr. G. W. Carey enjoys the confidence of the people, and that those who came found everything just as advertised. It also demonstrates that whenever this house makes an announcement it will be carried out to the letter.

We make this proposition on account of those who, through no fault of their own, have been unable to close deals during the sale. In some cases the father come in during the sale. In some cases the father has been out of town or for some come in during the sale which which have come in during the sale which we will clear out at astonishingly low prices.

He pleaded guilty and elected to get his dose from the Magistrate, but was remanded till Saturday, at the request of the Crown Attorney. Thomas McNerney, of Guelph, was arrested by Constable John Clark on the charge of being a vag. He pleaded not guilty, through A. M. Lewis. Clark said that the prisoner had been enticing young children into Dundurn and other places for a week or so past. Several girls said that he had promised them money to take him through the Dun. places for a week or so past. Several girls said that he had promised them money to take him through the Dundurn and the rolling mills. The prisoner explained that he had been drinking since he landed here and that was why he was wandering around. He said he was fond of children at all times, and that was why he took the girls for a walk. The Magistrate said positively McNerney would be more appreciated outside of Hamilton, and the prisoner took the hint and cleared for the snow-bound capital of Wellington county.

A foreigner stood at the G. T. R. Stuart street depot from early Tuesday night until Wednesday afternoon, when the police decided to take charge of him, He refused food and money, and all he would say was that he wanted to go to Brantford.

"Give me a chance," wailed Sarah Finn, 336 Jackson street east, when charged with being drunk. This plea was not what the Magistrate expected, as the last time Sarah was up she got out on condition that she would be sent down the next time she appeared. The Magistrate sent her to the jail for two weeks, unless she can pay a $5 fine.
