

GOT HORSES.

Chief Ten Eyck Bought Some in Brant County.

Brant's Skull All Right—Poolroom Rules.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)
Brantford, April 7.—That another prosperous season is ahead of Brantford bowlers was evidenced by the large crowd which turned out at the annual meeting of the Heather Bowling Club last evening, over a hundred members being present. The report of Field Secretary E. R. Read showed out of a total of 47 games played, 27 were won and 16 lost. The Heather bowlers were unbeaten on their own grounds, which are in fine shape. The officers elected were:
Hon. President—E. L. Cockshut.
President—Dr. Watson.
Vice-President—T. L. Wood.
Secretary—T. R. Read.
During the year the Heather captured the Labatt trophy at London, and the consolation at Niagara, and are out for more this year.

AFTER HORSES.

Ltd. Hopkins, Chief Ten Eyck and Veterinary Surgeon Craig, of Hamilton, were on an expedition through Brant County yesterday for fire horses. They inspected a fine team belonging to E. P. Worthington and drove out to the country in the afternoon. It is said the trip was successful, some fine horses being looked over.

LID IS ON.

Rev. Robert Ashton has announced here that as far as he is concerned the controversy over Brant's bones and skull is ended, and he is sure that the same are in the hermetically sealed tomb at Mohawk, in spite of the statements contradictory, from Dr. McMichael, of Buffalo. The latter gentleman was here this week and succeeded in stirring up the members of the Brant Historical Society, a meeting of which will be called shortly to try and settle the question, whether Brant's tomb was plundered or not. The remains apparently have been distributed around the country, as a letter has been received from Toronto stating that a doctor there has part of the bones of the famous warrior.

STRICTER REGULATION.

Stricter regulation of pool-rooms and bowling alleys will be the feature of a new by-law now being framed by the finance committee of the City Council. Ald. Ward stated last night that the recommendation of Chief Slemin that the places closed earlier would be acted upon. A young man of respectable parents, who recently pleaded guilty to a series of thefts of money, admitted to the authorities that his money had been spent in these places.

GENERAL NOTES.

Detective Tisdale, of the Grand "runk," arrested three foreigners in the local yards last night, while stealing coal. One woman was allowed to go and the men were fined $10 each.

Deputations to the Brantford Township Council from Causville for cement walks, were informed by Reine Sanderson that the levy was insufficient for satisfactory looking after the highways, and that the only solution was for the County Council to assume their maintenance.

Frank Wilson, the 5-year-old son of W. E. Wilson, Lynden, is reported to have fallen in Austin Rutherford's barn on Saturday last, to the basement sustaining a fractured skull. His condition is critical.

TAX RIOT.

Soldiers Fire on Mob in Calabria and Kill Four.

Monteleone, Calabria, April 7.—Four men were killed and many others wounded in a conflict in this town to-day with the local soldiers. The authorities are endeavoring to collect new taxes which are exceedingly unpopular. As a protest the people marched through the streets in procession and invaded the city hall. The soldiers were called out, whereupon the people sounded the tocsin and a fierce riot followed, in which the soldiers fired on the people with the result above set forth.

JOAN OF ARC.

French Prelates to be Disciplined at the Beautification.

Paris, April 7.—The meeting of the French Episcopate is to be held in Rome on April 18, on the occasion of the beautification of Joan of Arc, is expected to result in several important decisions, especially with regard to the future political attitude of French Catholics. It is reported that disciplinary measures are contemplated against Mgr. Amette, the Archbishop of Paris, for a passage in a diocesan address counseling respect for the laws of the republic, and against Mgr. Mignot, Archbishop of Toulouse, and Mgr. Fuzet, Archbishop of Rouen, for modernist views.

Throughout Europe there are 107 inhabitants to the square mile. North America has but 17. Australia has less than two.

The Sulphur bridge, at Rome, now in ruins, is the oldest in history. It is made of wood, and was erected in the seventh century.

COUNTRY GIRLS.

Lecturer Says Farmer Girls Make the Best Helpmates.

Ithaca, April 7.—That the farmers' wives are more apt pupils in learning how to manage a home on business principles than the wives of city men and they are probably better helpmates were the declarations of Miss Martha Van Rensselaer, lecturer on home economics at Cornell University, to an audience of city women to-day. She discussed the science of home management and pointed out that to-day it is as important for a woman to know how to run a home on business principles as it is for her husband to conduct his business that way.

She said that women from the country are much easier to teach scientific management of the home and attributed this fact to the desire to know about their husband's business and be more of a helpmate to him. The city women do not do, she said.

"CUSSED" HIM.

Texas Preacher Whips a Hotel-keeper.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 7.—For two years A. C. Parker, pastor of the Christian Church at Midland, Texas, has had a desire to chastise a hotel-keeper of the town. On Sunday a week ago he preached his last sermon, and was then for a few days at the district Christian missionary convention at Colorado City. Returning to his home town, he met the man with whom he had the difficulty, and in front of the Midland National bank they had words and action.

According to eye-witnesses, the preacher gave the man a good thrashing. In a public statement the pastor said: "The made me angry, the man managing the Llano Hotel has made a practice of cursing and abusing me when he would pass me on the street. I refrained from doing anything until my time with the local church had expired. Sunday was my last day with the church. I sincerely regret that I was compelled to act as I did, but patience, even with a preacher, ceases to be a virtue, especially when a bully who has made a reputation for 'cussing out' people continually hounds you."

CHAINED WOMAN.

Bursts Her Shackles and Saws Bars of Her Cell.

Athens, Ga., April 17.—Kate O'Dwyer last night broke the shackles that forced her to work on the chain gang and escaped by sawing the bars of her cell, which she had been sentenced to for 12 months for a desecrated conduct, but the sentence was suspended on condition that she leave the country and never return. She returned a month ago, and was arrested. She was ordered shackled and chained day and night, as desperate men convicts are.

Her treatment became public when an attorney asked for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that no one can be condemned to infamous punishment except by a jury. Governor Smith took up the case, and the Prison Commission issued an order that no woman prisoner was ever to be shackled hereafter.

BARS BIG HATS.

Detroit Clergyman Down on Inverted Waste Basket Headgear.

Detroit, Mich., April 7.—Girls who have the new spring hats like inverted baskets, with wide, drooping brims that come down over their faces, had better not go to communion in them, at least not to St. George's Episcopal Church, where the Rev. Joseph Sheerin administers the rite.

For the minister has found the latest fad a great handicap in administering the sacrament. When a row, topped with the flower bedecked baskets, kneels at the chancel rail and leans forward slightly in the attitude of prayer, the minister, standing on the other side, cannot see the faces.

That in itself is a misfortune, but it is nothing to the consequences that result when the rector has to offer the chalice to a pair of dainty lips he cannot see. As he explained to his parishioners, he has to guess where the girls' mouths are, and he doesn't know whether he is getting the cup within two or three inches of the right place. It is most annoying.

"My experience leads me to object most decidedly to the wearing of the new Easter bonnets at communion," he told his parishioners.

VESSELS COLLIDE.

New York, April 7.—The Ward line steamer Havana ran into the Munson line freighter Culana, near the quarantine station on Staten Island, at 7:20 a. m. to-day, tearing a large hole in the Culana's side near the stern. The Havana was towed by tugs toward the beach at Clifton.

The Culana was towed by tugs toward the beach at Clifton.

Ice For Summer.

The Magee-Walton Company, that supplies its customers with the finest coal, announces an excellent stock of pure ice for the citizens during the summer months, to be delivered as requested. Great care was exercised during the harvesting operations to see that the finest quality was cut, and the Magee-Walton firm's old customers and many new ones will be pleased with the article they are handling. The private home buyer and the big consumer get the same uniform treatment, and civil drivers make satisfactory trips. The company's office is in the Bank of Hamilton building, and a postal card or telephone message will receive prompt attention.

DRY WON.

Denver, Col., April 7.—Prohibition won in most places in the municipal elections held in Colorado outside Denver yesterday. Colorado Springs went dry by 2,000 majority. Cripple Creek and Colorado City remain wet.

The mortality under chloroform averages one person in 10,000.

THIRD MURDER.

Lawyer Killed While Preparing Legal Paper For Court.

Disputants Over Grants Participants in Many Frays.

McRae, Ga., April 7.—That Pope Hill, a prominent lawyer of Macon, is the third victim of an assassin in the now celebrated Dodge land case is the belief of the authorities. The coroner's jury to-day declared that Hill was murdered by "parties unknown."

The lawyer was found dead in the office of a local attorney at 7 a. m. to-day, a bullet in his brain and a revolver with one chamber discharged grasped in his right hand. The condition of the office indicated a desperate struggle. The stove had been turned over, the coal scuttle was crushed, and the furniture was broken. On the floor lay an unfinished court motion in the Dodge case, drafted by Hill, and which he came here to file to-day.

Hill arrived here at noon Sunday and went into a friend's law office to work on the case. A little while later he went to the home of the proprietor of a hardware store and saw he had received some threatening letters and wanted a revolver. He was so insistent that the hardware man let Hill have the revolver which was found clasp in his hand.

When the body was searched a note addressed to Attorney Hill at Macon was found. It was written in an illiterate's hand, and ran:

"Pope Hill: The next time you interfere with our settlement you will be broke."

The trail of deaths and injuries in the Dodge case began in 1891. In that year Capt. John Forsythe, who represented the N. W. Dodge estate, was assassinated. Five men were sent to prison for life.

Soon after this Lucius Williams, one of the claimants' attorneys, was killed. Since then there have been numerous bloody encounters growing out of the case.

The Dodge lands cover some 400,000 acres in Palaski, Dodge, Telfair and Lawrence counties. The title rested on ancient land grants, and since 1882 there has been continuous litigation over their ownership.

Many squatters settled on different parts and there was trouble every time an eviction was attempted. The Dodge heirs were kept busy protecting their title and dispossessing squatters.

Hill was 40 years old and leaves a wife and one child.

AERIAL CRUISER.

France Offers Prize of $1,000 For Best Design.

Paris, April 7.—Gen. Picquart, Minister of War, has offered a prize of $1,000 for the best design of an aerial cruiser. The condition provides for a steerable ship which must be able to maintain a speed of at least 31 miles an hour for 15 hours, with six passengers. Its total volume is not to exceed 6,500 cubic meters; its total length 90 meters, and diameter through the centre 30 meters.

JUMPED TO DEATH.

Seattle Man Threw Himself From High Hill.

Naples, April 7.—A young man, supposed to be an American, after dining at Torregavetti, near Pozzuoli, climbed to the top of a high hill and threw himself from a cliff yesterday. He was picked up dead. A book found in his pocket contained the inscription, "The Person, Seattle. There is no other trace of the man's identity."

MOIR REWARD.

Constable Only Did His Duty and Gets None.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)
Guelph, Ont., April 7.—The high wind this morning, which swept over the city, was responsible for rather serious damage to the school. Patrick's Ward where the gate tore out a section of a double brick wall about eighteen feet by fifteen and V shaped, and hurled it to the sidewalk below, just at the entrance to the school. The falling wall caused a mild panic in the school, but no one was hurt. Had it occurred a little later, at recess, a large number of children would undoubtedly have been killed or injured as they played on the pavement in front of the school. The wall was a part of a big gas at the top of the school, and the conditions were such that the wall had not been tied to the roof and the wind had just blown it off. The building was put up last year, and had only been occupied a short time. The damage will run over five hundred dollars.

On Paisley street a large tree was blown over by the high wind, and narrowly escaped a party of children going to school, but who were able to run out of the way.

ASSASSIN'S DEED.

St. Petersburg, April 7.—Persian despatches received here state that a revolutionary soldier has assassinated the Shah's commander-in-chief, Ain Ed Dowleh, near Tabriz, with a bomb. Ain Ed Dowleh was former grand vizier.

Kriessmann, Republican nominee for Mayor, had received 31,466 votes, and his Democratic opponent, Wm. G. Woerner, 25,700. The city has had a Democratic Mayor for eight years.

The funeral will take place on Thursday morning, from his late residence, to St. Patrick's Church.

The remains of the late Mrs. Jane Gray were sent to Newcastle this morning, via the 10:15 G. T. R. train, the funeral taking place from the residence of her son-in-law, Guy O. Luke, 211 Mary street. A large number of sympathizing friends and relatives attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Salmon, which took place on Monday afternoon from the residence of her son, Charles Salmon, 36 West avenue north, to Hamilton Cemetery. Mrs. Graham, widow of the late Donald Graham, for many years a resident of Copetown, passed away on Monday morning at the home of her son, D. Graham, South Bend, Ind., where she had been visiting. Mrs. Graham was 83 years of age, and for many years past had resided in St. Thomas. She is survived by two sons, D. ## BOLD THUG.

Attacks and Chokes a Minister's Daughter.

Butler, Pa., April 7.—Sarah Greenert, the 14-year-old daughter of the Rev. E. C. Greenert, a retired Baptist minister, of Graham terrace, South Butler, was attacked last night by an unknown man. The girl, who is a freshman at the Butler High School, was unusually late in leaving for home, and as she walked through a dark alley, she met a man, who seized her and met a handkerchief into her mouth.

After a struggle, during which she was dragged into a nearby thicket, the assailant managed to break away from her. She then ran to her home, screaming for help. Mr. Greenert notified County Detective Joseph A. Heheman, who, with other officers, is trying to locate the man. Miss Greenert is suffering from shock. Her face is scratched and her mouth bruised.

LORD ROBERTS

To Dine Canadian High School and Collegiate Boys.

Toronto, April 7.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts has conveyed by cable an invitation to dinner in England to the Canadian High School boys who win the Standard of Empire free trip to the old country contest. Twelve boys, picked from each Province, Ireland, Scotland and Wales in July. The contest is confined to Canadian High Schools and Collegiate Institutes, and consists in securing votes for subscriptions. Lord Roberts' dinner party to the successful boys will be held probably in London, and will be a "dinner and a show."

Society Nicknames in England.

It is difficult to imagine that dignified individual the Rev. Lord William Cecil, who objected recently to common policemen restraining the exuberant spirits of high born youths at Oxford, being referred to as "Fish," or Lord Alington, his Majesty's host the other day at Crichel, being called "Trotters."

Other nicknames are "Tatters," borne by the Duchess of Newcastle, and "Tuckoo," which serves for both Lady Shaftesbury and Lady Lucan, while Lord Henage is "Smiley," Lord Raglan being "Chalky," Lord Winchester "Tim," the Duke of Marlborough "Sonny," Lord Londonderry "C," and Lord Yarmouth "The Bloater."—Tit-Bits

PHOTOGRAPH OF THE HAND.

A novel method of identifying criminals with absolute certainty has been devised by Prof. Tammassia. When comparing the veins on the back of both hands a striking diversity will be observed. Far more important, however, are the differences noted in the hands of different persons. In order to cause the veins to stand out more distinctly the wrists should be bandaged for a short time. Their courses can then be photographed.

Owing to the size of the hand it is far easier to discover slight diversities than in minute prints of finger tips. Nor can any voluntary alteration of the vein pattern be forced, unless the hand should be seriously injured.—Scientific American.

EDITOR SHOT.

Constantinople, April 7.—Constant Hassan Effendi, general editor of the newspaper Serhedi, was shot and killed by an unknown man as he was entering his office to-day. A government official accompanying the editor was wounded. The crime is believed to be political.

CASTRO FURIOUS.

In a Rage Against the British Government

And the States Because He Could Not Land at Trinidad.

Fort de France, Martinique, April 7.—Cipriano Castro, in a rage against the British Government and the State Department at Washington, left the steamer Guadeloupe at this port to-day and has taken up quarters on shore. Finding all ports in the West Indies, excepting Port de France, barred against him, the present course was the only one left open to the former Venezuelan dictator.

Senor Castro's wife will continue on board the Guadeloupe to La Guaira. The American cruiser North Carolina came into port this morning. The Guadeloupe, on which Castro and his party sailed from France last March 26, came into Port de France last evening. While at Point Pitre, on the Island of Guadeloupe, where the steamer touched yesterday, Castro was informed by the British consul that the British Government had decided not to permit him to disembark at Port de Spain, Trinidad. Consequently Castro decided to leave the Guadeloupe here.

The decision of the British Government, acting on a request from the State Department at Washington, not to let him land at Trinidad, was unofficially communicated to Castro a second time this morning. The former President of Venezuela expressed himself as exceedingly angry at this decision. He characterized it as a violation of the rights of man. He is furiously angry with the American Government and the French steamship company. The latter has refused to let him continue on board the Guadeloupe to Colon. Castro also protested against the belittling intention with regard to the existing political situation.

MAY ARREST HIM.
Caracas, April 7, via Villamanzan, Curaçao, April 7.—The Venezuelan Government has sounded France to ascertain whether or not difficulties would be encountered if ex-President Castro were arrested on board the steamer Guadeloupe at a Venezuelan port.

The reply of the French Government indicated that it would make no protest in such an event.

The third game will be played on Wednesday evening next at the Liberal rooms.

LARGER WAISTS NOW.

Rule of Fashion Models in London Shops is 24 Inches.

The mannikins who are employed by many West End dressmakers to display the new season's dresses are trying to bring their waist measurements up to a uniform twenty-four inches, which is the ideal waist of the present fashion.

The eighteen or nineteen-inch waists which were once the rule in many West End showrooms and which necessitated excessive tight lacing for the girls employed are not only no longer required, but the better class of dressmakers, and their possessors are required to develop a waist measurement several inches larger.

"Our stock waist is twenty-four inches, for it is impossible to show present day gowns to advantage on a smaller waist," explained the manageress of one well-known establishment yesterday. "Many people have developed unnatural waists in course of time, and when a girl has acquired one of these small waists, it is placed inside her corsets to fill up the waist cavity."

"Tight lacing only obtains in old-fashioned show rooms, which have not yet taken cognizance of the entire change in the character of dress."—From the London Daily Mail.

Filtered Water Kills Gold Fish.

"The goldfish business is booming in this section," said a Toga pet dealer the other day. "Sales have doubled in the last month. When the rush first started I wondered what the reason was, so I asked some purchasers. All of them said that their fish had mysteriously died. I couldn't figure out how it was that so many fish died all over the same neighborhood at the same time."

"Finally I hit upon an explanation, which I have since verified. It is this: Goldfish cannot live in the new filtered water as well as in the raw river water. When the pure water was turned on the fish simply starved to death. The life was not in the water. Fish food purchased in stores is generally given irregularly, and thus the great number of deaths in filtered water neighborhoods."—Philadelphia Record.
