A SOAP OF NATURAL HISTORY.—According to Owen, the highest living authority on such subjects, we have three species of the crocodile tribe, and three only which, although confounded by ordinary observers, are readily and certainly distinguished by the comparative anatomist.

THE Wonder of the World! Devine's Compound Pith Lozenges. THE Great Remedy is at last discovered, and COUGHS, COLIC, ASTHMA, COSTIVENESS AND CONSUMPTION have lost their terror, and vanish as if by magic before this Sovereign remedy.

DR. CHALMERS' WORKS. [To commend these works is superfluous; they have met with universal approbation from the British press and public. That the periodical press, representing to great a variety of religious and political opinions, should have so generally noticed them, and that with such commendation, is a circumstance exceedingly rare, if not altogether unparalleled.]

WILLS, WANTS, AND CAPS.—Somebody, more wise than his fellows, says there are three kinds of men in this world—the "wills," the "wants," and the "caps."

THE Subscriber having, by Power of Attorney, bearing date the 18th of January last, been appointed Agent for the Misses Stewart, of Charlottetown, in this Island, to take the management of their property, on Township No. 12, bearing middle all persons on the said Lots, included in the Misses Stewart, for Rent, Arrears of Rent, or otherwise, to pay the same forthwith.
