I'LL WATCH FOR THER

I'll watch for thes up there,

I'll mark with eagle eye
The radicat spirits blest,
And gladly welcome every ant the promised rest.

But when thy soul is freed From earthly toil and pain, And wings its flight to enter in With all the blood-weshed to

With bounding heart and hand I'll sweep my golden lyre, and reals to greet and welcome t

Then will we sing the song With blended voice above The song we would to sing on earth Of Jesses' dying love, We'll gather round the throne— Our blest Redeemer's cest— And east the crowns he bought for ing at his feet !

and with the thousand more, All perdinsed with his blood, We'll swell the scholag author strain To Christ the Lamb of God!

Then welt and suffer on A flow more years below, Sing get swhile the souge of earth, Though I from earth most go,

In heaven I'll wait for thee, White then art talling here, My heart will still be joined to the
