He positive qualities are as follows: lat It frees the head from dandruff, strengthens the roots, imparts health and vigor to the circulation, and prevents the hair changing colour or getting gray. 2d. It causes the hair to cultientuitfully when done up in itover night. This Balm is made from the original receipt procured from the original Turkish Hakim (physician) of Constantinople, where it is universally used. The Turks have always been celebratefor their wooderful skill in compounding the riches uperfumes and all-other toilet articles. In Turkey the aromatic bethe, &c, of which this Balm is composed, are almost universally known and used for the hair. Hence a case of baldaces or thin head of thair is entirely unknown in that country. We wish buttone trial to be made of its virtues, it is put up in Large Bottles at the low price of 50c per Bottle.
