Drowned.

Yesterday afternoon messages were received in the city that a drowning accident had occurred in Trinity Bay, the victim being Abraham Kelloway.

Deputy Minister of Customs LeMesurier had word from Mr. B. Penny, of Catalina, stating that the schooner Duke, Capt. Andrews, of Westville had arrived there reporting that Abraham Kelloway had been washed overboard in Trinity Bay.

Inspector General Sullivan received the accompanying message from Const. White, of Catalina; schr. Duke, of Westville, Capt. Andrews, harbored here, reports that Abraham Kelloway was washed overboard in Trinity Bay.

Capt. Jesse Winsor, owner of the craft and who is now in the city, received a message last night stating that the Duke had sheltered at Catalina, owing to stress of weather and that one of the crew, Abraham Kelloway had been washed overboard in Trinity Bay. Kelloway belongs to Westville and leaves a large family.

As the earlier message did not state expressly that the man was drowned, Capt. Jesse Winsor wired and received this afternoon a reply stating that Kelloway was lost. The message is as follows: Andrews lost the man altogether. No possible chance to save him.

Goes on Dock

AT HALIFAX.

The City of Sydney, which left port last night will be dry docked at Halifax for a general overhauling. Early in the New Year she will take up the Red Cross route, replacing the Stephano which will make a few trips South, and later in the winter the City of Sydney will continue the service in conjunction with the Morwenna, while the Florizel and Stephano are at the seal fishery.

Before proceeding to Halifax the City of Sydney will call at Sydney to attend at the marine court in connection with the collision with the tug Douglas H. Thomas in Sydney Harbor, as a result of which several lives were lost.

SEWING MACHINES.—In our great Annual Fall Sale of Pianos and Organs we also include Sewing Machines. The famous Expert B. at greatly reduced prices. CHESLEY WOODS & CO., 144 Water Street.

St. Andrew's Sale

The Women's Foreign and House Missions Society held their annual sale in the Presbyterian Hall last night under favorable conditions. The sale opened at 3 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering and there was a neat display of stales, which contained a collection of plain and fancy goods. Those who presided at the different booths were:—

Fancy Work.—Mesdames Munn and Curran.
Cake.—Mesdames Syme, Templeton, McLean and Miss Ledingham.
Candy.—Miss Montgomery, Misses Munn, Wilson, Anderson.
Pudding.—Mesdames Mitchell, Harvey and Anderson.

A concert arranged by the Misses Strang commenced at 8.30, previous to which an address was made by Rev. J. S. Sutherland who referred to the good work being done by the promoters. The programme of the concert was as follows: Solo, Miss Rennie; French horn Solo, Mr. Bulley; Solo, Miss Anderson; Mandolin Solo, Mrs. Foster; Solo, Miss Strang; Solo, Mr. Seymour; Recitation, Miss Hamlin; Solo, Miss Jean Strang; Solo, Mr. Baird. Following this partridge supper were served and at eleven o'clock the affair was brought to a termination. The promoters are well pleased with the results.

DINNER PROJECTED.—The members of the St Mary's Y M. A. will hold a dinner in the Hall on the South Side, Christmas Eve night. On Thursday next the school children will have a concert and distribution of prizes.

Gold Watch Returned.

To-day Mr. P. F. Moore, of Moore & Co., with Detective Byrne visited several dealers in junk on Water Street seeking for a part of a main steam pipe, worth $25, which was not returned when Kelly and Cossman were apprehended some time ago. Cossman now says that this with other goods was sold to dealers. A gold watch which had been stolen from Miss Keegan, and which was given her by her deceased grandmother, Cossman surrendered to I. G. Sullivan.

CAUGHT YOUNG DEER.—D. Power, of Toad's Cove, caught a young deer in the country a few days ago and brought it home. It is quite a curiosity to many people there.

Bargains in Ladies', Misses' and Child's Coats, selling at a big reduction. STEER BROS. dec12,tf

FERRY RUN DOWN.—The new harbor ferry boat nearly came to grief on Tuesday while crossing the harbour. She was unseen by the tug John Green until she was close on board. The tug struck her on the quarter.

IN BAD STATE.—At 9 o'clock last night Consts. Norman and Churchill found a man lying in the drain in the darkest part of Casey Street. He was overcome with alcohol and could not speak.

CREWS PHOTOGRAPHED.—The amateur crew of the C. L. B. who won out in the Blue Peter in the last Regatta, and the C. L. B. who won the H. Grace races were photographed at Parsons Studio last night and make interesting pictures.

DOGS ATTRACTED.—The carcasses of defunct horses and other animals thrown near Mundy's Pond bring numerous dogs about there to the detriment of people who are raising poultry and sheep. The brutes roam that section of the country in packs and should all be shot, as they are unlicensed and are doing much damage.

MISSSED A TREASURE.—While hunting on the Gambo River recently, a man named Brown and two young men, sons of Mr. Mark Gibbons, came upon two black foxes. Both were fine specimens and the men shot at them simultaneously but missed. They lost a treasure as a result, but intend to go trapping in the neighbourhood as several black foxes have recently been seen there.

He Blundered.

An amusing incident occurred at Brighton Quarter Sessions, when a prisoner blundered into an admission of his guilt while cross-examining the prosecutor. The prisoner, a stableman, had pleaded not guilty to a charge of stealing a gold watch and chain, with a gold medal and silver matchbox. In the course of questioning the prosecutor, the prisoner asked if the medal was on the watch-chain when he lost it. The prosecutor replied in the affirmative. "It was not on it when I took it," said the prisoner, amidst loud laughter. For the next six months he will be able to kick himself to his heart's content—the while he is not picking oakum.

McMurdo's Store News.

THURSDAY, Dec. 12, 1912.
We have received by recent arrivals large stocks of goods for the winter trade, among them being several articles we have been out of for some time. These are now open and on sale, and we give a list of some of them for your information, Pears' Soap, Glycerine and Unscented; Washing and Bath Gloves, a good variety of serviceable kinds, shaving Brushes, a fine line; Bath Brushes, the long handled kind, Oriwara Nail Brushes; Hair Brushes, the "Even-clean" and others; Nerviline; Catarrhozone, all sizes; Hamilton's Pills and some other things.

Our Christmas Perfume is now all open, and some specimens of it can be seen in our windows. We wrote intending buyers to see for themselves our variety, which is very considerable and full.

Selling Their Cattle.

The schr. Donna Naria, McCarthy, master, arrived here yesterday from Renew with 10 head of cattle on board for sale in the city market. The high price of hay and feeds impels the people to get clear of their stock, and if the vessel could take 50 head along that number would have been forthcoming. All intend to retain their horses, and to do this will entail quite a struggle. The same applies to other places on the Southern Shore as well as Renew.
