The cry of "Revanche!" proved to be that of cliques, not of the French nation. The "gulf" of Alexander III. is now supplemented by the dossier of the Yellow Book, which, to say the least, is decidedly damaging to the German accuser in the Wilhelmstrasse. In this book have been published the documents relating to the Dual Alliance, which were seized by the Bolsheviki, and upon which the Chancellor based his accusations. One and all, they not only entirely vindicate and exonerate the French and Russians of the charge, but they virtually force the Chancellor to swallow his own words. ### The Queen of the Fleet.

On Wednesday last the vessel "Huntley" was successfully launched at Scott's Bay, Nova Scotia. This vessel has four masts, and as auxiliary power has 2-120 house power Lloyd's Test Skandia Engines, and Compressors for starting same and an auxiliary compressor; also electrical generators for lighting the ship. The auxiliary state of the ship of t ators for lighting the ship. The auxiliary compressor and electrical generators are driven by a separate 9 horse power engine. In addition to this there is a 12 horse power engine for hoisting cargo, anchors and sails.

RAILWAY ENQUIRY— The railway accident enquiry will be continued next week, when several witnesses.

The "Huntley" will prove a great addition to the local fleet. She is the largest Newfoundland owned vessel, being 600 tons gross, 500 tons nett, 195 feet long, 36 feet broad and 13 feet 6 inches deep. For comparison, she is about 9 feet shorter than the S.S. Portia, but about 5 feet wider, and 6 inches deeper. According to advice erican Lloyd's, say without doubt she is the finest vessel ever built in the Provinces."
