

To The Memory of

THOSE WHO LOST THEIR LIVES
IN THE GREAT WAR.

In loving memory of my dear brother, John Thomas Kennedy (Capt.), killed in action, somewhere in France, October 4th, 1918.

"Thou art only gone before us,
And the time it won't be long,
For if faithful we shall meet thee
And shall swell the heavenly throng."

While writing a memory of my dear brother I thought I would say a few words to the memory of all the boys who gave their lives in the Great War. It was indeed a great honor and great sacrifice for our boys to give their lives for freedom, liberty and right, which we have enjoyed since Britain (through God) rules the seas. We think it a great thing to be free in our physical life (or world) to have the dear old flag of freedom flying over us. The flag of old England. "The flag that braved a thousand years."

The battle and the breeze.
And we as true British subjects are thankful to God for the flag that stands for freedom and the boys who gave their lives for the cause.

When our most gracious King, George V issued a decree that men were wanted to fight the foe, many obeyed the call of duty. Their love for their King and country compelled them to do so, and to-day we are grateful to the boys that made the Supreme Sacrifice.

But many a mother's heart did yearn over her boy and prayed for her boy that God would spare him to be a comfort to, but in war as you all know, all cannot return. Some must pay the price. They did not think it too much to pay the price for freedom (which they were enjoying and still wanted to enjoy. Not they gave themselves willingly. That is why the sacrifice was so great. But let me say in conclusion to the mothers and fathers and other relatives of those brave and noble boys, they have as we are, paved the way for us, have us in ease and comfort, and we thank them again and again. But let us not forget that the sacrifice in this Great War was not the first, for a far nobler sacrifice was paid over 1900 years ago for us (the whole world) the price of our freedom from sin) was paid by Christ, and it is He that has promised to comfort the fatherless and widows (of which there have been many owing to the Great War). He will sustain you now and we have hope of a sure and certain resurrection and of meeting those that have gone on before. So mothers and fathers, let Christ comfort you and help you and all will be well. You have my heartfelt sympathy and prayers.

Editor Evening Telegram
Dear Sir.—In response to an advertisement in the Daily News, I made application to the Secretary of the G.W.V.A. for a naval prize money. I was not being a member of the G.W.V.A. I was paid him one dollar. This I felt was not exactly right and did not comply with his request. I should like to know Mr. Editor, if there is no other Department in the Public Service interested enough in the returned sailor and soldier to see that every sailor or is supplied with a form free of cost. What about the costly Militia Department, with its large staff drawing pay? I may have something more to say later on.

Yours truly,
JAMES MANSFIELD,
Ex-Naval and Military Man.

Degenerate Sent Down.

JOSEPH GIBBS AT OLD GALE.
Joseph Gibbs, the moral degenerate, who was recently released from gaol after serving a sentence on a serious charge, has again been arrested and was yesterday sentenced to six months by the Magistrate, for loose and disorderly conduct. Four women gave evidence of midnight visits to their homes by Gibbs, whose favourite pastime is the "Peeping Tom" stunt. In speaking sentence, the Judge remarked that Gibbs should be sent to the Asylum as a criminal lunatic.

FEILDANS DEFEATED IN SCHOOL GAME.

The Collegians defeated the Feildans by 2 goals to 1 in the first game of the second round of the Intermediate football series. Playing with the wind in the first half, the Collegians scored two goals. In the second half, the Feildans struggled hard to score but despite their best efforts could obtain only one goal.
