Good Programme Seen at the Nickel.

In spite of the excellent weather prevailing yesterday, the Nickel had it's usual bumper house. The bill "Tillie Wakes Up," featuring Marie Dressler and Johnny Hines created roars of laughter and provided the audience with plenty of entertainment. The picture entitled, "You Never Know Your Luck" was one of hose dramas that appeals to the individual taste of the patron. House

Miss Gladys Redstone was up to her usual high standard. Her solos were excellently delivered and wen the appreciation of her hearers. Tonight, this same programe will be repeated and on Monday the Nickel will screen one of the finest productions of the season. Watch the advertising space for particulars.

By a unanimous vote "Quarantined" has been declared by heatre goers a huge success. One more chance to see this great comedy at St. Joseph's Hall on next Monday night, May 14th, Place: St. Joseph's Hall. Price 50c. and 30c.—may8,10,12,14
