WILL NAME EXPERTS' COMMITTEE.

GERMANY ARMING?

LONDON, Nov. 30. A Reuter Despatch asserting that Britain has received information of rather extensive military preparations in Germany, has attracted considerable attention to-day. The Daily Telegraph says the British official viewpoint is that although the Germans probably could provide sufficient rifles to arm 300,000 Reservists in addition to the Reichswehr, they do not possess any artillery worth mentioning or tanks and other important technical appliances indispensable in modern warfare. War with France would now be equivalent to mass suicide.

BRITAIN IS CAUTIOUS.

LONDON, Nov. 30. Before the British-American treaty, designed to curb illicit liquor traffic in United States territorial waters is introduced, the Foreign Office desires to obtain from Secretary of State more definite assurances that the Supreme Court will not overrule the right of British ships to take over stores into the United States.

ports under seal when intended for use on homeward voyages. This is the reciprocal right Britain would enjoy in return for giving the United States permission to seize alleged smugglers outside the three mile limit, and the treaty would not be sealed until this point is decided beyond doubt.

HAVE THE PROOF.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. A special to the Times from Washington states that proof that the German Government deliberately planned and ordered the sinking of the Luisitania, is contained in the secret archives of the United States Government and has been submitted to the mixed claims commission in support of the demand for full payment of all losses sustained by United States citizens.

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED.

BERLIN, Nov. 30. An official announcement of the formation of a new three party Coalition Cabinet for Germany, with Dr. Wilhelm Marx as Chancellor, and ex-Chancellor Stresemann, as Foreign Minister, was made this afternoon.

RIVER WYE ENQUIRY.

HALIFAX, Nov. 30. An enquiry was held to-day upon the stranding of the Welsh steamer River Wye at Port Moulton Island, on Saturday last. The finding will be announced from Ottawa.

WOULD USE NAVY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. The use of the Navy instead of additional revenue cutters to combat the rum runners, was advocated to-day by Senator Willis, Ohio. He said that so long as the Navy and Shipping Board both had ships to sell he would oppose the Treasury recommendations for appropriation for new cutters.

ANOTHER GOVERNOR INDICATED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 30. Governor Warren T. McCary was indicated on charges of forgery and embezzlement by a Marion County Grand Jury to-day in a report to Judge Collins of the Criminal Court.

ANTI-SMUGGLING CONFERENCE ENDS.

OTTAWA, Nov. 30. The International Conference for the prevention of rum smuggling, which has been in session since Tuesday, concluded to-day, and the American representatives left for Washington. ## Just Folks.

By EDGAR A GUEST

THE HAPPY HOME.
A happy home—how shall it be attained?
Not by the way the wood is carved and stained.
Not by the polished mantel or the stair.
Not by the treasures safely sheltered there.
But by the joys, the laughter and the din
Which those who cross its threshold carry in.

Glad hearts which wakes to greet the morning sun.
Make fair the work the builder's hand has done.
And dark these rooms and gloomy all the while
Unless some face shall light them with a smile.
Silent these walls and solemn everything
If no one here a merry song will sing.

Think you a house has stored within itself
Like bottled olives on the pantry shelf.
The joys you need and sigh for day by day?
Do you expect the painted walls to play?
If with delight you'd set this home aglow,
You who abide herein must make it so.

Welcome the friends who gladly come to call.
Cherish the children racing through the hall.
Here let their laughter ring that none may say
That he is happier when he's away.
If from this house contentment you would win,
Fling wide the door and let contentment in.
