TUESDAY EVENING, AUG. 13, 1872

Town and County News.

GARDEN PARTY.—We would call attention to the advertisement of a garden party to be held at Mr. Lemon's residence on Friday evening.

Knox's Church, Guelph.—This fine building will be opened on Sabbath next, 18th inst. The congregation has been wrapping in the basement for some time past while the erection of the gallery has been going on. This addition is now complete, and presents a very handsome appearance while it affords additional sitting room for three hundred. The Church can now accommodate about one thousand. We congratulate the congregation on the complete success they have had in this important improvement.

ROCKWOOD ACADEMY.—The attention of teachers is drawn to the fact that all the students of the above Institution who applied at the late examination for teachers (eight in number) were successful. It is certainly a most convincing proof of the excellence of the system adopted that during the past eight years, among the many that have been prepared for teaching and the professions at this school, none have failed. The opening announcement will be found in another column.

PAINFUL REMOR.—A rumor circulated through Fergus on Tuesday night that Mr. Pease, after the result of the election was known, had threatened to do some desperate act to himself. Having already despatched political suicide, it is said that he intended to finish his corporeal existence by devouring the manuscript of his speeches in favor of Orton. He was fortunately detected in time. After recovering somewhat from the agitation and prostration consequent on the attempt, he pitched into the Tories in good season for not winning the election, and threatened in revenge to wheel round and become a Grit again, or follow McDougall's shadow, and try the role of Independent.

SUSPECTED OF CATTLE STEALING.—This forenoon two individuals named respectively John Dyson and James Howitt were arrested on the market square by the detectives, on suspicion of having stolen a cow from near Guelph, which they were offering for sale at a figure far below their value. Detective McMenamy arrested Howitt, and detective Ronseaux, who purchased one of the animals for $13 from Dyson, took him into custody. We understand Dyson acknowledges that the cattle were stolen from near Guelph, but declares that his companion had nothing to do with the theft. The case will probably be investigated at the Police Court to-morrow morning. — Hamilton Times of the 12th.

KICKED BY A HORSE.—Mr. Neil McPlatner of Puslinch was driving a thrashing wagon along the 10th Con. of Beverly, on Saturday night last, when one of the horses became entangled in the harness. The night was extremely dark. Mr. McP. went on the bank at the side of the road to set matters to rights when the horse became fractious and kicked him in the face. His left cheek bone was smashed and a bad cut made from the eye nearly to the mouth, and the whole face presents a terrible appearance. Mr. McP. went on the bank at the side of the road to set matters to rights when the horse became fractious and kicked him in the face. His left cheek bone was smashed and a bad cut made from the eye nearly to the mouth, and the whole face presents a terrible appearance.
